REVOLUTIONISTS TELL CZAR TO ABDICATE

Openly Declare Government Has Ceased to Exist and Call on

ARMY RIPE FOR REVOLT

Situation Cannot be Exaggerated and all Russia is Drifting Toward Anarchy

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 30.— While the day passed quietly and without bloodshed in the Russian capital and the city is outwardly calm, today's developments all indicate that a crisis is imminent. Although the streets are filled with troops and reinforcements are now pouring in from Finland, the government seems utterly powerless to cope with the situation and many calm observers seem seriously to believe that the present regime is tottering to its foundation.

Grave doubts are expressed as to whether even the imperial guard can now be relied upon. Discontent is rife. Early this morning the 14th and 18th equipages of sailors of the guard, who have been shut up like prisoners in barracks on the Moska canal, demolished the windows and furniture, and in the afternoon a detachment consisting of four officials of the guard went to the lawyers' assembly and told the barristers that many of the officers and a large part of the troops were disgusted with the government and were ready to enlist in the movement for freedom. The situation can not well be exaggerated. With the present indecision of the emperor, the government has neither a head nor a policy to meet the crisis and things seem to be drifting toward anarchy.
The revolutionists openly declare that the government has ceased to exist and that nothing remains to his majesty except to abdicate. With a firm hand at the helm and a rational policy, however all might be changed.

INVESTIGATE ALLEGED PACKING OF CONVENTION.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The Tribune today says:

The federal government is investigating the efforts of the railroad interests to pack the interstate commerce law convention which met here last week. Dr. E. D. Durand, a special examiner attached to the bureau of corporations of the department of commerce is conducting the inquiry. He refused last night to discuss the results of his day's work.

HELLO GIRL FOILS BOLD ROBBERS.

HAGERSTOWN, Ind., Oct. 30.—Ten men this morning blew the safe of the First National Bank and stole $4,700.

Several men fired at the robbers as they left the scene.

Miss Hattie Cheeseman, a telephone operator in the office above the bank, heard the explosion and saw the armed bandits. Then she gave the alarm.
A posse arrived before the thieves reached the inner safe where thousands of dollars were stored.

JAMES B. HOWARD AND THE GOEBEL MURDER.

The long fight for life waged by Caleb Powers, accused of complicity in the murder of William Goebel, revives interest in the fate of James B. Howard, the Kentucky mountaineer who is now serving a life term in prison for the same murder. On his first trial Howard was sentenced to death. A second trial was secured, he was again convicted, and life imprisonment was prescribed as the penalty.

SUIT CASE VICTIM IS SUSAN GEARY

Mystery of the Dress-Suit Case is Solved by Mother of the Victim.
Who Recognizes the Rings Her Daughter Wore.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 30.— Mrs. Catherine Geary, wife of J. D.
Geary of this city, said tonight that she was satisfied the dress suit case victim was her daughter, Susan. She had been strongly suspicious, she said, ever since the first dress suit case was found at Winthrop that the dismembered body was that of her daughter, but she had hesitated to announce the fact to the police, fearing they might prove unfounded. The discovery of the second suit case, containing the limbs and the three rings which were on one hand, convinced her that she had not been mistaken.
But even when she saw the pictures of the rings and the description of them in the newspapers, she did not go to the police. Mrs. Geary said:

I have not seen my daughter for seven weeks and I have felt sure for some time that she was the victim in the case. She wore a pressed gold ring on her little finger and she had also an opal ring and a garnet ring, which I gave her as a birthday present five or six years ago. The chased ring was probably ten years old.
When I saw the rings I recognized them as those worn by my daughter.

I know the victim is my Susie. She complained of pains in her side just before she went away, and I think that she may have been operated upon for appendicitis, and the doctor having made an unsuccessful operation, cut her up.

During the summer she appeared at some of the pleasure resorts outside of Boston as a member of the "Shephard King" company. In July she began to get nervous and complained of pains in her side and I knew that there was something wrong with her, but thought it would pass away.

EVIDENCE TAKEN TO WASHINGTON

Judge Cowan Will Visit the White House to Tell Roosevelt How the Railroads Sought to Pack the Convention.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Evidence tending to prove that efforts were made by the railroad interests to pack the convention of the Interstate Commerce Law league will be taken to Washington by the notification committee and placed before the proper authorities when they go to the capital to President Roosevelt with a copy of the resolutions adopted by the convention in Steinway hall.

This statement was made by Judge Cowan of Fort Worth, Tex., who was a delegate to the convention.

According to Judge Cowan, the executive committee of the league, for several weeks before the convention, had detectives busy securing evidence that the railroads intended to pack the convention.

One of the charges made by them, said Judge Cowan tonight, is that our meeting was held for political purposes. This is manifestly ridiculous, as more than half the delegates in Steinway hall were democrats from southern states.

This question is broader than any political party, and those connected with the movement include representatives from every state and every line of business in the country.

VICTORIA, B.C., Friday, Oct. 27.
—Sealers are elated over the prospects of good prices for sealskins on the London market this year.

Captain Balcom, of this city, operating vessels in the South Atlantic, has received word that the first skins marketed by him in London brought 25 per cent higher prices than last year.

London controls the sealskin market and local sealers expect correspondingly good prices.
