

THE BEST
ADV.
MEDIUM

Wenatchee Daily World

READ
THE WANT ADS.

VOL. II. NO. 159.

THE WENATCHEE DAILY WORLD, WENATCHEE, WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 1908.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY.

SOUTHSIDE CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Southside Farmers Formulate Plans for Improvement of the Roads. Literary Society Organized.

J. C. Murray recently injured in a well on Charley Kamholz place, and who has been stopping at the home of Nathan Cox, was removed to Waterville Monday. He is still in a serious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Simmons have returned from a visit to the Sound country, where they were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krause.

A literary and debating society was organized at the Dry Flat school house Saturday evening last. Sessions will be held on Saturday evenings the balance of the winter, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

A well attended meeting of the farmers' club was held Monday evening, Jan. 6. New officers were elected. A plan was formulated, and

(Continued on Page 3)

CHICKEN SHOW OPENED TODAY

The rooster is cock of the walk today on Wenatchee avenue. The Fourth Annual Show of the Wenatchee Poultry Association began this morning. Many fine specimens of birds are on exhibit.

The show this year is a success already and much interest is manifested not only among chicken fanciers but by the people generally.

If one can judge by the enthusiasm shown, it will be only a short time till Wenatchee will be famous for chickens as well as for Big Red Apples.

To paraphrase a well-known book, the title of this article, as descriptive of the show, might well be "When Henhood Was in Flower."

Answers Inquiry.

Editor World:

In answer to "Inquiry" in last night's Daily World, according to a calendar I have, Nov. 25, 1861, was on Monday, and May 23, 1888, on Tuesday.

MRS. HOMER BETTY.

Meet me at the HALF PRICE SALE.

A. NEW SLOGAN

"The Wenatchee Way," Suggestive of the Progressive Spirit of the Town.

Walter M. Olive, one of the liveliest boosters that any town ever had, was in the office of the World last night to comment upon the bridge and other matters of interest, and states that in his estimation the coming bridge demonstration ought to be the biggest blowout that Wenatchee ever had.

"A recent clipping from one of the upriver papers spoke of the 'Wenatchee way,' and the idea struck me," said Mr. Olive, "that there is a phrase which should be used as a slogan by the people of this city. They talk about the 'Seattle Spirit,' and the 'Pullman Pull,' and 'Yakima is Better,' and 'Kittitas is Best,' but the 'Wenatchee Way' eclipses them all. The Wenatchee Way is an expression of the manner in which enterprises, public and private, are handled 'in the best town in the state of Washington.' In other words, the Wenatchee Way means that we get what we go after."

LEAP YEAR SPECIAL

Owing to the frequent requests for the letter of the "Marriageable Girl," which was published in this newspaper several months ago, and which created so much comment throughout the state, by special request the World will republish the article in tomorrow's issue, along with several other features. Leap year is here, and the bachelors of Wenatchee are already looking for some kind of antidote as a preventative of the "disease" which is liable to affect a goodly number in case of "exposure."

CASHMERE ITEMS

At the jollification of the C. C.'s Friday evening, Miss Lela Bigelow of Wenatchee, who is teaching here, was quite painfully hurt. Some of the girls were being pushed around the room on chairs when the one on which Miss Bigelow sat ran into a crack and she was thrown violently to the floor. She was badly bruised and shaken up, but no bones were broken, and she expects to take her place in school again soon.

The Cashmere Coons finished the holiday festivities by a grand fair given for the pleasure of the young ladies of the town. The young men

(Continued on Page 2.)

Don't miss the HALF PRICE SALE.

TALKS OF WASHINGTON SCENERY

Louisville Courier Contains interesting view of Country Among the Cascades and Along Wenatchee River

The Seattle Times of yesterday contained an editorial commenting upon the grandeur of Washington scenery and especially upon the beauties of the Cascades along the line of the Great Northern and of the country up the Wenatchee river. Among other things the article says:

A few years ago Mr. E. Polk Johnson, a special agent for the United States Treasury, was located in Seattle—and like thousands of other men identified with the public service, became attached to the place of his location.

Mr. Johnson is now stationed in Louisville, Kentucky, and on December 28 was interviewed in the Louisville Courier Times touching on the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition.

The Times is the evening edition of the Louisville Courier-Journal, over which Henry Watterson presides, and is, therefore, an important publication in the state of Kentucky.

