In the cases of Corey and Schwab the youth of the country still can find instructive lessons of a certain kind.

No doubt a tariff "reduction" plan that results in increasing the duties 25 per cent looks good enough to Senator Lodge.

Let the pass taking congressmen bear up. Others have paid cash fares for railway trips and survived the terrible ordeal.

Sakharoff is by no means the first historic personage to demonstrate that rule by tyranny works on the boom-rang principle.

Now is the time for the colleges to abolish football. A few months hence they will be too busy planning for the next season's games.

Pure food and a fair price for postal parcels seem sound propositions, but the congresses of the past for some reason have shied away from them.

All friends of the open shop will be gratified to learn that certain hard working bank presidents are to get larger pay without going on a strike.

While the railways may not make a direct fight against the rate bill, they will have some other ways of letting the president know that they are in town.

Secretary Root, who is to court the favor of the South American republics, ought to be able to see what is ahead of him when he strikes Castro's country.

While the north pole remains undiscovered, Captain Amundson has found the magnetic pole and is pleased to report that for all practical purposes it is just as good.

That scientist who predicts that Niagara will not disappear for 3,000 cannot have noted the franchise peddling propensities of the New York legislature.

All the facts in the annual government reports agree as to the continued prosperity of the country. If there is anywhere a portent of the other kind it is not discoverable in the exhibits of the different departments.

Bank deposits in the United States by the comptroller's figures, exceed $11,780,000,000, an increase of 12.5 per cent over last year, and of 130 per cent since 1896. Under the Republican administration of the last eight years the bank accounts of the people have more than doubled.

Over a thousand foreign automobiles have been imported this year at an average cost of $4,000 each. Meanwhile, American automobile factories are multiplying fast and showing characteristic progress in sizes, shapes, prices and general inventiveness. This country has a habit of getting to the top in wheeled contrivances all the way from bicycles to locomotives. Motor vehicles will be no exception.

AHORE, INDIA, Dec. 12.—The huge wheat and oil seed areas of the Panjab are already suffering from the prolonged drought, and great anxiety is felt for the unusually immense crops.

ADVICE FOR THE MEN

Some Thoughts Held out to the Married Men in the Hope that they may Prove an Inspiration and a Help

It is with regret we announce the discontinuance of the department "Advice to Men." This action was made necessary by the anarchistic and treacherous utterances of Miss Whangdoodle, who yesterday without our knowledge inserted in column devoted to men, advice which we cannot sanction and was altogether out of keeping with the spirit in which the advice was given. We assure our readers that we are not in sympathy with the sentiments expressed in the last paragraph and are at a loss to understand why Miss Whangdoodle should at the last moment after giving much advice which we must admit was good, turn traitor to her sex and advise the men to do that which they are already prone to do. The only explanation which we can give is the unconfirmed rumor that Miss Whangdoodle is going to be married and that she has been won over from her most laudable views upon married life by some smooth tongued man whose treatment of her after marriage will no doubt be sufficient punishment for her unkind advice.

GIVES VIEWS OF EXCLUSION

President Would Give Better Classes of Chinese a Square Deal

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13.—President Roosevelt today sent a message through representative Kahn and Hays to Pacific coast people in regard to the Chinese exclusion law. He says he desires to make it clear that he is just as opposed to the admission of coolies as ever, but believes the "exempt classes" should be given a square deal. If it is shown, however, that the exempt classes upon coming, turn into laborers, then he will favor taking away the open door privileges as far as concerning them.

The president today appointed Nathan V. Harelan, of Nebraska, United States attorney for division 3, Alaska, and Earl M. Cranston for the district of Colorado. Miles Cannon is appointed register of the land office at North Yakima Wash.

The president nominated Creighton M. Foraker to be marshal in New Mexico.

CATCH BOLD SMUGGLER

Carried Two Valises Containing $700 Worth of the Drug

BELLINGHAM, Dec. 13.—Carrying 65 pounds of opium, valued at approximately $700, in two valises, Henry Engelman was captured early this forenoon almost in front of the Dock street custom house by two government officials, who have been in Bellingham since Saturday seeking the man whom they know had been smuggling across the line for several weeks. Altogether, say the government men, Engelman has smuggled almost 190 pounds of opium from Vancouver to Portland. The value of this amount is in the neighborhood of $2,000 and at $6 per pound the duty on the goods would total approximately $1,100.

Engelman was taken just after he stepped from the carriage in which he had driven from Vancouver. From descriptions the officials were almost certain that they had found the guilty party and an immediate search of the valises proved that they were right. The consummate boldness of the man, it is believed, has in a large measure protected him from detection sooner, for there are few smugglers who carry on their traffic before the eyes of customs officials.

When taken Engelman was preparing to leave for old town to take the 11:35 a. m. Great Northern train for Portland, where he has been disposing of his wares. At the city jail, where he was at once taken, he first declared that this was his second trip, but when told by one of the officials that he was not speaking the truth he admitted that he was on his way south with the third consignment.

Engelman declares that he crossed the international boundary line near Lynden. He drove a handsome carriage with rubber tires and had a good horse. It is not thought Engelman has any white accomplices. This is the most important capture of the kind in Whatcom county in many a day and probably will operate to discourage similar attempts for a time at least.
