

Army Medical Officer to Retire.
 Washington, Dec. 30.—After more than thirty years' service in the medical department of the army, Col. John M. Banister will be placed on the retired list tomorrow on his own application. Col. Banister is from Alabama and was appointed an assistant surgeon in 1879. Recently he has been stationed in Omaha, Neb.

We Like Your Money But your Good Will More

Our policy has always been and always will be to treat our customers that they are loyal friends. We'd rather have a man's good will without his money than to have his money at the expense of his friendship. We want both your money and your good will, however, and are gratified to know that we have thousands of well pleased customers all over the northwest.

We spare no pains or expense to grow and deliver to our customers the best trees that skill, experience and favorable location can produce and we stand back of our stock.

We are nurserymen. That's our business. With the brains, energy and capital we employ, we could make twice the money in the orchard business that we are now making, but if we can sell good trees to good orchardists who make good money and can a fair profit ourselves, we will not complain.

We want your business. If our salesman fails to see you, drop us a line.

STRIKERS TO HAVE PARADE

Second Big Demonstration Planned by the Garment Workers.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Thirty thousand striking garment workers are planning another parade to demonstrate to the Chicago public that their number has not materially decreased. It is the intention of the strikers to invade the downtown district if a permit can be secured, and the demonstration probably will take place early next week.

Despite the fact that employers have increased their working forces to a great extent, the labor leaders maintain that there has been no stampede back to work, and that the strikers are more enthusiastic now than at any previous time.

Simple Inaugural for Dix

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 30.—True democratic simplicity will mark the inauguration of John A. Dix as the Governor of the State of New York. The inauguration usually occurs on New Year's day, but as the first day of the year falls on Sunday this year the inaugural ceremonies will, of course, be deferred until Monday. In order, however, that no question of regularity may be raised the new Governor will follow the example set by Colonel Roosevelt in 1899 and will take the oath of office in private in the Secretary of State's office tomorrow night or Sunday morning. On Monday the inauguration parade and the formal induction into office will take place. The parade, it is understood, will be confined to a few military organizations. Troop B of this city will escort the Governor. A public reception will be held after the conclusion of the ceremonies at the Capitol, but there will be no inaugural ball.

VETERAN SOLDIER A CHILD WIFE PRISONER OF JAPS

After 45 Years of Service Brigadier Howe is Mustered Out.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 30.—Today, after a career of nearly 45 years of faithful and efficient service as an officer of the United States army, Brig. Gen. Walter Howe for some time past commander of the Department of Dakota, was placed on the retired list on account of having reached the age limit for active service. The vacancy caused by his retirement in the list of brigadier generals is to be filled by the promotion of Col. Joseph W. Duncan of the Sixth Infantry.

Gen. Howe is from Indiana and was graduated from the United States Military Academy in 1867. During his early service he participated in various campaigns against the Indians, notably in 1868, under Gen. Sheridan and Custer. In the Powder River expedition in 1876 under Gen. Crook, when he commanded a force of some 200 friendly Indians and again in the Modoc war, in 1876.

From 1878 to 1898 he was employed in garrison duty with his regiment, except for some four years spent in duty as military instructor at the State College of Pennsylvania and at Cornell College at Mount Vernon, Iowa. In 1898 he was put in charge of the artillery defenses of the Potomac and the capital and the next year was commissioned colonel of the 47th volunteer infantry and sent to the Philippines. He and his regiment participated in many engagements. Prior to taking command of the department of Dakota in the early part of this year Gen. Howe served as inspector general of the department of the East.

RABBITS FOR POOR

Great Northern Railroad Asked To Frank a Carload to Spokane.

Business men of Wilson Creek have asked the Great Northern railroad company to frank a shipment of rabbits to the poor of Spokane, which they expect to kill in a round-up all next week. Archibald Gray, assistant traffic manager of Seattle, found, after looking up the law, that the company is allowed to transport foodstuffs and other articles for charitable purposes free of charge. Mr. Gray will ask, however, that a portion of the shipment be sent to Seattle, and that the animals be frozen in order to preserve them until they are used.

