The company is under the management of Ed. Russel and after playing here two nights will open an engagement at the Spokane theatre on New Years night.

He Is Kind to the Young Men

County Auditor Gellatly does not pose as a matchmaker, but nevertheless he plays an important part in cupid's affairs. It is to him that the lovelorn swains stammering and blushing until it almost sets their collars afire, must go to procure their licenses to wed. If there is any one time more than another that Mr. Gellatly shows himself to be a thorough gentleman it is when a self-conscious and decidedly uncomfortable young man appears to get a marriage license. Other members of the court house staff state that Mr. Gellatly was never known upon an occasion of this kind to smile, until the young man was well out of the office.

Mr. Gellatly is very proud of his Christmas record on marriage licenses, having issued one last night and three today as follows:

Roger L. Green and Nellie Verneth Pruett, of Chelan; Robert G. Stalker and Orpha L. Wilburn, of Quincy; James G. Peters and Gracie M. McMillan, of Sunnyslope; John Stifter and Mrs. M. E. Wycoff, of Leavenworth.

John A. Crowl and Ethel N. Incho of Wenatchee.
