Why You Should Learn Shorthand

A thorough and practical knowledge of shorthand offers unlimited opportunities, as the stenographer is in closest touch with the heads of the business. The opportunities for advancement are unexcelled. It is a fact that the remuneration is larger, and the stenographer's position is essentially confidential. The few months necessary for acquiring the ability to write shorthand notes makes it the quickest and surest avenue through which promotion can be gained. At this institution you learn shorthand as it is written by expert and commercial stenographers everywhere. Ours is a practical working system, is recognized as a leader, and has been written and used for years. It is simplified, easy to learn, easy to read and write, and withal, thoroughly practical.

Why You Should Learn Bookkeeping

Lack of a thorough knowledge of bookkeeping and accounting is the cause of many young people not being advanced to better positions. The bookkeeper in any business stands in the same position as the engineer on a locomotive—one controls the pen, understands accounts and keeps records; the other controls the throttle and makes records. Our course in bookkeeping accomplishes more than the mere knowledge of accounts. Its aim is to give the students a clear understanding of the principles of bookkeeping, accounting and all business transactions. It lays the foundation so essential for a successful business career.

A SHEEP TALE

or the leaders lost their foothold and started rolling down the steep declivity towards the river. This precipitated the others, and soon the entire herd was demoralized and rolling down the slope. The sheep were forced into the rushing torrent, and those not drowned were maimed and injured, their valuable wool being torn from their bodies by the jagged rocks.

This is certainly a hot one. It may be true, but it will take several more like that to convince the World that Guye or anybody else lost his sheep in that manner. To express it in the words of the song, "It Sounds to Me Like a Fairy Tale."

LOCAL MONEY SITUATION

(4) Money has been plentiful and everyone is paying their bills, although all are retrenching themselves.

The increase in deposits of the two banks whose statements appear in these columns since August 22 was $112,617.86.

When seen this morning, Mr. Geo. R. Fisher of the First National Bank, said:

"I do not believe that the valley has ever been in better condition than it is at the present time. People as a whole were never more free from debt than they are now. I do not know of a section so well off.

"The only delay in the payment of debts has been caused by the lack of marketing the wheat. This will begin in a very short time, and thus enable the people of the wheat section to pay out.

"Our banks has had fewer calls during the past month than ever before. Our bank is in excellent condition, and we now have in the vaults three times the amount of cash required by the state banking laws.

W. A. Thompson of the Farmers' & Merchants Bank, said:

"The local money situation is improving, and when the wheat begins to move, which will be within a few days, there will be a still greater er improvement in the money market.

"Taken all in all, I regard the present flurry as a good thing—that it will be a good thing in the end for all of us. Our loans during the past month dropped $75,000 over those of the previous month.

"People are paying their debts and being more careful, and I have no doubt that the result will be good for all legitimate business."

Guy C. Browne, vice-president of the Columbia Valley Bank, in speaking of the present conditions, said:

"The call of the comptroller of the currency for a statement of the banks of the country December 3, 1907, as far as I have seen shows the banks of the entire west to be in excellent shape, and New York alone (the cause of all the trouble) is preventing the return to normal conditions at once. All signs, however, point to the early resumption of cash payments. The banks of Wenatchee went on a clearing house basis only when all outside centers had refused to ship the money due the Wenatchee banks, and we have at all times been ready to resume cash payments in full as soon as the money centers did so, and only hope the date is an early one.

"Conditions locally were never better. We never sold so large a portion of our fruit in the fall and at so high a price. The wheat crop was larger than ever before, and while but little of it has been sold, it is a mighty good thing to have on hand.

"The Wenatchee banks are in fine shape, and I am satisfied that the present statements will show them to be in better condition than at the last call, with more deposits, more cash resources, and decidedly more actual cash in their vaults than ever before in the history of Wenatchee. The call of August 22, 1907, showed the Columbia Valley Bank to have $29,096.85 cash in our vaults and that was more than we usually deem necessary. Now, however, to be absolutely on the safe side, we have $49,633.25 cash in our vaults. One of the best results of the present flurry is the effect it is having on indebtedness. Many persons who otherwise might have extended their credit and gone into new enterprises are now paying up their debts and getting on a sound financial basis."

NO CHURCH SUNDAY

There will be no church services in the city tomorrow. Health Officer Gilchrist thinks there is now no danger of any more cases of smallpox. But to be on the safe side has decided to call off all public meetings till next Wednesday.
