ROANOKE'S REPUTATION.

THE TIMES publishes this morning a number of interviews with gentlemen who are visiting the city, and they one and all speak in the highest terms of Roanoke. This is no fulsome flattery given with the hope of reward. It is the honest conviction and opinion of men who have traveled and visited other cities, and when they say Roanoke stands at the head, they mean it.

And their opinions are but the echoes of what is being said of the Magic City all over this section of the United States. Roanoke's reputation as the coming city of the Southwest is growing with tremendous strides. This city is receiving more favorable press notices than any other town east of the Rocky Mountains; in almost every State and city her wonderful growth is daily discussed, and foreign capitalists stand ready to place their money here.

And this reputation is deserved. Roanoke stands to-day on a foundation that is adamant. Such a thing as going backward is impossible, while every indication and sign points to a continued triumphant march.

To strangers who come here after the lapse of years the growth of the city seems marvelous. They are never tired of extolling its wonderful progress and predicting for it a most brilliant future.
Even to residents of the city the advancement is a bewildering thing, and yet it is safe to venture the assertion that neither visitors nor home folks know what is really going on within our borders.

In every direction, north, south, east and west, building operations are being pushed rapidly forward. The very outskirts that a few years ago were nothing but woods, are now filled with substantial dwelling houses, while business blocks are being erected in every direction.

Unless one takes a trip over the entire city every short while they will lose track of these many improvements.
Roanoke resembles a mushroom in its rapid growth and the bustle in its solidity. In this case flattery can do no harm.

They Invaded Uruguay.
VALPARAISO, July 21.—Brazil may be called upon to pay indemnity to Uruguay on account of recent depredations by citizens of the big republic. A band of republicans from the State of Rio Grande do Sul in Brazil invaded Uruguay territory at Mangueros, sacking the hacienda of Senor Maciel and cutting the throat of Juan Castellanos, a federal partisan. Another band of Brazilian republicans, commanded by General Isidor, also invaded Uruguay near Mangueros and looted many hac-endas.

COUNTY ROADS.

Their Condition in Big Lick District.

The Salem Times-Register to-day will contain the following statement from W. P. Moomaw, supervisor of Big Lick District:

"Will you be kind enough to give a little space in your valuable paper to the following report on the roads in Big Lick District? I think it is my duty to make some kind of statement, to let the people of the district know what has been done with their money.

"When I took charge of the roads, July 1, 1891, I found them in a bad condition. Especially was this the case in Big Lick, Bonsacks and Vinton precincts; no side ditches and no place to make them; fences built in the roads, wheat growing where the road should be, and in many places, on account of fences and gullies, there was not room for two wagons to pass, while the proper width of the roads was 30 and 40 feet.

"Mr. W. G. Wood, who is overseer of the roads in Bonsack precinct, reports eight miles of road bedded up and sideditched. He has moved and had moved about nine miles of fence. There has been expended on his roads about $400, including his salary and for scrapers, carts, harness, shovels, picks, drills, hammers, powder, fuse, dynamite, etc.
His roads are in a fine condition. Mr.
Isaac Huff, who lives in that part of the county, says he never saw money better spent. Mr. David Woodson, who lives near Bonsacks, says it is a pleasure to drive over the roads. Mr. Wood reports that 75 per cent. of the tax has been collected by labor and in money.

"Mr. Eugene Bush, of the Vinton precinct, reports about five miles of road bedded and side-ditched, and three or four miles of fence moved out of the road. Mr. Bush had a great deal of rock to contend with, which has run up the costs considerably. There has been expended on the Vinton roads between four and five hundred dollars, including overseer's salary, scraper plows, picks, shovels, dynamite, drills, etc. Several small bridges have also been built.

"Mr. Bush reports 100 per cent. of the two days' road tax has been paid in work and fines; this does not include the town of Vinton, where it just the reverse. People who travel the Vinton roads say they are in better condition now than they have been since the war.

"Mr. H. J. Dent, of Big Lick precinct, reports fifteen miles of road bedded and side-ditched; five miles of fence moved, with about twenty-five or thirty yet to move; he has built several bridges. Including his salary there has been spent on his road about $900. He has about fifty miles of road to work, all of which he has received his attention, and some of it has been worked twice during the year.

