Cannot Reach a Settlement.
The adjusters of the various insurance companies in which D. V. Reed held policies have been in the city trying to effect a settlement, which it appears cannot be made. The insurance companies refuse to pay the policies unless Mr. Reed will sign away subrogation rights against the city to them so they can institute a suit against the city to recover the money paid out. Mr. Reed refuses to sign on the grounds that the policies held will not begin to cover his loss, and if there can be anything made out of the city or the Gas and Water Company he will try and recover the amount of damages over and above the insurance. The matter will be definitely decided in some way next week.

Worth Knowing.

MANY thousands of people found a friend in Aunt Fanny's Health Restorer.
If you have never used this great specific for the prevailing malady of the age, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Rheumatism, Costiveness, Nervous Exhaustion, Nervous Prostration, Sleeplessness and all diseases arising from derangement of the stomach, liver and kidneys, we would be pleased to give you a package of this great nerve tonic free of charge. Christian & Barbee.

John S. Edwards, of Adams, N. Y., makes the following sworn statement: Kenyon & Thomas; This is to certify that I know your wonderful medicine, Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, will do in cases of pneumonia. Last winter my mother, who is 75 years of age, was sick unto death with pneumonia. Both lungs were badly involved. The attending physician said she must die. As a last resort we commenced using your Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, applying it freely and thoroughly to the chest, keeping the lungs covered with hot flannels. She soon began to improve and in two hours the crisis was past and she was out of danger and is alive and well today. Your great remedy saved her life.
JOHN S. EDWARDS,
Sworn and subscribed before me, Wm. H. H. Taylor, Notary Public. For sale at Massie & Martin's drug store, corner Commerce street and Salem avenue.

When Your Liver

IS TORPID and sluggish, you cannot do business successfully. Everything goes wrong. You don't feel well. Get your liver in good working order by using Dr. Hale's Household Tea, the great blood purifier and nerve tonic. It has no equal as a health restorer. For sale at Massie & Martin's drug store, corner Commerce street and Salem avenue.

Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure

Is a purely vegetable remedy prepared from rare medicinal plants, a perfect remedy for coughs, colds, hoarseness, loss of voice, whooping cough, bronchitis, the first stages of consumption, allays all soreness of the lungs and chest, and gives perfect satisfaction. It is the greatest medicine of the age to strengthen the lung tissue. 25 and 50c. per bottle at Massie and Martin's drug store, corner Commerce street and Salem avenue.

IF YOUR BACK ACHES,

Or you are all worn out, really good for nothing. It is general debility. Try BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It will cure you, cleanse your liver, and give you a good appetite.

THE TIMES KODAK.

Items of News Gathered Around Town.

Sergeant Frier about one o'clock yesterday arrested J. P. Howry, of Floyd county, for being drunk and disorderly on Main street, and put him in the "jug to cool off," when he will appear before Mayor Younger.

Messrs. J. M. Oakley, senior and junior, have returned from a week's sojourn in Floyd county, where they killed twenty-eight squirrels, twelve rabbits, nine partridges, one ground hog and one coon without the aid of dogs.

Ely Ainge, of the Chadwick Two-Wheeler factory, returned Friday night from New York with two of his daughters who have recently completed their education in Europe.

Mrs. George Regan has returned from a visit to friends in Danville.

An interesting case was before Squire Camper yesterday morning. The contest was concerning a note given by Rev. G. W. Goodwin to C. F. Shortt, for the sum of $30. W. M. Montgomery appeared for Shortt and J. S. Baer represented Goodwin. Speeches were made by the attorneys, after which the justice reserved his decision.

A marriage license was issued in the county clerk's office yesterday to Charles M. Mills and Letitia Reynolds, both of this county.

Quite a number of people went from Salem last night to attend the annual sacramental meeting of the Dunkards (new order) at Green Ridge Church.

At the Baptist Church the pastor, Dr. Taylor, will preach in the morning, but at night there will not be services there as Dr. Taylor will deliver an address at Bouscack upon "Missions One Hundred Years Ago and Now."

There will be the usual services today at the other churches, and at 3:30 p. m. there will be a meeting for Christians conducted by Revs. P. R. Nugent and J. H. Hutchinson in the Hockman block.

The Y. M. C. A. exercises this afternoon will be conducted by W. M. Montgomery as the public meeting has been postponed until next Sunday afternoon.

The Salvation Army now only hold meetings on Saturday and Sunday evenings in their hall at Dry Branch.

Mrs. L. A. Fox is in Pulaski attending a meeting of the executive committee of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Lutheran Church of Southwest Virginia.

Friday night thieves entered the large dry goods store of Duncan & Cumpston, on College avenue, by means of a small break in the corner of the plate glass window, through which they must have slipped a very small boy. About a hundred dollars worth of ladies' goods, including a handsome plush mantle, were carried off.

As Agnew's team was unloading dirt at the fill at the Colorado street overhead bridge yesterday morning the breast yoke broke, and the wagon running up on the team threw them down the bank on to the railroad track, from where they were subsequently rescued with much difficulty.

The wife and family of Rev. J. W. Butler, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned to their home at Grandville, S. C.

Burglars Visit Mr. Hardaway.

Commonwealth's Attorney Hardaway has been prosecuting burglars the past few days, and he is now in a mood to take especial delight in fastening the the clutches of the law on that class of criminals. He was disturbed in his slumbers yesterday morning by a noise at his room door and the light of a bull's-eye lantern. Mr. Hardaway spoke to the intruder, thinking it was his roommate, J. R. Bryan, another member of the bar. The burglar put out his light and disappeared as soon as he heard the voice of the commonwealth's attorney, and Mr. Hardaway resumed his sleep after he had knocked over all the chairs in the room, trying to find whether or not the departed intruder had left a companion behind. He didn't follow, for he says he is satisfied with burglars as long as they stay out of his room.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 29.—[Special]—The opening of the stock market this morning was awaited with no little anxiety by the bulls, who feared the great fire in Milwaukee would have an adverse influence on prices. The unexpected, however, happened again and outside of St. Paul, which fell off 1/2, the market was tolerably steady. New England was exceptionally strong. The Distillers were then raided, breaking 2 1/2 points. Chicago Gas broke 3/4 and the rest of the list sympathized. A favorable bank statement then came, the bulls bought confidently and the market closed strong with losses almost fully regained. The number of specialties situated in New York and Pennsylvania were active and higher on reported deals. Sales 166 shares.
