LOCAL BREVITIES.

George W. Winter, of the Richmond Dispatch, was in the city yesterday and paid THE TIMES a pleasant call.

Chas. J. Stevens, the genial manager of the Shenandoah Iron Company, was in the city yesterday.

W. A. Rensch, son of N. Rensch, arrived in the city yesterday from California, and will reside here in the future.

Rev. Mr. Hamner, who has been ill with the grip, is recovering. His wife is quite sick with the same trouble.

J. G. Taylor, of Baltimore, manager of the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company, was in the city yesterday.

Nellie, the three-year-old daughter of M. B. Forbes, died yesterday afternoon at 4 p. m. The funeral will occur Sunday.

City Engineer Dunlap has been quite unwell for the past two or three weeks and yesterday he was not able to be out of bed. He is suffering from a severe cold.

Mrs. A. J. Davis, wife of the market clerk, is quite ill with pneumonia.

Rev. F. L. Day is slowly recovering from a two weeks' sickness.

Mr. J. V. Jamison, secretary and treasurer of the Fidelity Loan and Trust Company, is confined at his home by illness.

Mr. E. W. Lazell, late of the Pennsylvania Lead Company, of Pittsburgh, has come to Roanoke to superintend the brick yard of his brother, Mr. J. D. Lazell.

Football To-Day.

A practice game of football will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock on the Jeannette tract. All members of the club who can do so are requested to be present. Another game will be arranged in the near future with some outside team. It is therefore important that the home team should practice as much together as possible. All who desire to witness this practice game are invited to come.

Church Dedication.

The United Brethren Church on Salem avenue will be dedicated tomorrow at 3 p. m. The services will be conducted by Elder E. B. Shaver, of Shenandoah, Va. The public are cordially invited.

Have You Seen It?

HAVE you seen the new sign and what it says? If you have not you should call at Stall 6, City Market, and you will see a large sign which reads like this: "Old Bready sells only home dressed meats." Call to see him when you wish the best.

Old Man Bready.

His name is a household word. He sells only "home dressed meats," and you can bet your boots he means it. He doesn't believe in eating things that have been dead for weeks or months, but, as nature intended, from Adam down, to kill, dress and then your meats are ready for use. Call at Stall 6, City Market, when you wish meats of this kind.

WHEN you wish meats of any kind, always call at my market and see if I have what you wish. Taylor, stall 7, city market.

Home Made.

FINE home made sausage and our home made pork pudding can't be beat. Try us. Roanoke Dressed Beef Company, stall 3, city market.

Fine Fat Cattle Killed.

I HAVE just received six extra large and fine cattle from the "Heights" at Floyd Court House; twenty-five choice lambs. You can now have some home-dressed meats. Call to see me. N. Rensch, Roanoke Dressed Beef Company, stall 8, city market.

The Two.

YES, corned beef and pickled pork are good. You can get them of the Roanoke Dressed Beef Company, stall 8, city market.

Important Notice to All.

FOR the next ten days we will sell our entire stock of ready-made clothing at prime cost for cash. We find we have too many goods on hand for the season and are determined to get rid of them. Give us what we paid for them is all we ask, as we would rather have the money than to carry them over. This is a rare treat for our friends and customers. Seldom do you have such a whack at the class of goods as we carry. Respectfully, Joseph Cohn, 44 Salem avenue. C. M. Dawson, manager.

Tuning and Repairing Pianos and Organs. The Hobbie Music Co. desire to say that they are prepared to do all work of this kind, and guarantee in every instance perfect satisfaction. If your instrument needs repairs of any character, call at 157 Salem avenue, and your order shall have prompt attention.

Lodge of Sorrow.

ROANOKE LODGE, 197, B. P. O. Elks, will hold a Lodge of Sorrow, in the Opera House, on Sunday, December 6, 1891. The clergy and members of the press are specially, and the general public cordially, invited to attend. It is also our earnest wish that the ladies of our city will lend us the grace of their presence on this occasion. Ceremony is in commemoration of our deceased Brother, W. O. Hardaway, Esq., has kindly consented to deliver the eulogistic oration. Music by the Roanoke Machine Works Band and a quartette. Doors open at 2 p. m. Ceremony at 3 o'clock sharp.
