WENATCHEE VINEYARDS

We are offering a level piece of bottom land about four miles north of the ferry on the other side of the river in Douglas county. It requires no grubbing, has no stones nor gullies, and just enough slope to irrigate right. It is covered by the High Line Ditch and our own pumping system, we will furnish water cheaply, or put in a private pumping plant for much less expense than a water right can be bought for. This land fronts on the river and is about 30 to 40 feet above high water. It is cut into five and ten acre tracts at $100 an acre.

Our best terms are $50 for a deed with the rest to remain on mortgage. You can take a year to earn the price of the deed; $25 down and $40 a year later. Interest at 8 per cent.

THEY SAY

That a petition has been circulated among the Wenatchee school teachers asking for the retention of Superintendent Brown for another year;

That all of the male teachers have refused to sign it;

But that the women have all signed it.

That a Kennewick cow gave birth to three calves on the same day; another marvel of the irrigated country.

That the City Council has declared the new fire bell a "False Alarm;" the contractor will have to make good.

That Justice Palmer's court is in receipt of a new Pierce's Code; law-breakers, take notice.

That a curious bob-cat near Wallace climbed up and peered through the window of a miner's cabin; the miner shot the inquisitive creature in the face.

That the sixteen-year-old girl who walked up a prominent residence street last night puffing a cigaret is on the road to perdition.

But in this world everyone has his choice; there are laws for putting you in jail but none for keeping you out.

That the Methodist revivalists at Wallace invaded a music hall and held service while the resort was crowded with half-drunken men and women. They all joined in singing "Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight?"

That a galvanic revival of public spirit marked the Commercial club's reorganization movement last night.

That the club can largely avowment its usefulness and scope by taking in more rural members; its sphere of influence should embrace not only the immediate environs of Wenatchee but the whole county.

That the proposal to lay before the Milwaukee officials the importance of running a branch into Wenatchee valley to help handle the enormous fruit crops due in a few years should be followed up.

That if the set of elderly dames who have constituted themselves the moral custodians of the community would back up and "rebel" on their own pace twenty years ago they'd be easier on some of our young folks who dance occasionally, or foolishly trump their partner's ace.

That Joe Early paid $3 to the police court for being drunk; it was an "early" morning drunk.

That a Wenatchee business man recently made a trip to Seattle. "Did you take your wife?" asked a friend on his return.

"Did I take my wife?" replied the pilgrim in amazement; "Would a man take a Ham Sandwich to the Lord Mayor's banquet?"

That another tooth carpenter is coming to town.

That if the electric company planning the big irrigation development in the Columbia valley near Entiat carries through its plan, fruit lands will be provided for thousands of additional settlers. Let the Commercial Club encourage the enterprise.

Mrs. Sam Sumner was hostess for the 852 Club members at her home on Chelan avenue S. yesterday afternoon. The usual fancy work furnished pleasant occupation for those present, with a dainty luncheon served at the close of the meeting.

I am satisfied. I eat at the Gem Cafe.***

The ladies of St. Luke's Guild met at the home of Mrs. O. B. Fuller on Wenatchee avenue on Wednesday afternoon, instead of in the choir room of the church as announced.

Come on and take dinner with us; only "twobits." Gem Cafe. Ask any one; they can tell where it is.***

Mrs. James Rae is quite ill at the home of Mrs. Ogilvie on Orondo avenue, where she has been visiting for several weeks.

Follow the crowds to the Gem Cafe.***

The six couples comprising the Dinner and Card club were entertained at the spacious new home of Mayor and Mrs. Gellatly on Okanogan Heights last night. After a sumptuous four-course dinner the gentlemen enjoyed a smoke and the ladies a visit; later assembling for the usual game of 500.

Pipe, pipe, pipe. Now the time is ripe to buy pipe, pipe at Wenatchee Plumbing and Heating Co. Phone 251.***

The Orondo Cafe, 112 Orondo ave., Wenatchee, has been remodeled and fitted up in a first-class manner. New proprietors, new cooks, and a model cuisine; our prices are reasonable, and we use our very best efforts to please. Your patronage is kindly solicited. Spears & Gardiner, proprietors.***

GINGER AND VIGOR INFUSED INTO CLUB

Galvanic Meeting Last Night--New Era of Accomplishment Looms Up --56 New Members.

Fifty-six applications from would-be new members, several stirring talks and a general revival spirit of resurrected enthusiasm characterized the big mass meeting of the commercial club last night.

