"The Quaker Girl."

The attraction at the Grand Friday, December 18, will be the famous musical comedy hit, "The Quaker Girl," which is being sent to this city by John P. Slocum. "The Quaker Girl" has a history which has probably never been duplicated by any musical comedy, for it has had runs in London, Paris and New York, ranging in years instead of months as do the average musical plays. Its score is by Lionel Monckton and book by James T. Tanner, while the lyrics are the joint effort of Adrian Ross and Percy Greenbank. The music has been hummed and whistled all over the civilized world but is of that remarkable quality which does not lose in repetition. The wonderful "Come to the aBili" waltz is conceded to be the most hitting melody of decades and compares favorably with the best Strauss rhythms.
