

Local and Personal

R. M. Goodian, of the Cloekman settlement is in the city today.

Money to loan on city and farm property. John A. Gellatly.

A dancing party will be given at the Wenatchee theater next Tuesday evening by the ladies of the Altar Society of St. Joseph's church.

Mrs. M. F. Cochrane and son of Quincy arrived in the city today to spend a few days shopping.

Cut glass and hand painted China at David Keith's.

Geo. A. Fletner of Stemilt is in a business visitor in the city today.

John McDouda of Bridgeport, was a passenger on the downriver steamer yesterday.

$7.75 buys a ton of clean, full weight Roslyn coal. Caatchell Store, 36 Wenatchee Ave. north.

Elder Peters of the Dunkard church at Sunnyslope, was a visitor in the city this morning. He states that his neighbors have harvested their crops and are most of them cutting and hauling wood from the mountains.

E. C. Eckels, who has been in the upper county packing apples for the past few weeks, returned to this city for the winter yesterday.

Mrs. Bruce Griggs, who has been visiting her brother J. C. Bassett, of Brewster for some time, passed through the city yesterday on her way to her home in Seattle.

L. E. Jones this morning bought two lots on the corner of Chelan avenue and second street north of Arthur Gunn. The consideration was $425.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Clark of Cashmere visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cunningham yesterday.

Glen Woodward, who has been employed in the Wenatchee Department Store for the past few weeks, returned to his home in Palouse yesterday.

Conrad Rose left on the afternoon train yesterday for a business trip to Portland. He will return the latter part of this week.

Harry Quick, of Chelan, spent yesterday in Wenatchee visiting at the home of Smith Miller. He was pleased with the city and contemplates locating here in the spring. Mr. Quick will be a valuable addition to the baseball team as he pitched on the Salt Lake City team last season.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reeves will entertain a number of their bachelor friends at Thanksgiving dinner.

E. J. Hallenbeck made a business trip to Hammond Saturday for the Wenatchee Milling Co.

Graham brothers, of Riverside, arrived in Wenatchee last night with ten head of horses which they will sell to local dealers.

$1.50 pictures—95c. Seventy five cent pictures 45c at David Keith's.

J. W. Scherer who has been visiting at the home of C. E. Battles left this afternoon for his home in Moscow, Idaho.

Biz dance Thanksgiving night at the Wenatchee theater.

W. W. Graves, a young attorney of Spokane, who has been visiting friends in the valley for the past few days, left for Seattle today. Mr. Graves was well pleased with the city and contemplates locating here in the spring.

H. R. Parshall, proprietor of the Parshall Department Store, will leave tonight for Spokane on a business trip.

Judge R. S. Steiner arrived in the city on the down river boat yesterday. He opened a short term of court today.

J. J. King, the Leavenworth attorney, spent Sunday in Wenatchee.

The M. E. Sunday School is making arrangements for a cantata to be given Christmas. Announcement of program will be made later.

E. L. Thompson formerly proprietor of the Elberta hotel is in the city today visiting friends.

There will be a rehearsal of the Mikado tonight at the theater. Manager Ferguson expects to stage the piece a week from next Friday.

Williams and Grimshaw, the attorneys of this city who spent the last days of the week in Waterville returned to this city yesterday.

F. Delano, the Southside rancher spent the morning in the city today.

E. G. Peck, president of the Yakima County Abstract company, is in the city on business for his firm. Mr. Peck states that the people of Yakima have received word from Congressman Jones that the government officials will take up the irrigation propositions in Washington, which have been recently submitted to the department of the interior.

Ray Graham, who has been working for the Columbia River Lumber company at Bridgeport, arrived in Wenatchee this morning and will stay here the rest of the winter.

First class coffee and cakes served Palace Bakery.

David Gellatly, brother of County Auditor Gellatly, will return to Wenatchee from Philomath, Ore., where he has been spending the summer and will resume his duties as deputy auditor on Dec. 1. On his way here he will stop at Seattle to see the football game on Thanksgiving day between the University of Washington and the Oregon agricultural college team.

Louis Crollard will leave for Seattle on Dec. 1, to accept a position as stenographer for the superior court reporter in that city.

For fancy cakes for Thanksgiving. Palace Bakery.

Mr. Lane of the firm of Lane Douglas and Lane, is in the city acting as attorney for the defendant in the case of the Scheble Hardware company vs. the Griggs Land company. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lemaster and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill spent Sunday with Sheriff Webb at Inavale farm.

Miss Erma Misell, is in the city for a few days visiting friends.

For Thanksgiving get some of our first class pastry. Palace Bakery.

