

Local and Personal

Miss Iva Misell, who has been visiting friends in the city, returned to her home in Pitcher's Canyon today. Money to loan or city and farm property. John A. Gellatly.

Rufus Wood will leave on the noon train for Tacoma, where he will visit his brother for a short time.

The best line of goods in the city. The Knew.

Mrs. O. Hayne, the singing teacher of this city, is giving the high school pupils instruction in voice culture twice a week.

Our underwear is the best. The Knew.

Will Johnson and Jay Campbell left on the afternoon train yesterday for Quincy for a short business trip.

Finest genuine American cut glass. Hawks, Libby and Mr. Washington at Thomas, the jeweler.

J. McKown, assistant principal of the Seattle high school, who accompanied the Seattle football team to this city, gave an interesting talk on football to the students of the high school yesterday morning.

Princely 75c shirts Saturday 45c at The Knew.

F. M. Barnes, division road master of the Great Northern, was in the city yesterday looking after the completion of the road work along his part of the line. The only extra gang between Seattle and Spokane that was not laid off Thursday is the gang that was quartered in Wenatchee. All day long yesterday every freight train that came through had from five to ten cars of the gangs attached to be taken to St. Paul. It will take them a week to make the trip.

Dr. Almeda J. McCall, Osteopathic physician, consultation and examination free. Offices over McCreedy's Drug store.

There will be the usual services in St. Luke's Episcopal church tomorrow morning and evening. At the morning service there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion. In the evening the second part of the Pilgrim's Progress, illustrated by thirty stereoscopic views, will be given. Everybody welcome.

Good shoes at The Knew.

Earl Walton, who was forced to lay off for a couple of days this week on account of running a nail into his foot, though slightly lame, was able to return to his work yesterday.

Buy your rubbers at The Knew.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will give a chicken pie dinner at 11:30 a. m., election day, Dec. 5, at the Beal building. Come and get a good dinner for only twenty five cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cooper, of Garfield, Wash., arrived in the city yesterday to visit at the home of Mrs. Cooper's parents.

Wanted, plain sewing by piece, day or week Mrs. L. R. Moore, city.

Only F. Richardson, of Wilson Creek, is in the city on business.

Celebrated Pickard hand painted China at Thomas the jeweler.

James Harris, one of the prominent ranchers of Chiwaukum, is in the city today.

$7.75 buys a ton of clean, full weight Roslyn coal. Catchall Store, 36 Wenatchee Ave. north.

A. R. Dickson, of Waterville, arrived in Wenatchee on yesterday morning's boat.

$1.50 pictures—9c. Seventy five cent pictures 45c at David Keith's.

John G. Miller and A. P. Claton left last night for the Entiat valley, where they will do the development work on several mining claims owned by a company in which a number of Wenatchee people are stockholders.

The Eagle Transfer Co. purchased six of the string of houses which the Graham brothers brought from Riverside last week.

Mrs. Milliken left yesterday for Wilbur to join her husband, Dr. Milliken, the veterinarian who was formerly located in Wenatchee.

George E. Perry, teacher of the Chum Stick school near Leavenworth, is in Wenatchee today.

The Seattle football team left for home yesterday afternoon at 5:30. They were accompanied to the depot by most of the members of the Wenatchee team. They left delighted with the treatment they had received here and voted the Wenatchee boys jolly good fellows.

Secretary Littlefield of the school board, today received several sets of new books for the school library. The books are entitled "Master pieces of Eloquence."

Judge Steiner yesterday refused to grant the petition of Mrs. A. A. Fuller, of Southside, for a divorce from her husband. The case was transferred here from Waterville where the evidence was taken. Dill and Thomas appeared for the plaintiff and Williams and Grimshaw for the defendant.

Superintendent of Schools Riste left today for Leavenworth to consider a change of boundary of two school districts. Three families now in the Eagle Creek school district wish to be transferred to the Leavenworth district.

B. T. Duncan has moved his family to the rooms above his store on the corner of Wenatchee and Orondo avenues.

E. Allenger, teacher of the Stemitt valler school, is in the city today.

I. M. Derifield and his son-in-law, Virgil Winn, are in the city today. Mr. Derifield will leave this evening for Spokane to make arrangements for taking his wife, who has been very ill for some time, to a hospital in that city.

Miss Sadie Camp left this afternoon for Malaga to visit for a few days with friends.

The Presbyterian Sunday school officers have decided not to give the cantata, "Grandpa's Christmas," the Christmas time as originally planned. It was discovered that the cantata was very similar to one given by another church a couple of years ago.

As the time to Christmas is too short to secure another cantata the officers have decided to abandon the project.