George Fisher was in the chair, reading and expounding the amendments offered to the constitution and by-laws. The principal changes made were these:

That the initiation fee be reduced to $2.50;

That membership dues be reduced to $1 per month;

That the treasurer be put under $1,000 bond.

There were other minor changes of no material consequence.

Thompson Couldn't See It.
In the past the treasurer has been required to give no bond. Last night, as the adoption of the amended articles was about to go to a vote, Attorney Parr moved a further amendment, asking that the club's treasurer be put under $1,000 bond.

W. A. Thompson, who was elected treasurer about a month ago, protested vigorously.

"I do not handle the money," said he, "and don't see why I should give a bond for the good conduct of somebody else. I don't even know if the club has any funds; I have never seen any."

A heated discussion followed the question of Parr's proposed amendment, which finally went to a vote. It carried unanimously, and Mr. Thompson immediately put in his resignation.

He said that if the secretary continued to collect dues and make disbursements as in the past, he did not see why he should be compelled to give a bond for the safe keeping of money never in his possession.

Elect Two New Trustees.
There being two vacancies on the board of trustees nominations were called for. W. O. Parr, Dan Beal and Frank Keller were nominated. Keller aroused some mirth by declaring himself "unfit for the job," and on motion Beal and Parr were chosen by acclamation.

Gave Galvanic Talks.
Three or four local boosters, including Mr. Fisher, Dr. Gilchrist, Captain Burbank, Ed Russell and others inculcated the club members with rejuvenated vigor and a desire to do things. A campaign for more members among the outside ranchers were urged, and several tentative plans for accomplishing this end were brought forward. The Secretary also called to the club's notice the necessity for early preparations of a Jarred Fruit Exhibit for the A. Y. P. in 1909.

On the whole last night's revival meeting at the Commercial Club was a most gratifying affair, and the officers and members are looking forward to a year of vigorous growth and great accomplishments.

Dave Gellatly, the secretary, is deserving of special commendation for having rustled 55 new members in less than ten days.

BRYAN HEARS OF STRAW VOTE

John H. Ferryman Sends Result of World's Recent Canvass to Democratic Idol.

William Jennings Bryan enjoyed his visit here a year or more ago so much that John Ferryman felt sure the great commoner would appreciate a breath from the past.

So when the Daily World published the straw vote on the presidential situation some weeks ago Ferryman sent the Democratic leader a copy of the paper. Here's the result:

Lincoln, Neb., March 2.
Mr. J. H. Ferryman,
Wenatchee, Wash.

Dear Sir—Your letter to Mr. W. J. Bryan has just been reached in the great mass of mail matter received at this office. I beg to thank you in his behalf for the copy of the paper containing the straw vote conducted by the Daily World, and will take pleasure in bringing it to his personal attention upon his return.

Assuring you of his appreciation of the interest which prompted you to send it, I am, very truly yours,
CHAS. W. BRYAN.

Rufus Woods Home.
Rufus Woods and his brother, Ralph, who have been visiting their old home at Surprise, Neb., for the past two weeks, returned to Wenatchee last night. They report an enjoyable visit, and say that Nebraska is recovering from the financial blow of last autumn.

You are losing money if you buy pipe at any other place but Wenatchee Plumbing & Heating Co. Phone 251.***

Mrs. M. E. Henry and Mrs. Terry Ross gave a very enjoyable card party yesterday afternoon at their home on Douglas street. This is the second series of parties to be given by Mesdames Henry and Ross. The first, which occurred last week, was in honor of Mrs. Guy Browne, next week the affair will be complimentary to Mrs. Ross, Sr. On yesterday afternoon there were four tables at German whist. Mrs. M. O. Tibbitts being the most fortunate player, was awarded a handsome Wenatchee souvenir spoon. The rooms were pretty and springlike with numerous ferns, palms and plants. Dainty refreshments were served the guests at the conclusion of the game.

Come in and see our dinner bill and you will get hungry. The Gem Cafe is the place.***

USE X-RAY TO LOCATE BULLET

Leavenworth Man Accidentally Shot in Arm.—Dr. McCoy Searches for the Missile.

At Leavenworth last night, while one of the clerks in the Leavenworth Mercantile company's store was showing a pistol to a Japanese customer, the weapon was accidentally discharged, the ball striking the salesman in the arm. The Jap was inspecting the gun, it is reported, and carelessly pointed it at the clerk.

