

ASSASSIN SLAYS FRIEND OF CZAR

COUNT SCHUVALOFF SHOT AND INSTANTLY KILLED AT MOSCOW WHILE RECEIVING A NUMBER OF PETITIONS--ASSASSIN IS CAPTURED

MOSCOW, July 11.—Count Schuvaloff, prefect of this city, was shot and instantly killed today while receiving a number of petitioners.

The assassin escaped in the excitement but was captured later.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 11.—The news of the assassination of Count Schuvaloff at Moscow, created a sensation here. Schuvaloff belonged to an aristocratic family and was an intimate friend of the Czar and grand dukes. It is believed because of these friendly relations the prefect was killed.

The assassin while in the ante-room of the prefecture until the other petitioners had been received then entering the audience room he advanced toward Schuvaloff firing five shots at close range. The bullet passed through the body of the prefect. The assassin was dressed as a peasant.

TROUBLED WHOLE DAMM FAMILY

Damm Dog Gets Owners into Bad Tangle--Have Family Quarrel and Go into Court

NEW YORK, Tuesday, July 11.—Magistrate Whitman had the whole Damm family, including the Damm dog, before him in Harlem police court yesterday morning. And the trouble was on account of the dog.

Hermann Damm and his wife, Marie, dwell at No. 61 East One Hundred and Tenth Street. Both are Germans. Herman last Saturday afternoon went to a saengerfest. He returned with a little yellow cur, which he insisted should be added to the family roster as a companion to the little Damms.

Mrs. Damm objected vigorously, Herman declared with a teakettle, and the result was that Hermann came out second best. Then Mrs. Damm procured a summons for Herman.

Neither Mrs. Damm nor Herman can speak English and the court was in an uproar. Magistrate Whitman enjoyed the case so much that he dismissed it, telling Mr. and Mrs. Damm to patch up a peace between them. "And if I were you," he said to Mr. Damm, "I would turn that dog loose."

HAS EYE FOR BUSINESS

Portland Woman Seizes Money to Pay for Gas Used by Rancher who Committed Suicide

PORTLAND Ore., July 11.—With an exceptionally keen eye to business, Mrs. E. Newcomb, the landlady of 389 Third street, where J. W. Hagarth, aged 38, a rancher with property near Wallowa, Ore., committed suicide last night by turning on the gas, seized 45 cents, all the money the dead man possessed, and held it in payment for the gas used in killing himself.

Coroner Finley considered the act of the woman with a grant, and without any comment allowed her to keep the money. Mrs. Newcomb was pleased to think that she was not out anything for the extra flow of gas.

Mr. N. A. Thompson a grain buyer of Waterville passed through town on his way to Portland to visit the fair. He will visit his old home and friends in Linn county, Oregon before returning to the Big Bend metropolis.

GRISCOM TO BE ROOT'S ASSISTANT

GENERALLY BELIEVED IN OFFICIAL CIRCLES AT WASHINGTON THAT PRESENT MINISTER TO JAPAN WILL SUCCEED FRANCIS B. LOOMIS

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—It is generally believed in official circles in Washington, D. C., that President Roosevelt has practically decided upon Lloyd Griscom, present United States minister to Japan, for the position of first assistant secretary of state to succeed Francis B. Loomis who probably will receive a diploma appointment.

Should the President appoint Griscom to the state department, it is likely the department will be reorganized. With Mr. Root, who is very fond of system and of every new method that will save time and increase the efficiency of the department at its head and Griscom, a young man and full of energy and vigor and well experienced in practical business methods as first assistant, it is likely that the methods of doing business at the state department will be radically changed.

LEAVES PULPIT FOR STAGE

Kansas Minister to Take Part of John the Baptist in Play Entitled the Holy City

NEW YORK, July 10.—John R. Wright, a Baptist minister of Columbus, Kan., has signed a contract with a New York firm of theatrical managers to play the part of John the Baptist in a Biblical play entitled the "Holy City." Wright says he has determined to abandon the pulpit for the stage, because he thinks he can do more good by acting than by preaching the gospel. Wright has no previous experience as an actor.

GRAVE TROUBLE FORSEEN.

It needs but little foresight, to tell, that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young of Clay N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in electric bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by U. G. A LONG NOSE.

In a village in Maryland an old deacon in shaving himself on Sunday prior to church time made a slight cut with the razor on the extreme end of his nose. Quickly calling to his wife, says the Philadelphia Ledger, he asked her if she had any court plaster in the house.

"You will find some in my sewing basket," she said.

The deacon soon had the cut covered. At church in assisting with the collection he noticed every one smile as he passed the plate, and some of the younger people laughed outright. Very much annoyed, he asked one of his assistants if there was anything wrong with his appearance.

"Well, I should say there was," answered the assistant. "What is that upon your nose?"

"Court plaster."

"No," said his friend; "it is the label from a spool of cotton. It says, 'Warranted 200 yards.'"

A Carriage in an "Easter Egg."

The Easter week is the chief occasion for Russian family and friendly reunion and rejoicing. What Christmas boxes are to us or les etrennes to the French on New Year's day, Easter gifts are to the Russians. Egg shaped presents of every imaginable size and value are the order of the day. Sometimes these Easter gifts assume very substantial proportions. We once saw at St. Petersburg an Easter egg of gigantic dimensions, containing nothing smaller than a brougham destined for a charming and no doubt delighted recipient.—London Saturday Review.

Disappointment on Both Sides.

"You said the house was only five minutes' walk from the station," complained the victim. "To say the least, I'm disappointed in you."

"And I'm disappointed in you," replied the agent. "I thought you were a very rapid walker."—Philadelphia Press.

Setting Him Right.

"You think a good deal of your husband, don't you?" asked the visiting relative.

"You have the wrong preposition," answered Mr. Meekton's wife, with the cold tones of the superior woman. "I think for him."

The Backbone.

When asked by her teacher to describe the backbone a Norborne school-girl said, "The backbone is something that holds up the head and ribs and keeps one from having legs clear up to the neck."—Norborne Leader.
