AMUSEMENT COLUMN.

Laughter Will Be Plenty at the Star.
Wyndham Jones, the baritone who is making a stand of several weeks at the Star, says that Burton, Brandt & Co. will make a hit with Wenatchee folks next week. Mr. Jones is making no small hit himself, which is an unusual thing for an illustrated song soloist to do. And therefore he ought to be capable of expressing a reliable opinion when he says that he appeared in the same theatre a full week with Burton, Brandt & Co.
The sketch is full to the brim with action, fun, quick turns and clever acting. It is an original skit and no one has the slightest idea at any moment what will happen next nor how the little plot may end.
Managers Albin and Taylor feel confident, from all they can learn, that their bill for the coming week is one of unusual excellence. The comedian comes highly recommended and feature films will be exhibited in the moving pictures.

Strong Bill at the Wenatchee.

The Comedy Roller Skaters who were announced to appear here two weeks ago, but who were switched to another booking, will positively show at the Wenatchee next week. Their act is said to be very good indeed.

Nan Lewis is billed as a mezzo soprano, which means that she ought to have a fine voice—something above the usual soubrette. She however, has acquired most of her fame as a quick change artist. It is claimed that she effects the quickest and most complete changes of make-up on record.

Moving pictures of the usual high order will be given.

Feature Films at the Gem.

It is remarkable that the business at the Gem continues so good when that theatre confines its presentation solely to moving pictures and an illustrated song. It only goes to show that people appreciate really good moving pictures. The Gem makes its sole bid for patronage on the superior excellence of its pictures. One especially strong feature film is secured for every bill. It is a common occurrence for the audience to burst forth into applause time and again as the plot depicted by a moving picture develops.

Delegated to Gather Fruit.

George H. Farwell has been delegated to gather fruits at Wenatchee for the A.-Y.-P. exhibit and anyone desiring information in this matter should telephone him before 7 o'clock a. m. or between 12 and 1 o'clock. Phone 595.

E. T. BALCH,
A.-Y.-P. Committee.

F. Cadwalader left this morning for New York City to visit friends.

W. Sussex, architect, Wenatchee, Wash.

Plans and specifications may be obtained from the board of directors at Peshastin or from the architect at Wenatchee.
