WORK ON STEAMER YAKIMA

State Commission Reports
Work on Upper River Done at Low Cost.

With an expenditure of $35-769.34 of the $50,000 appropriated by the state the Columbia river improvement commission reports to Gov. M. E. Hay that a "belt" or channel way for 175 miles, between Wenatchee and the border, has been worked, making navigation practicable along the entire river for a sufficient period to allow the removal of the chief products of the tributary country.

The worst obstructions have been removed and a total of 12,000 cubic yards of earth removed.

Report Forwarded Today.

The commission, which consists of Senator A. W. Anderson of Stevens county, president; Fred McDermott, of Kettle Falls, executive commissioner; Herman Corneli, of Bridgeport, W. W. Bryant, county commissioner of Stevens county, and J.
B. Valentine, Spokane, prepared their report this week, and it will be forwarded today to Gov. M. E.
Hay. The report covers eleven typewritten pages and gives a complete synopsis of Columbia river conditions found by the commission upon undertaking the work and the steps taken to tame the big river for boat transportation.

The financial report shows a good balance of the appropriation still intact. The distribution to date is as follows:

Equipment, $19,902.91; material, $8,633.68; labor, $6,173.45; administration $1,059.30; balance on hand $14,230.66.

Division of Expense.

"The operations by the state," reports the commission, "have been carried on at all places with a distinct view to doing certain work complete within certain bounds and to leaving other work outside those bounds or limitations for the government to do. September 29, 1909, permission was formally granted to the commission by the assistant secretary of war, and on October 6, 1909, transmitted to the commission by Major C. W. Kutz, United States engineer district officer at Seattle, authorizing the commission to proceed with the work.

"The work done by the state will compare most favorably as to costs, time required and results accomplished with any work ever before done with public moneys anywhere in the Columbia river. Some of this work, while in some instances preliminary to other work which is expected to follow, has at certain points constituted the first absolutely necessary and most expensive and difficult work and the doing of this work now makes all other jobs more easily and safely and economically accessible, and may also permit the application of funds to other projects that may not hitherto have been contemplated.

More Work Needed.

"Box canyon, Hell Gate, Spokane rapids, Hickey rapids, are extensive projects for further improvement, both in high and extremely low water, which are worthy immediate attention, while Foster creek and other locations can be further advantageously improved after the completion of the work now under way or blocked out to be done by the state."

According to the report the task of improving the Columbia river is one which need no longer defy the resources of either the state or the national government, but if it is carried forward determinedly and in a practical way the river may soon be made, at comparatively small cost, a great and practicable commercial highway.

CANNON REFUSES TO STAND ASIDE

Will Be Speaker of Lower House Again if the Majority Wills.

Burlingame, Kas., July 20.—Joseph C. Cannon will not abandon the race for the speakership of the next house of representatives. This he made plain near the conclusion of his speech at Emporia, Kansas, this afternoon. He said he would abide by the will of the republican caucus if the republicans control the next congress, but that no "muckraking magazines" could make him say he would not be a candidate. In other words, he said he would not make an effort to win the speakership, yet the emphasis with which he spoke made it plain that if the republican caucus should nominate him he would be willing to serve. Speaker Cannon's remarks on the speakership were made just before he left the platform at Emporia to catch a train for Burlingame, where tonight he makes his third political speech in the Kansas primary campaign.

Speaker Cannon's utterances on the speakership follow verbatim:

"I am speaker, and in March next I will have been speaker for eight years, a longer continuous term than any man ever served as speaker since the foundation of the government. There was only one man who has had a longer service as speaker than I have had, and there was an interim of four years in his service.
That was Henry Clay, who in the aggregate served 10 years as speaker.

Scapegoat Is Necessary.

"Somebody has got to be the scapegoat through magazines and letters. Candidates for congress are asked, 'Will you pledge yourself not to vote for that old czar speaker?'"

"Oh, the scapegoat! This little 154 pounds of clay cannot bear many sins off into the wilderness.
If my constituency is as kind to me as it has been for 36 years, I will go back if God spares my life and be in the next congress, either in the majority or in the minority, and I would rather be there in a republican minority, a real virtue republican minority, than to be one of any apparent majority that could not take account of stock and know from one day to another whether it was the majority or the minority.

