Russia still has enough on hand to make her place seem homelike to the Ozar.

Morning Side tracts, low price, easy terms, water right, close in. For full particulars see Walter M. Olive.

Other society women who take up the study of music should beware of neglecting the important branch of domestic harmony.

Luckily for the Nevada ranchman who was trying to give away several thousand dollars in Chicago, the first man he met was a policeman.

On second thought Mr. Harriman may have concluded that it was much more important to get home alive than to get there at high speed.

A sensational report from Oklahoma averts that a postmaster there resigned voluntarily. The report will be received with caution, of course, till confirmed by investigation.

An observing person can easily recognize a Democratic paper by the pictures it publishes of President Roosevelt. Of all the snapshots generally taken at an unfavorable angle while the President is speaking or with the sun shining full in his face, the Democrats select the worst of these when they have occasion to use the presidents picture.

SCHOOL TEACHER FIGHTS BULLDOG

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—While trying to save her pupils from an attack of a savage bulldog, which had invaded the schoolroom, Miss Vera Wikes, a young teacher in the public school at 59 Union course, East New York, was severely bitten.

There was a wild struggle between the frail young woman and the powerful brute before she overpowered him and pushed him from the room.
Miss Wikes hands were bitten to the bone but she managed to get her apron about the animal's neck, and eventually to overcome it by strangulation.
Not once did she wince from the pain.
After hurling the dog through the doorway she and the children screamed for help, which attracted the janitor and Policeman Groves. The latter put a bullet through the animal's brain.

ALICE DECLARES THAT SHE IS NOT ENGAGED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Miss Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the president, is not engaged to be married to Representative Nicholas Longworth or to any one else. Miss Roosevelt, herself, is authority for the statement, which she made today before embarking for Washington. As she was about to board a train in the Pennsylvania depot in Jersey City she was asked if it were true that she was soon to wed. After a moments hesitation Miss Roosevelt said with some spirit:
"I'm not engaged to anybody. There is absolutely no truth in the story that there is an engagement between Mr. Longworth and myself. You may make my denial as strong as you please."
