 If you have $300 cash we will furnish balance of cash necessary to purchase a lot and erect for yourself a good home, built in a substantial manner and modern in every respect. A flattering proposition for anyone with only a small amount of available cash. Write to W. M., care of Daily World. 1-6
 Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Hanan of Malaga were visiting in Wenatchee yesterday.
 The switchmen's strike did not affect the Ellis-Forde Co. Last Wednesday the railroad delivered to us 48 cases of our stock to be put on sale starting next Monday.
 Miss Pearl Cnlow arrived yesterday and will visit here with her friend, Miss Jennie Anderson. There was a sleighing party last night in her honor.
 The Ellis-Forde Co. 61c on the dollar sale promises to be something that isn't nothing.
 Carl Christenson is spending the week in Seattle. He is expected here tomorrow.
 J. M. Pate, of Methow, is in the city today.
 Mrs. Ponquist left for Quincy yesterday.

Monday next will be a day of history with the E. F. Co. Never before have they ever sold men's clothing at such prices. One-third off will look like nothing compared with our sale. ***
 Mrs. Barnes has returned from Tacoma.
 It is the custom of the Ellis-Forde Co. to give the public advantage of low prices in January, the slack time of the year. This January will be something to make you open your eyes. ***
 Ralph Curtis, of Seattle, is here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ira D. Edwards.
 Miss Erma Kirkpatrick is visiting the Harris family on Mission street for a few days.
 N. Sampson, a resident of North Dakota for 32 years, has just arrived in Wenatchee, where he will reside. His family came here a couple of months ago, but Mr. Sampson remained behind to settle up his business affairs. He says several of his old townsmen expect to visit the valley this spring.
 Mrs. Gardner Will Entertain.
 Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Gardner will entertain Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Smith, of East Wenatchee, at their home on New Year's day, on Washington avenue.

BOUGHT MOBURG TRACT

CLARK COX AND J. H. M'GOHAN BECOME OWNERS OF SQUILL-CHUCK TRACT—WILL SUBDIVIDE AND MARKET IT AT ONCE.

J. H. McGoan and Clark Cox this week closed a deal for the A. H. Moburg tract in the Squillchuck. This consists of 30 acres, 12 acres of which is planted to fruit and 7 acres in bearing. There is water for 20 acres of it. The place contains a modern house with spring water piped into it and the new owners will plat this and put it on the market at once. Mr. Moburg and family are spending the winter in Seattle and the deal was closed over there.

Bought Large Dairy Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Morris are spending the holiday week in this valley from their home in Stanwood. After selling his Squillchuck place, the Eagle Ranch, Mr. Morris and wife went to the Sound and became so in love with the country around Stanwood, in Whatcom county, that they purchased 60 acres of hay and oat land, and are now running a dairy ranch. Mr. Morris is very much pleased with the Sound country.

Miss Ardron Entertains.

Miss Ardron entertained a few of her friends Thursday night with music, games and luncheon. Misses Anna Sumner, Helen Scanlon, Sylvia Grant, Esther Paton and Messrs. Ray Morrison, Hugh Cassidy, Fay Ardron, Fred Morrison, Fred Hamilton and Bruce Hastings were the guests.

Cases in Justice Court.

Wells & Morris vs. A. J. Amos, judgment by default in favor of the plaintiff, $46.90. Sam R. Sumner, attorney for plaintiff.
 C. A. Harlin vs. F. A. Daniels, judgment by default in favor of the plaintiff, $33.24. Sam R. Sumner attorney for plaintiff.
 Wenatchee Lumber Co. vs. F. A. Daniels, judgment by default in favor of plaintiff, $64.70. Sam R. Sumner attorney for plaintiff.

Makes New Record.

Juvisy, France, Dec. 31.—Leon De La Grange yesterday established a new aeroplane record by driving his monoplane 127 miles in two hours and thirty minutes. The previous record was held by Bleriot, who flew across the English channel.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Having decided to take charge of the district of Chelan and Grant counties for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co., I desire to announce that only clean, honest business methods will be used in the placing of this insurance. The Northwestern is the largest purely American life insurance company with assets of over two and a half millions. It is the largest dividend paying company in existence and has been 51 years proving that to the people. Paid nearly nine and a half millions to policy holders this year. Information gladly furnished and in writing for policy information be sure to give age of nearest birthday.

Agents wanted for every town and part of these counties.

E. U. BOICE,

District Manager,
 512 Yakima Street.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given to all persons who have expressed a desire to enter into the fellowship of the Congregational church, that on next Lord's day formal services of covenantal fellowship, the administration of baptism and the Lord's Supper will be observed at 11 a. m., in Masonic rooms. We cordially invite any others who love our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and desire to commence or renew the Christian life, to meet with us, and hand their names to the pastor, or the clerk, Mrs. L. Tice, in Mr. Holcomb's store, on or before the public service. All such will be enrolled among the charter members of the Plymouth Congregational church. Rooms to accommodate parents having young children will be warmed and opened for their use. Deacons will be ordained also. ***1-1