"The roads in Big Lick precinct are in a fair condition.
"Mr. Edington, of Ballahack, reports his roads in a good fix for mountain roads; he has about thirty miles of road under his charge; has spent about $250 or $300, including his salary.

"There are about 100 miles of public roads in Big Lick district, and nearly all has been worked, and about $2,000 has been spent; and taking the condition of the roads into consideration, I think there has been a great deal done and great improvement at a very small cost. In some places the roads had been worn away by washing until they had to be filled from two to six feet before side ditches could be made, and half the money next year will make more show than the $2,000 spent this year; and besides, these roads are equipped with the necessary implements for this year's work."

ONLY ONE MORE ELECTION.
The Parnellite Candidate Defeated in the South Division of Tipperary.
LONDON, July 21.—The last of the election districts, with the exception of the Orkney Islands, where the polling does not take place until next week, has been heard from.
This division is the South division of Tipperary, which has given a majority of 1,798 to Mr. Mandeville, the anti-Parnellite candidate, who was opposed by J. O'Connor, who occupied the seat in the last Parliament.
In 1885 the Nationalist majority in South Tipperary was 3,450, and in 1886 the Nationalist candidate was returned without opposition.
The Ameer's Troops Killed.
SIMLA, July 21.—It is reported here that the Hazara tribesmen, who are fighting 'or their independence against the Ameer of Afghanistan, who seeks to add their territory to his dominions, have ambushed the Ameer's troops. It is reported that many hundreds of them were killed.

Of Frederick, Md., suffered terribly for over ten years with abscesses and running sores on his left leg. He wasted away, grew weak and thin, and was obliged to use a cane and crutch.

without good result, until he began taking now in the best of health. Full particulars of his case will be sent him upon request.

THE VERDICT CONDEMNED.

General Indignation at the Result of the Smith Trial.

The principal topic of conversation on the streets yesterday was the verdict in the Smith murder case, and from every quarter it was condemned in no unmeasured terms. A TIMES reporter interviewed a number of citizens yesterday on the verdict, and their opinions were all of the same nature, namely, that the verdict was an outrage upon justice.

One gentleman was particularly vehement in his denunciation of the result of the trial. "If the courts will not give us protection from murderers," he asked, "to whom shall we look for it?" To my mind Smith was guilty of it as calm and deliberate a murder as was ever committed. It is all rot to talk about the thing being done in the heat of passion. Any man who will walk several miles, buy a pistol and even say what he wants it for and then go back, call a man out and kill him is moved by something more than the heat of passion."

These sentiments were echoed by scores of people with whom the reporter talked.
Notwithstanding the verdict, Commonwealth's Attorney Hardaway should feel flattered over the praise he is receiving for the masterly manner in which he conducted the prosecution.
One and all speak very highly of his work both in regard to his examination of the witnesses and his great speech in presenting the case to the jury. Surely he is not to blame for this miscarriage of justice.

WHERE IS HIS SISTER.

Information Wanted of the Family of a Man Named J. H. Robinson.

The following communication has been received at the postoffice in this city from James B. Miles, postmaster at Helena, Arkansas:

"A man by the name of J. H. Robinson has recently died at Searey, White county, in this State. He has been living in Helena for some time and was a merchant. From what we can learn he has a daughter (married) living in either Salem or Roanoke, but I do not know her name.
"If you know anything about any of his friends or kindred you will confer a kindness on them by informing them of this fact. It is supposed he left considerable money, but of this I do not know."

TO SPAIN IN A DORY.

Captain William Andrews Leaves Atlantic City in a Frail Little Craft.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 21.—Amid the arewells from thousands of spectators who lined the ocean pier and boardwalk Captain William A. Andrews, of Kendal Green, Mass., departed yesterday afternoon on his fourth transatlantic voyage in a boat no larger than a surfman's dory. The boat had been nearly three months in constructing. It is made of canvas, well oiled, and strong enough to withstand any sea that may be encountered. As on his preceding voyages Captain Andrews regulated his supply of provisions to last him sixty days. He is expected, however, to complete the trip in little more than half that time, should he be favored with the usual run of fair weather. His destination is Palos, Spain, the historical city from which Columbus set sail on his first voyage to America.

