BRING YOUR PIANO
Prize Certificates to Michel's Store.

He Will Tell You the Truth About Them Even if Our Attorneys and Uncle Sam Does Not.

Big Grafts to Be Exposed by Louis Michel.

As we have only the one life to lead, Mr. Louis Michel, the one-price piano man, adopts the standard of honesty and decency in all of his dealings. We hereby denounce the piano-prize certificate scheme as a sure system of graft and roguery, no matter by whom contemplated, and we call upon our authorities, city, county and federal, to stop it.

The prize-certificate piano adventurers are not a bit better in their methods than the millionaire members of the beef trust, who were recently indicted by our federal authorities for graft, and we declare that men who deceive and rob the people in the piano or any other business, ought to be in jail.

We ask every holder of a prize certificate on a piano to call on Louis Michel, so we can explain to them the colossal humbugs attached with it.

As a matter of fact the first few prizes, in actual things, though shop-worn and second class they may be, are more than covered in actual value by the ingenious mode of prize swellings that gives the piano liar the advantage over the purchasing fool.

Frauds are frauds and if the public prosecutor cannot stop them, Louis Michel will speak every night at his place of business about the piano fakirs who rob and steal to make their miserable living, and who should be in jail so that they could not swindle poor and honest farmers.

It is declared in good faith by Louis Michel, who puts honesty ahead of money and who is the pioneer seller of musical instruments in Wenatchee:

1. Louis Michel has only one store, not forty.
2. Louis Michel, the proprietor, lives in Wenatchee.
3. Louis Michel does not live in hotels and make the piano buyers pay for it.
4. Louis Michel does not dump his pianos that he cannot sell in aristocratic Seattle into plain Wenatchee.
5. Louis Michel is a foe of the trusts and syndicates.
6. Louis Michel does not go to church on Sunday and rob his people on Monday.

We have arranged to move our old building into the west lot, while the new one is to be constructed, and our friends and patrons are asked to watch the construction of Wenatchee's first and honest music store, without a fake of 40 stores and without a prostitution of 40 different makes to it.

Fred Walker and no one else, represents us in the piano tuning and repair work.