After having related his own experience and his peculiar sensations when first crossing the Rocky and the Cascade mountains, and coming down into Western Washington, he tells a little story of an artist who happened to be riding upon the same train.

It was in the summer time and the sky was clear, and as the train ascended from Leavenworth to the switchback—for this was before the days of the tunnel—and conditions made the scene as wildly romantic and beautiful as mountain scenery could be.

There were the loftier peaks of the Cascades covered with snow, while below them everywhere was the forest primeval, and beside all that, was the dashing Wenatchee river flowing to the Columbia—and thus a picture was presented that would appeal to any nature.

Mr. Johnson declares that he watched his artist friend to see what impression this Cascade scenery was making upon his mind—but he sat like a stone until the very summit of the switchback was reached, when he cried out, "What a fool I have been, crossing the ocean year after year to see the same mountains, the same people, while all the time in my own country is to be found the most magnificent and the most beautiful scenery the world contains! This is my first visit, but I shall come back again; I shall come often, and bring my friends with me. We in New York think we know everything—but my friend (addressing Mr. Johnson) we know nothing. Indeed, we know nothing!"

Again, insisting upon story-telling, Mr. Johnson refers to a Sabbath morning when the rainy season was drawing to a close, and discussing with another friend the beauties of the mountain scenery:

"Soon the mists will clear away and you will view a scene, such as

(Continued on Page Three.)

OLD SOLDIERS IN REUNION

The old soldiers of Wenatchee and surrounding country are in reunion at the Sprague Hall this afternoon. Department Commander Mock of Ballard is here, having come down from Cashmere with Capt. A. S. Burbank, and is this afternoon addressing the members of G. A. R. and the Women's Relief Corps. A banquet will follow the speaking this afternoon at four o'clock.

COMMISSIONERS IN SESSION

The county commissioners are in session this week. The principal business of the board this session is the paying of bills and looking after matters pertaining to the new bridges in the county.

Little Bobby Griggs is seriously ill of pneumonia at the home of his parents on Orondo avenue.

Fred Kemp will be absent for several days in Seattle, where he has gone on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Gage of Minneapolis arrived Monday for a visit with Mrs. Gage's mother, Mrs. Henderson, at her home on Chelan avenue south.

A. A. Piper returned this morning from Seattle, where he went to assist in the funeral arrangements for Mrs. Carl Christenson who died there day before yesterday.

WEEK OF PRAYER

The services at the Presbyterian church, in observance of the national week of prayer, are being well attended. The subject tonight being, "The Church Made Glorious." Thursday and Friday nights special programs have been arranged, one in the interest of missions; the Friday evening meeting for young people.

PEARL GROCERY IS SOLD

By a deal, closed this afternoon, the Pearl Grocery has been sold by P. P. Holcomb, the former proprietor, to C. M. Burdick.

An announcement in reference to the business and account will appear tomorrow in the columns of the World.

SOAP LAKE NEWS

J. O. Pate of Indiana arrived here last week. Mr. Pate is interested in the Siloam Sanitarium, and has come to look after his interests.

M. R. McMahon of Wenatchee made a business call here the first of the week.

Mrs. Hathaway has returned to her school after spending her holidays with her husband in Idaho.

Mr. Lee Sorrell and wife of Montana are visiting with Mr. Sorrell's people, Mr. and Mrs. M. Sorrell, of this place.

The literary was well attended Friday evening. A good program was rendered.

Bruce Griggs left on yesterday's westbound train to spend the remainder of the week in Seattle.

FUNERAL POSTPONED

The funeral of Mrs. Carl Christenson will be held Sunday at 1:30 p. m. instead of on Thursday as was announced yesterday. The date was changed on account of a telegram received from Minneapolis to the effect that two sisters of Mrs. Christenson of Minneapolis are on the way to Wenatchee to be present at the funeral and cannot reach here till that time.

EVERYBODY INVITED

Special Program at Presbyterian Church Tomorrow Night.

Song by Congregation—"One More Day's Work." Prayer—By Leader. Responsive Reading—"A Call to Praise."

Song—"I Need Thee Every Hour." Prayer—By Leader. Responsive Reading—"Praise from Our Hearts."

Song by Congregation—"Will There Be Any Stars?"

Paper—"Foreign Missionary Items," by Mrs. Summers.

