DR. DARRIN IN WENATCHEE

He Has Arrived and Will Remain Until July 16 at Hotel Great Northern.

The Scientific Treatment of This Well Known Specialist Has Cured Hundreds.

It is the rare opportunity that comes once in a lifetime for the afflicted to learn from a recognized authority—chronic disease expert, a specialist—just what their trouble is, and whether or not it is curable. All they would have to do is to apply to Dr. Darrin, while he is in Wenatchee at the Hotel Great Northern, any time between the hours of 9 a. m. and 6 p. m. daily, and secure a free confidential examination and advice. A little talk will cost nothing.

Let Those Come Who Have Some Complicated Trouble.

Those who have suffered for years without knowing just what it was that did all them and are perplexed by the different opinions given by different doctors. Dr. Darrin will tell them how they suffer, and if curable he will tell them how they can be cured, and if incurable he will say so.

Dr. Darrin Is Honest With the Sick.

If he finds a case wherein medical skill is powerless he frankly tells the patient so, and gives such advice as will aid them without charge. If curable Dr. Darrin tells just how much it will cost to be cured. This saves sick people the trouble of going from one doctor to another to find out what they "think" the trouble is, and then trying to decide which doctor was nearest the truth. It saves suspense; it saves time; it saves money—for Dr. Darrin points out the sore spots, tells why they suffer and how they can be cured. There is no mystery about it—it is no superhuman bugaboo; but simply the result of years of special training—years of hard work treating nothing else, and the grand experience gained in treating thousands of similar cases that enables the doctor to tell at a glance what organ is affected, how and why, and what the remedy is.

Consult Him Today, Tomorrow or Any Day Next Week.

Dr. Darrin will examine all cases free of charge. His continual success in treating chronic diseases has won for him the largest practice among the best classes of people in this vicinity. His cures are attested by the thousands of published testimonials from sick people all over the northwest.

The afflicted should call and secure proper treatment before it is too late and beyond medical and human aid. Dr. Darrin's experience has been world wide, covering many years of practice.

Queen Esther Society

The Queen Esther society of the M. E. church met at the home of the president, Miss Ruth Courtway, on Wednesday afternoon at two-thirty. Twelve members and one visitor were present. After the election of officers for the year they decided to pledge $15 toward the support of a scholar in one of the homes of the Woman's Home Missionary society. The mite-box question was discussed and it was decided that their use be continued this year. As this was the first meeting of the new year the rest of the time was given over to music and social enjoyment.

The society adjourned to meet in two weeks in the basement of the church. Visitors are requested to come and see what young girls can do for missions. All members are to bring their work to the next meeting. Remember the date, July 20th. LUCILLE HULL, Sec.

DECK HAND TO SENATOR.

Remarkable Rise of Napoleon B. Broward, Former Governor of Florida. One of the most unique figures in the limelight just now is Napoleon B. Broward of Florida, who recently defeated Senator Tallaferra at the primaries for the latter's seat in the United States senate. He has come up the ladder of fame from the lowest rung and has served as governor of the Everglades State.

Mr. Broward was born upon a Florida farm fifty-three years ago. When fourteen years old he was an inmate of a logging camp and three years later a roustabout on a river steamer. At sixteen years old he was one of the crew of a codfishery on the banks of Newfoundland and afterward served as a pilot on the St. Johns river bar. Afterward he became part owner and operator of a line of river steamers.

In 1887 he gave up the sea to run a wood yard. The same year he was appointed sheriff for Duval county, in which he was born, to fill a vacancy caused by death. By reappointment and election he remained sheriff until 1900, when he went to the state legislature from his county. He became governor four years later.

The mission in life of the new senator has been the reclamation of the Everglades of Florida. This was the issue that carried him into the office of governor.

A. PIATT ANDREW.

New Assistant Secretary of Treasury Noted Financial Expert.

If you are fond of "springing" a puzzle on your friends here is something in that line that should interest you: How can a chap making more money than any other man in the world give up such a position for one paying $5,000 a year and still be the gainer financially? The answer is: Be the director of Uncle Sam's mint and then win the appointment of assistant secretary of the treasury, just as Professor A. Piatt Andrew has recently done. In his former job, that of chief of the mint, he made, but did not earn, you must remember, more money than any other man in the world and received a salary of $4,500 annually for his work, while his new position pays $5,000.

Professor Andrew, who has succeeded Charles D. Norton as assistant secretary of the treasurer, is thirty-seven years old and a native of Indiana, having been born in Laporte in 1873, and is one of our most noted experts of all financial subjects. He was made a doctor of philosophy at Harvard in 1900, but in the meantime had performed several other notable feats, such as making the football and baseball teams, studying in Paris and Berlin and generally showing that he was a man of muscle and brains. In 1903 he began to show himself as an expert in money matters, academically speaking, and his articles on financial problems began to attract governmental attention.

PROFESSOR A. PIATT ANDREW.

The lightning struck when President Taft needed a new man to direct the mint. College President Eliot sent Professor Andrew to Senator Aldrich. Senator Aldrich sent him to Secretary MacVeagh, and MacVeagh took him in hand and sent him along to United States President Taft. Taft, signing his appointment, smiled and said, "Here is where Harvard put one over on Yale."

"Why don't they get busy and pave this Wenatchee avenue?" said a man in a barber chair this morning.

"We're thinking of paving it with doughnuts and calling it the "Holy City," said the big barber with the curly hair who looks like a Kentucky colonel as he changed his quid to the other side of his mouth and lathered his mug and the man's mug too.

And the band played on.

MANY CHURCHES REPRESENTED

Baptist Organizations Meeting in Cashmere—Officers Elected.

(Cashmere, July 8.) Representatives from seventeen Baptist churches are present at the meeting being held here. This is the seventh annual meeting of the association. The first session was held last night when the Cashmere Baptist church was formally recognized as a member of the Big Bend association. There are seventy members in the organization.

Dr. T. F. Schlosser who came here two months ago from Garfield, is pastor.

Tanner Re-Elected.

Rev. J. W. Tanner, of Wenatchee, was re-elected moderator at the session this morning and Mrs. W. B. Allison of Cashmere was re-elected clerk.

This afternoon Dr. C. A. Woody of Portland will address the association. The delegates from Wenatchee who are present are Rev. J. W. Tanner, Rev. J. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Milner, Mrs. H. R. Schildnecht, Mrs. Andrew Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Coulter and W. A. Grant.

Receive Bids Up to August 3rd.

Postmaster Ross has received from James Knox Taylor, supervising architect of the treasury department, Washington, D. C., a number of instructions to parties who contemplate submitting bids for the new federal site. These bids must be in by August 3rd and must be accompanied by plats, reports and photographs of the site submitted. The plan must show the angles and dimensions of the lots, elevations and grades of sidewalks and curbs. No special form of proposal is required but the offer must be in writing addressed to the secretary of the treasury and must indicate the locations and dimensions of the property and the price at which it is offered.

There is considerable red tape incident to filling out the blanks. Postmaster Ross has a number of these on hand.