H. F. Putnam, cattle buyer for the Frye-Bruhn Co. passed through the city yesterday on his way from Seattle to Okanogan county on a cattle buying trip. The Frye-Bruhn people have been buying a great many cattle in Okanogan and Ferry counties and cattle at present are higher than they have been for the past few years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cooper, of Garfield, who have been in the city for the past few days, left on the morning boat for Waterville to assist in the settling up of Mr. Cooper's father's estate.

The members of the Wenatchee football team and three substitutes were awarded their "W" yesterday. Those who secured the emblem were: William, Collier, Godfrey, Harris, Tomlinson, Lail, Barnhill, M. Johnson, N. Johnson, B. Lake, N. Lake, Smith, E. Knowles and B. Knowles.

Mrs. Goodsoe, the nurse of Mrs. O. S. Sampson, made a trip to this city today. She states that Mrs. Sampson recovering from her accident as rapidly as may be expected.

J. B. Holmes, the county assessor, who has been very ill, is recovering his health very rapidly. He has risen from his bed and is able to be about a little.

A. A. Fuller, I. N. Simmons, L. C. Oponan, well known residents of Southside, left on the night train for Moses lake on a two weeks' hunting trip. "Uncle Dick," Giblin, of Chiwaukum, was a visitor to this city today.

W. E. Stevens bought ten acres of the C. E. Stohl place yesterday. The consideration was $3,200.

C. W. Buxton, the painter, bought two lots on Mission street yesterday. $1,575 was the price paid.

J. W. Doneen and M. Clark, of Southside, were business visitors to the city yesterday.

Walter Mapes, formerly night operator at the Wenatchee depot, who has been pursuer of one of the C. and O. freighters for the past few weeks, left for Seattle on the night train yesterday where he will begin to take up the work of telegraphy.

T. F. Richardson, of Wilson Creek, made a short business trip to this city yesterday.

James Harris, of Chiwaukum, spent yesterday in Wenatchee.

The trains still continue to be late. No. 3, the westbound night train, was ten hours late today, arriving in Wenatchee at half past ten this morning. No. 1, the afternoon train, was reported five hours late at three o'clock this afternoon. The east bound trains were not having any trouble between Seattle and Wenatchee and are arriving on time or nearly so. The cause of the delay of the westbound trains is snow east of the Rocky Mountains.

All persons interested in fruit growing are invited to be present at the meeting of the Chelan County Horticultural Association to be held Tuesday, Dec. 5, at 2 p. m., at the Commercial Club room.

Annual election of officers, arrangement for a farmers' institute and other important matters will come before this meeting.

CHEHALIS, WASH., Dec. 1.—J. B. Dexter pleaded guilty in the superior court here to the charge of forging an order for a two-bit meal and was sentenced to a year in the penitentiary.

WENATCHEE DEPARTMENT STORE

Griggs Block

N. I. NEUBAUER

Griggs Block

Extraordinary SPECIALS

Dress Goods

SEE DISPLAY IN WINDOW

49c Per yard for choice assortment plain and fancy Mohair, Cicerian, Serges and Granite cloth; all new shades to select from, 38 to 54 inches wide; worth up to $1.00 per yard.

FREE PREMIUM COUPONS

Petticoats

$1.49 Each; over 20 styles to select from; length from 40 to 44; made up in the very newest styles. Petticoats in this assortment worth up to $3.50 each

FREE PREMIUM COUPONS

Valuable Premium Coupons With Every Purchase
In All Departments

The Wenatchee Department Store
OUR MOTTO CASH AND ONE PRICE.

Farmers and Merchants Bank

OF WENATCHEE, WASH.

Capital - - $25,000
Surplus - - $2,500

General banking business. Correspondents: Bank of California, Seattle; Anglo-California bank, San Francisco; Chase National bank, New York; First National bank, Chicago.

J. M. TOMPKINS, Pres. R. F. LEWIS, V. P. JOHN GODFREY, Cashier

IRRIGATED LAND AT $100 PER ACRE

Good Water Right and Seeded to Alfalfa

Improved and unimproved fruit land near Wenatchee. Several good tracts

Insurance of All Kinds, Bonds, Real Estate L. V. WELLS & CO.

OFF SALE

The Wenatchee Development Company beg to announce that they have taken off sale all lots in replat of First Addition to Wenatchee, also all lots in Great Northern Replat of Wenatchee, south of Orondo Ave., also all of Grand View Addition. Due notice will be given when these properties are again placed on sale.

ARTHUR GUNN, Resident Manager.

A NEW PICTURE OF MISS JULIA MARLOWE.

Miss Julia Marlowe, who is now appearing in "The Taming of the Shrew," is co-star with E. H. Sothern. As the shrewish Katharine Miss Marlowe has added to her stage laurels. She says the boisterous, emphatic and unladylike shrew is the hardest part she ever played.