"They wanted me to pledge that I would not be a candidate for the speakership if the republicans have a majority of the next house.

Will Abide by Caucus.

"They will meet in caucus and select a candidate for speaker. I will be in that caucus and I will vote for the man the caucus selects. I know of no crime I have committed that should bar me from entering a republican caucus. If you ask whenever I want to be speaker of the house longer than for eight years, I have been speaker that long because my friends thought I could be most useful as a member of congress in that position, but as long as God lets me live the muckraking periodicals and the so-called independent or progressive republicans shall not make me say that I will not be a candidate for speaker any more than they shall make me say, if I am again elected to congress, that I will not vote when my name is called."

LYNCHING FEARED; TRAIN MOVES

Porter Accused of Insulting Daughter of U. S. Land Commissioner.

Medford, Ore., July 20.—Laura Moss, 15, married, a daughter of Joseph Moss, United States land commissioner at Grant's Pass, was the victim of an attempted assault at the hands of J. K. Saders, a negro pullman porter, this morning on train No. 15, between Eugene and Roseburg.

The girl did not tell her story until she left the train at Grant's Pass, and then only to her father, who immediately notified Sheriff Russell of Josephine county.

A large crowd of men at the depot learned of the affair and upon their making threats of lynching the negro was not taken off the train by the sheriff until Janes creek, four miles from Grant's Pass, was reached.

According to the girl's story Sanders came to her berth in the early morning hours and offered her some candy. This she refused and then she says the negro insulted her.
Further than this the girl will not tell her story. Her threats to arouse the other passengers caused the negro to leave her.

REVOLUTION NOW ON IN SPAIN

Country Appears to Be on Eve of Greatest Uprising in Her History.

San Sebastian, Spain, July 20.— Scores of bloody riots in which rioters and police alike suffered, swept Spain yesterday and today.

Although dispatches from Madrid information has been received that Spain is on the eve of the greatest revolution in her history. The forces at work against the Spanish crown and cabinet are similar to those of the great French revolution.

Already in Barcelona, Bilbao, Gerona, Santander, Gijon and Saragossa, strikes have been declared.
The military authorities have thrown heavy bodies of troops into the cities to stem the revolutionary tide. The general opinion here is that Spain is aflame with revolt and that the king and cabinet, after yesterday's conference, are preparing to suspend the constitution and to declare martial law.

San Sebastian, on the northern coast and Barcelona, on the Mediterranean, both adjacent to France, have been made the headquarters of the plotters, it is said. Barcelona, owing to the strong garrison placed there last week by General Weyler, was reported quiet today. Fighting and bomb throwing is general in other parts of Spain but the government is active in suppressing the disorders.

Underlying the demands of the populace for the curtailment of the powers of the church in Spain is the rapid growth of the republican party with its desire for the abolishment of the crown and the cortes and for the establishment of a representative body elected by the people.

The republicans have been aided by their brethren of France and by socialists and anarchistic societies in other capitals of Europe. They have supplied the Spanish agitators with funds and many prominent socialist leaders have promised personal aid in the approaching crisis.

son Ivan, Frank Compton, Harlan Ray, also Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith attended a meeting of the county grangers, held Monday last at 2 p. m., at the Beacon Hill Grange hall.
Owing to the busy time of the year a small crowd was in attendance.
Nevertheless the afternoon was spent talking over grange subjects, etc. J.
A. Kirby, of Peshastin, was chosen as the delegate from this district to attend a meeting of the county granges to be held at Labor Temple, Seattle, July 25.

Packing apricots is the order of the day up in this neck o' the woods.

F. S. Compton accompanied by Harlan Ray and Mr. and Mrs. Ed.
Smith, took a nice little pleasure trip up the Little Wenatchee river Monday last.

who was to have preached the Sunday morning sermon at the school-meetings at the schoolhouse last winter.

C. M. Bellas and Will Hampton are busy hauling wood to town these

WE HAVE MANURE FOR FERTILIZING

Here is a prominent fruit growers' experience:

G. T. Richardson, of Monitor, reports an interesting experiment. His 16 year old Winesaps were beginning to run small in size. Last year he covered a portion of the orchard with stable manure and from that part secured apples nearly a third larger than from the portion which received no fertilizer.
