TWO LIES NAILED

Weekly "Knocker" Caught in Two Deliberate Falsehoods

FACTS FROM DAVIES

Makes Signed Statement that World Presented His Name for Mayor With His Knowledge and Permission.

To the Daily World:

For your information and to correctly state facts, I wish to say that on Nov. 7th, a representative of the Daily World suggested that my name be presented for the office of mayor of the city of Wenatchee. I stated that if nominated for mayor or alderman, the nomination would be accepted and my mind has not changed.

The Daily World had authority to state above facts.

T. A. DAVIES.

$100 REWARD.

By innuendo the editorial page of yesterday's Republic charged that the city clerk has refused to allow the books of his office to be examined by some interested citizen. To give the editor of the Republic an opportunity to show that the charge is not a malicious lie, I hereby offer to Leonard Fowler, or his associate editor, the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS, if he can establish by oath of reliable citizens that during the administration of the city clerk's office in its present quarters, any citizen of Wenatchee has been refused access to any records of the office, or that by reason of any personal difference any person transacting business with the office has received other than courteous attention.

A. A. BOUSQUET.

The foregoing are some of the expressions of opinion made this morning to a World reporter concerning Mr. Davies as a possible mayor of Wenatchee. A score of other leading business men and professional men expressed themselves as heartily in favor of Mr. Davies for Mayor but for business or personal reasons preferred not to have themselves quoted.

The canvass of the town made by a World reporter this morning shows that the sentiment of our citizens is overwhelmingly in favor of Mr. Davies. The few who oppose his nomination do so not because they think he would not make a good mayor, but because of their warm personal friendship for other possible candidates.

C. E. Buttles: Either Mr. Davies or Mr. Littlefield would be satisfactory to me.

Walter Olive: Davies is the right kind of man for mayor of Wenatchee. I will vote for him.

E. M. Tupper: Davies is a first class man for the place.

W. S. Gehr: I think that Mr. Davies will satisfactorily fill the mayor's chair if elected.

Harry Constantine: Mr. Davies is the right man for the place.

Henry Schmidt, of the Elberta hotel: I think Mr. Davies would make a good mayor.

A. N. Corbin: I think Mr. Davies is a good citizen and a good business man and will make a good mayor.

Henry Crase: I have known Mr. Davies ever since he came to the city and believe him to be a good citizen and a thorough business man, and if elected would make a good mayor.

H. Harris: I think that Mr. Davies is the best possible man to select for the office of mayor. He is up to date, progressive and is able to grasp any situation.

Chas. Kyle: I think that Mr. Davies is the right man to elect for mayor of Wenatchee.

Clarence Wheeler: I know Davies by his business reputation and believe that the qualities that make a successful business man fit him for the mayor of this city.

E. F. Sprague: I think that T. A. Davies would make a good mayor.

U. G. Hall: I do not believe that we could get a better man for the position.

C. A. Bower: I think that Mr. Davies will make an excellent man for the position if he will accept.

Jacob Miller: I see no reason why Mr. Davies should not make a good mayor. He has made a success as a business man.

P. P. Holcomb: Mr. Davies has made a success as a business man. From that success I believe that he would make a success in a public office.

A. A. Piper: Mr. Davies would make a good mayor. He has made a success as a business man and, therefore I think that he ought to make a success as a mayor.

C. M. Banker: I see no reason why Mr. Davies should not make an excellent mayor. He is the right man for the place.

A. P. Clayton: I consider Mr. Davies a first class business man and think that he would make a successful mayor.

APPROPRIATED THE DANCE HALL

Sheriff Webb left this morning for the Clockum to serve notice upon Wm. Kirby to vacate a house which he occupies.

Some time ago some young men of the Clockum built a dance hall upon government land. Mr. Kirby came along and homesteaded the land and moved into the dance hall which he is now using as a place of residence.

The boys want their dance hall and so does Mr. Kirby. They cannot come to an agreement on the subject and so the boys have called in Sheriff Webb to assist them.

Whether the boys use the hall for dancing purposes or whether Mr. Kirby will use it for something else in the future depends upon a decision of the court.

