FOR THE GOOD OF THE COMMUNITY

Slogan of Improvement Association To Make Homes Beautiful on Washington Avenue.

"For the Good of the Community." That's the slogan of an Improvement Association lately organized among the residents of a certain district in Wenatchee. They live in that part of town one block either side of Washington avenue, west from D street and comprising a part of the Fair and Grandview additions. They call themselves "The Fairview-Grandview Improvement Association, and will wage relentless war on rubbish heaps, unpainted outhouses and unclean alleys.

The members of the association will work in harmony in securing better conditions in their community. They will agree on what manner of shade tree planting shall be adopted, so that trees of the same class may grow up uniformly. Sidewalks are to be properly built and well cared for.

The farmers themselves have already graveled Washington avenue and it is now one of the best highways in the community. Mr. Gilchrist, who owns considerable property on this thoroughfare, is preparing to widen the same by turning over to the public a strip of his land worth several hundred dollars.

A meeting of the citizens of the district is called for Saturday night, to meet at the residence of A. N. Corbin at 7:30. A permanent organization of the improvement association will be effected at that time, and officers will be chosen. It is thought that women may be admitted to membership in the association.

Must Wait for More Pay.

OLYMPIA, April 18.—Attorney-General Atkinson has made a ruling that county surveyors, whose titles were changed to county engineers by the last legislature, cannot take advantage of the recent act in so far as it relates to salaries.

The attorney-general holds that county surveyors, as county officers, cannot, under the constitution, have their salaries changed during their present term.

The question was presented by State Highway Commissioner J. M. Snow, who addressed the attorney-general on behalf of the county engineers of the state.

GREAT NORTHERN MEN HERE.

Spend a Pleasant Day "Seeing Wenatchee"—Company is Appreciative of Large Business.

A. L. Craig, general travelling passenger agent of the Great Northern, and Ben Campbell, fourth vice-president and general manager, are in Wenatchee today in their private car from St. Paul.

They spent the forenoon in a little journey to the Columbia valley, and this afternoon are being driven about, taking in the sights of Wenatchee. Mr. A. B. Peters, who has been more or less intimately associated with the passenger department of the Great Northern for some years in the interests of home-seekers' excursions, spent sometime this morning in conference with Messrs. Craig and Campbell.

When seen by a World representative this morning, Mr. Craig said that their stop here was proving very pleasant. The climate and the country they consider one of the best on their whole line, and the Great Northern appreciates in no small degree the constantly growing passenger patronage and the measure of freight business which the Wenatchee valley affords.

Bill Taft Sails for Home.

SAN JUAN, P. R., Thursday, April 18.—Secretary Taft and his party sailed for home today on the dispatch boat Mayflower, at noon, accompanied by Beekman Winthrop, the retiring governor of Porto Rico, and Mrs. Winthrop, Mrs. Taft and Miss Marjorie Ide. An immense crowd bade the secretary farewell. The insular troops escorted the party from the palace through the streets lined with people waving goodbyes.

Accepts Carnegie Library.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., April 18.—The board of directors of the Carnegie library accepted the building yesterday after a few alterations were made, and the money for the building will be paid to the contractors within a few days. The original plans called for an expenditure of $23,000, but changes were made which reduces the cost to $16,000. As soon as the heating apparatus arrives and is installed the building will be ready for occupancy.

Preacher Advertises for Crowd.

SEATTLE, April 18.—Rev. F. J. Van Horn, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church, had published in the daily papers of the city Saturday and Sunday a three-column display advertisement of the services to be held in his church Sunday morning and evening. As a consequence the edifice was filled to overflowing at both services.

James Hamilton Howe, musical director of the church, and Miss Julia Dow, the church secretary, both attributed the unusually large congregations of Sunday directly to the newspaper advertising. In order to test the practical value of the publicity given the services a vote was taken and it was shown that a majority of those present read the ads. A large number were strangers and persons who ordinarily are not church goers. Dr. Van Horn was the first minister in the country to make use of newspaper advertising to fill his pews. He conceived the idea while pastor of a church in Iowa, where his scheme produced the same results that are following in Seattle.

Human Heads Worth $5.

CHICAGO, April 18.—Eleven human heads, valued at $55 were stolen from the roof of the John H. Drake company, 299 Ogden avenue, the loss was made known to the police and a want ad was inserted in a local paper offering a $10 reward for the capture of the thieves.

The company deals in human heads and skeletons, which it sells to medical institutes for experimental purposes. It is the only company in the world transacting such a business.

The loss of the eleven heads represents a fourth of the fall business of 1906. At this time the heads were obtained and placed on the roof to be dried by the wind. Drake discovered his loss when a head was found in an alley near Ogden avenue.

Drake says that medical students must have stolen the heads, as they are the only persons to whom they would be valuable.

How to Tell the Good and Bad in Coats

IN BUYING a Suit you must remember that that the principal test of quality and workmanship comes in the coat. In a $20 Suit the coat amounts to $11.25, pants $6.00 and vest $2.75. In a great many coats the style and shape are largely given by the use of the flat-iron. This is not good workmanship. If you compare a coat made in this manner with the Banner & Co.'s Acorn garment which is shaped by needle-work you will chose from our stock.

We Will Save You 10 to 20 per cent on Clothing for Men, Boys and Children. Our $15.00 Suits are the kind you usually pay $18.00 to $20.00 for. We sell the