Solo—"The King's Business," by Mrs. E. S. Russell.

Paper—"Home Missionary Items," by Mrs. David Keith.

Missionary Promises—By Members.

Song—"As Thy Day Thy Strength Shall Be," by Choir.

Paper—"Financial Retrospect," by Mrs. Thompson.

Solo—By Rev. Jno. W. Berger.

Paper—"View Points on Missionary Work," by Mrs. Littioy.

Announcements.

Minute Talks—By Congregation.

Song—"Look and Live," by Congregation.

Benediction.

NEW COUNCIL MET LAST NIGHT

The council met in regular session last night with Mayor Scheble in the chair.

The old council proceeded to clear up all matters so as to give a clean sheet to the new board. The bills for the pest house were passed upon. For this house the city will pay half and the county will pay the other half. The expenses incurred for this building amounts in all to about $500.

The reports of the city marshal, city treasurer and city clerk were filed.

The old council then adjourned.

The new council then met with Mayor Scheble in the chair, the latter holding office till the new mayor receives the oath of office. The members of the new council were sworn in to faithfully perform the duties assigned to them by the by-laws of the state.

An application was made for a liquor license by Shipp & Teamer, who desire to run a saloon in the building heretofore occupied by Lillis & Blake.

No further business coming before the meeting the council adjourned.

The city appointments will probably be announced at the next meeting of the council, at which time Jno. A. Gellatly will receive the oath of office as mayor.

MESDAMES CULP AND TIBBITS ENTERTAIN

At the invitation of Mrs. John Culp and Mrs. M. O. Tibbits, the beautiful home of the latter on King street was the scene of a large gathering yesterday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. J. H. Ogburn of Virginia, daughter of Mrs. Tibbits, and Mrs. Frank Culp, who has so recently returned from her bridal tour through California and Old Mexico.

Little Marion Tibbits opened the door to the guests, who then passed into the commodious living room, where the receiving party stood. The beauty of the room was further enhanced by trimmings of green pine boughs interspersed with pink and white chrysanthemums, above the arches and windows. On the piano was banked the green, brightened by the flowers, while on the mantel above the huge fireplace were arranged potted plants, amidst the green branches, against a background of beautiful peacock feathers.

Miss Mary Duff ushered the guests into the dining-room, where the green was used in ornamenting the sideboard and window ledges. The table was pretty with the soft tints of pink and white. In the center was a beautiful point lace piece over pink, surmounted by a bowl of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. John Scaman and Mrs. H. J. Olive presided at the urns, and were assisted in serving the dainty refreshments.

(Continued on Page 3)

COOK WITH ELECTRICITY

A little disc stove which can be set on your table, and in which you can quickly heat water or cook is a great convenience. Free trial.

Wenatchee Electric Company

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

Largest Capital of any Bank in North Central Washington Capital $100,000, Oldest Bank in North Central Washington Established 1892

Savings Deposits made now or before January 10, 1908, draw interest from January 1st.

A Savings Account in this old, strong bank, is a good investment, available on short notice in time of need, and perfectly safe.

Columbia Valley Bank

Jingles and More Jingles

Everybody All Over Town Talking About My Jingles. WHY?

Because I Pay $1.00 for Each One That Is Accepted. ARE YOU ON?

My Prizes, $1 for each Jingle Accepted and Published. $3.00 additional to the contributor who has the most accepted at the close.

Write a four, six or eight line jingle on your butcher, your baker or candlestick maker—any Wenatchee firm with whom you deal. Use the Alphabet for the start line.

A is for Apple.
B is for Bread.

Send it to "Andy Brown," Jingle Editor of the Daily World, and he will submit it to the dealer, who will be the judge. Upon his acceptance it will be published and the Daily World will mail you a check for One Dollar.

Write each Jingle on a separate sheet. Be sure and sign your name and address to each one, and mail them to

ANDY BROWN, Jingle Editor.
The Daily World.

N. B.—All Jingles accepted and published will be awarded a prize of $1.00.

Hurry and send in the Jingles. The next publication day depends on you. Write 'em and send 'em in.

To-Night at Theatre, Vidascope Moving Pictures. J. E. Ferguson, Mgr. See the Dispatch Bearer and Dozens of other first-class pictures, illustrated Songs and Music. Prices 10c Children, Adults 20c