Y. M. C. A. Boy's Conference.

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 30.—With R. A. Waite of New York, C. K. Cahoun of Montreal, Eugene Foster of Detroit and other noted Y. M. C. A. leaders among the participants, the fifth annual Boys' Conference for Ontario and Quebec opened here today under the auspices of the local Y. M. C. A. The sessions will continue over Saturday and Sunday.

Burley Tobacco Pool Assured.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 30.—Plans for the consummation of a burley tobacco pool were advanced another step today when the growers of Missouri, Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia held conventions in their various states to elect delegates to the general conference to be held here next week. At this conference officers are to be elected and a definite organization effected. The organization, which its promoters assert will include 100,000 growers, is expected to adopt an agreement providing that no tobacco shall be raised in 1912.

CHILD WIFE PRISONER OF JAPS

May Harris, 18 Years Old, Rescued From Japanese Lodging House.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 30.—May Harris, 18 years of age, the daughter of Mrs. G. W. Foster, an early settler in the Puget Sound country, was today taken to the state insane asylum in Steilacoom, a mental and physical wreck. The girl was rescued from imprisonment in a dark room in a Japanese lodging house by the police after she had been held in unspeakable bondage for forty-six days.

In all the history of Seattle no case has ever been so terrible as the present one. The girl is a native of this state and was reared in a Seattle convent school. Less than two years ago she was married to James R. Harris, an industrious man some years her senior. A child was born to the couple and they seemed happy, the girl's mother stated today.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Harris visited her mother and later boarded a car to return to her own home. Her father volunteered to wheel the baby home in a go-cart.

The girl wife disappeared that night and was never heard of again until she telephoned to police headquarters begging to be rescued on Christmas day. Two officers hurried to the Japanese lodging house and after searching the joint three times, finally found the girl in a dark room.

She was in terrible condition and said that she had been locked in the room forty-six days. The girl said that the Japanese men had forced drugs down her throat to still her cries and had given her large quantities of some native liquid that kept her in a semi-conscious condition. She had been the prey of Japanese laborers.

Judge Wilson R. Gray had the case called to his attention yesterday and a lunacy commission decided that the girl had better be sent to the insane hospital to recover from the awful effects of the drug.

The police are investigating the case.

GOTCH IS A WONDER

Champion Wrestler Seen Winning $25,000 Purse by Throwing Zbyszko.

The wrestling match moving pictures shown at the Gem last night were seen by capacity crowds all evening. Frank Gotch, America's wonderful king of the mat, is shown in this match winning the championship of the world by throwing Zbyszko, the Turk. The affair took place last summer, just prior to the battle at Reno.

Zbyszko looks the stronger man of the two. He is a trifle shorter than Gotch, but his muscles stand out more prominently and his shoulders are broader.

The American was in the aggressive all the time. His antagonist went to the mat like a shot the first instant of the first clinch; he was on his back in six and one-half seconds. The foreigner was not so easy the time, he seemed to make no effort the time, he seemed to make no effort to overcome Gotch. The latter had his man on his hands and knees most of the time for 27 minutes. The bear-like squeezing around Zbyszko's abdomen must have had a telling effect upon the athlete's vital forces. When Gotch was ready to turn the trick, the Turk seemed utterly exhausted and did not have the alert strength to meet the lightning attack of the American.

Gotch was on the defensive only twice during the entire match. Each time he appeared to have sat down for a little rest. The moment he was ready, there was no difficulty in jumping to his feet, right out of Zbyszko's clutches.

The last throw was made after Gotch had kept Zbyszko on his hands and knees for a long time, had allowed him to get up, but no sooner was the Turk on his feet than Gotch was upon him like a panther. The action was so satanically lightning like that the exact hold could not be discerned. In a flash the end came, Zbyszko lying flat on his back with Gotch on top securely holding his man.

The films were late in arriving and there was no matinee.

The usual high order of moving pictures will be seen tonight at the Gem.
