Bird Man to Fly in Seattle.

Seattle, March 7.—Weather conditions do not enter into the calculations of Charles H. Hamilton, the daring bird man, who is to be the special feature of the aviation meet in the meet.

of the Western Washington Fair association in Seattle, March 12, 13 and 14. He flies in storm or sunshine with equal intrepidity. At Tucson, on Feb. 18, he remained up in the air more than 12 minutes in the midst of a 40 mile gale.

Hamilton is under contract to fly in Seattle regardless of the weather. Not only will he give an exhibition of flying at heights and distances, but he will race with automobiles and motor-cycles and will give daily exhibitions of quick starts and stops, cutting figure eights, sudden drops from tremendous heights and other feats of the most thrilling nature.

At least four flying machines of local make are expected to participate in the meet and other parts of the state are yet to be heard from. A Curtiss biplane, owned by E. Henry Womme, has been on exhibition here for several days with which a local automobile enthusiast expects to enter into competition with one or more of the visiting aviators. Manager G. E. Mattox, who is handling the meet for the fair association, is in correspondence with a number of amateur flyers in Portland and San Francisco, and it is probable that several of these will also participate.

All Royal Neighbors are requested to meet at Sprague hall tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Business of great importance will be transacted. Bring a friend.

Low Rate on Night Messages

FIFTY WORDS MAY BE SENT FOR THE SAME AS TEN WORDS DAY TIME BY THE WESTERN UNION COMPANY.

Announcement is made by the Western Union Telegraph company that it is prepared to handle long night messages at the rates customarily charged for ten words in a day message. The new service starts today.

It appears the Western Union has a large unemployed mileage of wires at night which is not earning anything. These wires must be maintained in any event to take care of the regular day business and it is apparently the idea of the new interests in the telegraph company to let the public have the benefit of them. The charge for this service will be the standard day rate of ten words for the transmission of 50 words or less, and one-fifth of such standard day rate will be charged for each additional ten words or less.

These rates "night letters," must be written in plain English language, that is to say, code words or communications written in foreign languages will not be accepted. The messages will be taken at any hour up to midnight, and transmitted at the company's convenience during the night for delivery the following morning.

For the present time this service is confined to Western Union offices in the United States. The tariff charged for night letters is so low it is expected that the new service will be largely availed of by business concerns and others to quicken their correspondence by using the telegraph instead of the mails.

A night letter sent by telegraph will reach its destination at the opening of business hours the following morning, thus saving as much as three or four days when long distances are involved.

COWBOYS BRAND COYOTES

PLAY PRANKS WITH WARY ANIMALS—FRUIT GROWERS BE FRIEND ENEMIES OF RABBITS ON LOWER COLUMBIA RIVER.

White Bluffs, March 7.—Scampering over the ranges and desert of the White Bluffs country are band after band of coyotes bearing the brands of well known stockmen and horse breeders, the result of the sport of cowboys and rough riders.

At the spring and fall roundups the riders' greatest sport is lassoing scared coyotes, applying the branding iron, sometimes clipping a strip of fur down cutting off the caudal appendage for luck.

The stockmen are trying to get rid of the coyotes as they are a constant menace to the weak and injured horses and other range stock, while the fruit growers in the valley are becoming the best friends of the coyotes as rabbits are scarcer and the orchards safer when the coyotes are numerous and hungry.

SPOKE ON MODERN CHRIST

REV. JOHNSON PREACHES ON THE CHRIST OF THE APOSTLES AND THE CHRIST OF TODAY AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Last night Rev. Johnson of the Baptist church preached a very scholarly sermon on the theme, "The Christ of the Apostles and the Christ of Today." He said in part:

"Some regard Christianity as a theory of the universe but while it cherishes a theory it is not a theory of the universe. Some look upon religion as a creed but it is not a creed. Creeds are its milestones. Christianity is not an organization but an organism—a thinking, living body with a living spirit and a living head.

"The aim or purpose of the Christ was not simply education or social reform or the creation of a social utopia but the salvation of men. Men were to be delivered from sin and guilt and brought into a fuller life, not only for the present but for the future. Salvation is a deliverance of the whole man from sin and death. It is also the deliverance to a fuller life—a release of energy in life bringing man into the likeness of God.

"Some conceive of Christ today as the greatest of created personalities completely filled with spirit of God, as the supreme man, the religious genius, the prophet of God rather than God. The Christ is thought of as the supremely moral man who was thus one with God. If, as Dr. Forth-syth says, the essence of Christianity were thus its lowest common denominator we need go no further than this position to gather the greatest possible number into the Church.

"Others think of Christ as so pure and so exalted in his moral consciousness that God makes him the judge of men. He is God's plenipotentiary invested with divine power and prestige. But this was not the Christ of the apostles.

"To the apostles he was not the ideal man or the super-man only, but he was the supernal man, the Lord from heaven. Christ is too great for any smaller answer than the apostles gave of him."

CHAMP CLARK 60 YEARS OLD

Washington, D. C., March 7.—Champ Clark, the leader of the minority in the House of Representatives, received the congratulations of his colleagues on both sides of the aisle today upon the occasion of his sixtieth birthday. Mr. Clark is enjoying excellent health and his appearance does not betray his age.

Mr. Clark was born near Lawrenceburg, Anderson county Kentucky, March 7th, 1850, the son of John Hampton and Aletha Jane Clark. He received his early education in the common schools of his home town and continued his studies at the Kentucky University at Lexington. He then went to Bethany College, Pennsylvania, from which he graduated as A. B. in 1873. Later he received the degrees of A. M. and LL.D. from that college. After graduating he studied law at the Cincinnati Law school and graduated from that institution with the degree of LL.B. in 1873 and 1874 he was president of the first normal school established in West Virginia. He did not enter active practice after his graduation from the Cincinnati Law School, but removed to Missouri and became principal of the high school at Louisiana. In 1876 he began to practice law and was attorney of Louisiana, Mo., and afterwards of Bowling Green, Mo. For a while he served as prosecuting attorney of Pike county. In 1879 and 1880 he was editor of the Riverside Press and was chosen presidential elector and member of the Missouri legislature. He was elected to the fifty-third congress in 1892 and to the fifty-fifth congress in 1896, and has since been biennially re-elected from the Ninth Missouri district, which he now represents.

Threshermen Want Higher Pay.

Wichita, Kas., March 7.—One of the most important subjects to be considered by the annual convention of the Operating Threshers which opened here today for a four days' session, will be the question of rates. On account of the existing high prices of grain and labor, the threshermen contend that they do not receive enough pay for their work and the use of their machinery. An effort will be made at the convention to reach an agreement to advance the price of threshing in the coming season. It is understood that the manufacturers, who in former years have always discouraged such a movement are now willing to support it. Several thousand threshers from Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado and Nebraska are in attendance.

BENET-MERCIE AUTOMATIC GUN. AMERICAN ARMY'S LATEST WEAPON.

In the endeavor to keep the American army supplied with the latest and most up to date weapons the ordnance department has adopted a new arm, the Benet-Mercie automatic rifle, also known as the portable Hotchkiss. The new gun fires twenty shots without reloading. One man does the firing and the other loads. The illustration shows army officers testing the new rifle.