Deputy County Superintendent of schools Porter has just finished the apportionment of schools funds for the quarter ending Nov. 1. The total amount to be apportioned was $2449.22, of which the county paid $350 and the state the remainder. The amounts received by the different districts run from $16.58 for some of the smaller districts to $310 the amount received by the Wenatchee district.

J. M. Tompkins, president of the Farmers and Merchants bank, left for Seattle yesterday to spend the week visiting at the home of his daughter Mrs. John Lilly.

J. E. Graves has accepted a position with the J. S. Mooney real estate company.

Len R. Foley will leave Thursday for his home in Seattle. Mr. Foley has been employed as mail clerk on the river steamers.

Will Johnson left on the noon train for Leavenworth to repair the gasoline engine of Emil Frank in that city.

Phillip Miller brought a load of produce to the city this morning from his ranch south of the city.

W. O. Marr is engaged in building a barn in the rear of his residence on lower Wenatchee avenue.

JUDGE STEINER ARRIVES AND OPENS COURT

Judge R. S. Steiner arrived in the city yesterday from Waterville and opened court this morning. The first case heard was the Scheble Lumber company vs. the Griggs Land company. Arguments and motions were presented by Attorney Lane for the defendant and Reeves and Reeves for the plaintiff. The judge too the case under advisement. This afternoon Dill and Thomas will present a motion asking that they be appointed attorneys of for the defense in the case of the state vs. Harry Constantine who was convicted of selling liquor to minors in the fall term of the court and who has appealed the case.

CZAR'S CHILDREN ARE SMUGGLED AWAY

BERLIN, Nov. 26.—From Swedish sources the correspondent of the Daily News learns that it is suspected at Stockholm that the czar has sent his children out of Russia in care of Grand Duke Nicolai Michaelovitch, who yesterday crossed Sweden, bound for Denmark and the Rivera with four children said to belong to his butler. Traveling with the grand Duke's party were three girls and a boy infant.

Such a combination provokes comment, inasmuch as Nicolai is a bachelor. Everybody wonders why he takes his servant's children with him on a recreation trip. The "father and mother" of the youngsters were observed to treat the children with remarkable respect.

Observers are convinced that the czar has taken this means to put his children out of reach of danger.

ADAMS ADVERTISED FOR BLACK SAND

JUNEAU, ALASKA, Nov. 27.—It is alleged that Adams, the defaulter in the Seattle assay office, ran an advertisement under an assumed name in the Whitehorse Daily Star, for black sand last summer. The advertising created some comment in other Alaskan papers and much speculation.

Kindness has its effect even on a mule—but the effect isn't always satisfactory.

Some men have so much book learning that they have no room for common sense.

A woman is never happily married unless she has refused at least one other man.

WENATCHEE DEPARTMENT STORE

Griggs Block N. I. NEUBAUER Griggs Block

... Men's Clothing ...

Slaughtered

All This Week With Every Suit from

$9.50 UP

FREE - - - FREE

Choice of any shoe in the store up to	$2.50
Choice of any FELT hat in store up to	2.00
Choice of any shirt in the store up to	1.00
Choice of any necktie " " "	.50
Choice of any pair suspenders " "	.50
Choice of any pair socks " "	.25
Choice of any set of buttons " "	.35

Come Early and get first choice

FREE

Valuable Premium Coupons With every purchase in all departments

The Wenatchee Department Store
OUR MOTTO CASH AND ONE PRICE

Farmers and Merchants Bank

OF WENATCHEE, WASH.

Capital - - $25,000
Surplus - - $2,500

General banking business. Correspondents: Bank of California, Seattle; Anglo-California bank, San Francisco; Chase National bank, New York; First National bank, Chicago.

J. M. TOMPKINS, Pres. R. F. LEWIS, V. P. JOHN GODFREY, Cashier

IRRIGATED LAND AT $100 PER ACRE

Good Water Right and Seeded to Alfalfa

Improved and unimproved fruit land near Wenatchee. Several good tracts

Insurance of All Kinds. Bonds, Real Estate. L. V. WELLS & CO.

OFF SALE

The Wenatchee Development Company beg to announce that they have taken off sale all lots in replat of First Addition to Wenatchee, also all lots in Great Northern Replat of Wenatchee, south of Orondo Ave., also all of Grand View Addition. Due notice will be given when these properties are again placed on sale.
ARTHER GUON, Resident Manager.

Thanksgiving Day

Is near. We are in a position to satisfy your wants and wishes

Fine Fat Turkeys
Geese - Ducks
Chickens
And the

Best beef, pork, mutton, veal and oysters money can buy

Call on or 'phone us

Garton & Little