REFUSED MESSAGE FROM ROOSEVELT

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 17.—John Biggs, night clerk for the Western Union Telegraph Co., at Norfolk, has been dismissed because he refused to accept an unpaid message from President Roosevelt to his wife at Washington, D. C.

The message was received at by wire less at the Norfolk navy yard from the cruiser, West Virginia, while the president was at sea after his southern tour. It was transmitted from the naval station to the Western Union office by telephone, but the clerk refused to accept it, saying that it was against the rules of the company to accept unpaid messages. The officers of the company decided that he should have used more discretion.

But few men would work if there was any other honorable method of obtaining their board and clothes.

CUT OUT FOOTBALL BECAUSE BOY IS KILLED

SAN JOSE, CAL., Nov. 17.—The student body of San Jose yielded yesterday to agitations against football and passed resolutions barring the game until more stringent rules are enacted. Every school in the country has abandoned football because of the death of Clarence Van Bokkelen from injuries received in the annual game a week ago last Saturday between San Jose and Santa Clara high schools.

NORWAY WILL HAVE A KING

CHRISTIANA, Norway, Nov. 17.—By a majority of almost four to one the people of Norway today declared that they would be governed by a king. The advocates of a republic made a determined fight for that form of government, but the result of the balloting showed that the preference for a monarchy was overwhelming.

The sovereign chosen by the people is Prince Christian, Frederick Carl Georges Valmar Axel, better known as Prince Charles, of Denmark.

As second son of the crown he has had almost no government experience, having confined his activities to the navy. But it is this seafaring training that especially endears him to the modern generation of Norse Vikings. The people believe in the "Sailor Prince."

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 17.—Mr. Grip, the minister from Sweden, notified the state department today that King Oscar, in view of the separation of Sweden and Norway, had renounced his former title of King of Sweden and Norway and desired to be known hereafter as King of Sweden and of the Goths and Vandals.

NO FOOTBALL FOR NEBRASKA

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Omaha says:

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—In the Temple Emanuel, on Fifth Avenue, a meeting was held last night under the auspices of the New York section of the council of the Jewish women, to protest against the outrages on Jews in Russia.

Joseph Barondess made a speech, in the course of which he said:

"I have personally lost no less than twelve relatives, to say nothing of hundreds of friends, in the massacres of Kishineff and Odessa. Port Arthur fell as a punishment for the massacre of the Jewish people. The fall of the dynasty of the Romanoffs will just as surely follow the massacres which are horrifying the world."

RUSSIA FACES ARMED REBELLION

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 16.—A false emperor has suddenly made his appearance near Pensea an already his followers number 50,000. This is the startling report received this afternoon from Simbirsk.

Pensea is the heart of the vast region extending westward from the Volga, where agrarian uprisings on a large scale have occurred, and if the report turns out to be true that the pretender to the throne has placed himself at the head of the peasantry the government will soon face, besides its other troubles, a formidable agrarian rebellion.

It required a year to suppress the famous rebellion led by Pagatiechiff, who impersonated the dethroned and murdered Peter III in the time of Catherine II. That uprising was started in the same region, on the banks of the Volga.

MCDONALD'S WISH WONT SAVE BEEDE

SEATTLE, Nov. 17.—(Special)—Prosecuting Attorney Mackintosh said this morning that regardless of Ray McDonald's wishes, Geo. Beede, who shot McDonald while the latter was walking on the street with Beede's wife, will be prosecuted on a charge of assault with attempt to murder. McDonald, whose recovery is now assured, says he does not want Beede punished.

BIG GAME TOMORROW

The football game between the Freshman Seniors and the Junior Sophomores will be played tomorrow at the county fair grounds. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. An admission of fifteen cents will be charged. The teams are evenly matched and game will be the most exciting has ever been played in the city. The Seniors and Freshmen have the heavier line but this advantage is lost by the fact that the Juniors and Sophomores have the heaviest backs. An immense amount of enthusiasm has been worked up among the boys and girls of the school and a large attendance is expected. The line up for the game and the official have not been announced yet.
