CHURCH ENTERTAINMENTS.

Lawn Parties, Sociables and Sunday-school Picnics.

The festival of the Ladies' Aid Society of Grace Methodist Church began last night in the Bee Hive bakery building on Commonwealth avenue and will continue three nights.

The ladies of the Second Lutheran Church in Belmont addition will hold a festival at that place next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings for the benefit of the building fund of the church. Elaborate preparations have been made and those who attend will have a pleasant time, besides aiding a worthy cause.

The Sunbeam Society of the East Roanoke Baptist Church will give a good entertainment at the church tonight for the benefit of the building fund. A splendid program has been prepared.

One of the jolliest and best picnics that has been held in the vicinity of the city for a long time was that of the Rosebud Missionary Society of the Greene-Memorial Church yesterday at Lake Spring at Salem. About eighty children and young people were in attendance under the chaperonage of T. T. Fishburne. They left Roanoke at 10 o'clock and spent the entire day in the beautiful grounds of Lake Spring.

A lawn party for the benefit of the Calvary Baptist Church will begin next Monday night, and be continued Tuesday and Wednesday nights at the corner of Park and Church streets.