Shortly after 4 o'clock the frail craft was lowered on the davits and the work of storing away the cargo begun. This took considerable time, twilight approaching before the labor was completed. Cutting away the few ropes which held the boat in place, the venturesome captain, with waving cap, bid adieu to the crowds assembled and, hoisting sail, set off on his perilous voyage.

The captain takes with him a fitting souvenir of the occasion—a magnificent gold medal, presented by the Garlis Club, of this city, which has taken so much interest in the project.

VIRGINIA NOTES.

A few days ago the Charlottesville Woolen Mills received an order for $25,- 000 worth of goods from a Cincinnati firm.

John Cawthorn, a young white man, was killed in Appomattox county by being thrown from a hay rake.

Tuesday last fifty-four carloads of fat cattle were shipped from Fauquier county, most of them for export to Europe.

Rev. P. P. Phillips, rector of Grace Church, Berryville, has been dangerously ill with typhoid fever, but is now convalescing.

The Democrats of Richmond, Petersburg and other cities of the State have reorganized, and are getting ready for active campaign work.

There is a place in Campbell county, about four miles from Lynchburg, on which was located over one hundred years ago a wooden fort, built for protection against the Indians, and in which religious services were occasionally held. Every man then carried his flint-lock rifle with him. In those times Kentucky was the west end of Botetourt county, and Daniel Boone was raising a party of backwoodsmen, like himself, to explore what was then known as "the dark and bloody ground."

There will not be much hay made in Rappahannock this year, due to the cold dry spring.

A new postoffice has been established at Buena, Culpeper county, Robert Murray, postmaster.

Colonel Moon's force of clerks in the Senate chamber, are still hard at work making the extra copies of the direct tax list. It is not probable that the Governor will announce the names of commissioners to distribute the fund until these lists have been completed.

The Virginia Bar Association which has been in session at Old Point this week adjourned Thursday night. At the meeting among those prominently mentioned to fill the vacancies in the court of appeals are Mr. George M. Harrison, Staunton; R. T. Barton and Holmes Conrad, Winchester; John A. Buchanan, Judge James Keith, John W. Rely,
Judge Whittle and Frank Christian, Richmond.
Chilton Shumate died in Orange county last week, aged ninety-seven years.
Capt. John A. Rea, of Albemarle county, died Friday of paralysis.

land and Stevenson Club in the courthouse to night at eight o'clock.

It is assured that there will be a street railway here within sixty days.

Conspiracy to Rob Railroads.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 21.—A conspiracy to rob the railroads centering in this city, formed and carried out by passenger solicitors, ticket brokers and a large number of conductors, has been investigated by detectives. The system worked by the conspirators was the carrying of passengers out of the city at half fare, the proceeds of such business being equally divided among all interested.

USED BY DR. COATES.
No Barbarous Burning With Electricity
or Strong Acids.

READ REMARKABLE STATEMENT.
I have suffered nine years with many severe symptoms. I had a continual burning in my eyes, nose and throat, frequent headache, nausea and vomiting; would often heave till my throat felt raw; my nose ran all the time; caught cold easily and my throat would get very sore; had palpitation of heart and bad taste in mouth, and was very nervous; had wheezing and asthmatic attacks. But now, after two months' treatment by Dr. Coates, I feel entirely cured, and am in better health and feel stronger than I've been for many years.

Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Bad Blood Cured by Allen's Sarsaparilla.
ST. PAUL, Wis. Co., Va., Dec., '91.
For years I have suffered a great deal from indigestion and dyspepsia, and of late had become very much run down. My blood was in bad condition and I was continually tired and had no appetite. I heard ALLEN'S SARSAPARILLA talked about so much I decided to try it. I found it to be indeed a wonderful medicine. It has straightened me out completely and made a new man of me. I now have a splendid appetite, feel first rate, and can eat without my food hurting me, which I could not do before.
A bottle of this great remedy is worth $50.00 to any one suffering as I was.