A message to Dr. McCoy stated that the injured man would be sent to Wenatchee on the afternoon train for the purpose of having an X-Ray examination made to locate the bullet; it could not be found by probing. Dr. Kaupp will assist Dr. McCoy at the examination this evening. They will employ the latter's X-Ray machine.

Marrage Here Yesterday.
At the Methodist parsonage at 2 p. m. yesterday, Mr. John Carpenter and Miss Maude Boyd, both of Chelan, were united in marriage by Rev. Feightel. The groom is a brother of Mrs. L. L. Harn, whose marriage was celebrated in Wenatchee about four months ago.

The newly married couple will make their home at Onelan, where the groom is engaged in the carpentering business.

MANY HORSES TO BE SOLD

15 or 20 Head of Horses and Some Other Animals to be Sold by Courtway & Reed.

At Courtway & Reed's sales stables tomorrow a general market day will be held, the auction beginning at 2 in the afternoon. About 15 or 20 head of horses, of varying sizes, will be sold by auctioneers C. Taylor and Finch.

If tomorrow's effort is successful the promoters of the enterprise will endeavor to inaugurate regular periodical sales of this kind, handling not only horses, but cattle, pigs, farm implements, and all kinds of farm and ranch merchandise.

Wait for the Grand Millinery opening at Mrs. Webb's.***

Announcement of Candidacy.
I hereby announce my candidacy for office of Sheriff, subject to the Republican primary election.
J. E. FERGUSON.

CORPORATION WILL NOT PAY

Jury Says Wenatchee Canal Co. Need Not Give Joe Compton Money for Damaged Ankle.

Late last night the jury in the Compton personal injury damage suit brought in a verdict for the defendant corporation; this means that the Wenatchee Canal Co. does not have to pay Compton the $2,500 he asked as the price of a crippled foot.

Were the Horses "Outlaws?"
A principal point raised in the trial of the case was whether or not the horses which ran away last June and put three men out of commission were habitual runaways.—"outlaw" horses. Testimony concerning the nature of the animals occupied much time; a most amusing point in the case was reached when Dave Gellatly was put in the stand, and testified that "he and his girl had driven the team one night without having a runaway."

This hearing of the Compton case occupied Wednesday and Thursday.

NOB HILL WAS SCENE OF WRECK

Neubauer's Acrobatic Pony Smashes Cart and Spills Occupants Unhurt into Open Ditch.

Residents on Nob Hill were dumfounded this noon at a amazing wild west exhibition which even Wild Bill in his palmy days could scarcely have excelled.

Heyman Harris and his brother Louis, ably assisted by Neubauer's pony and dogcart, pulled off a fancy stunt which made the natives of that aristocratic suburb shout for joy. Running up First street is a deep ditch, intended for water-pipe, but still uncovered. The circus pony owned by the grocery store threw a fit into this ditch and the performance began. It was a one-act show, but soul-stirring, even as followed each other in quick succession.

Garlic, dill pickles and other delicatessens, as well as hats and cushions were kicked high in the air by the infuriated pony, and for ten minutes afterward showered down in various parts of the district. The agile occupants of the once seaworthy equipage were rolled in the nice, soft dirt till, as a bystander remarked, "they had wiped up all the dirt there was."

Lull, Miller and other residents of the community hastened to the rescue of the fallen charioteers and assisted them from the confusion of the wreck. The vehicle was kicked to pieces by the active little animal, but, luckily, the occupants were uninjured.

RIGHTOFWAY IS CAUSE OF SUIT

Wenatchee Valley & Northern Railway Seeks Court's Aid to Run Across a Farm.

In superior court today the Wenatchee Valley & Northern Railway company is bringing an action against E. D. Northrup and wife to secure a right-of-way over their property beyond Leavenworth.

The court has already entered an interlocutory decree, finding the property in question necessary for public use. The action now being tried is in the nature of an appraisal proceeding by the jury, to determine the extent of the monetary damages which the delinquents will sustain by reason of surrendering the property condemned as a right of way.

Attorney Frank Reeves is appearing for the railway company and Ira Thomas and Attorney King for the defendants.

HAS FAITH IN OUR SECURITIES

Sir William C. Van Horn Says Europe is Not Skeptical.—Future Brighter.

New York, March 11.—Sir William C. Van Horn, chairman of the Canadian Pacific railway's board of directors, who arrived from Europe yesterday, said that American securities were no longer looked up with suspicion in Europe. Investors on the other side, he said, believe now that American securities are at bed-rock and that it is a good time to buy now, while the financial haze in America is clearing up.
