$5.00 REWARD

Five dollars reward will be paid for information leading to recovery of 1915 calendars of the West Virginian and the Farmers Free Press taken from the room in the Jacobs building formerly occupied by the West

Virginian. The reward will be paid for information disclosing the name of the party or parties taking the calendars.

The West Virginian calendars were the largest made, showing the famous picture, "A Honeymoon in Venice," and the calendars can easily be identified by the printing.

Ministers Meet In Days Session

MORGANTOWN DISTRICT ASSOCIATION CONVENED IN DIAMOND STREET M. E. CHURCH.

The Morgantown District Ministerial and Laymen's Association convened in the Diamond street Methodist Episcopal church today for an all day's session.

Rev. O. Dale King, district superintendent of the Morgantown district, presided at the session. A number of ministers and laymen of the district were in attendance and an interesting program was carried out and much business transacted.

Tonight Dr. Ewing, pastor of the Morgantown Methodist Episcopal church, will preach a sermon, to which the public is invited.

Rev. O. Dale King, a former pastor of the Diamond street Methodist Episcopal church, preached at that church last evening to a good sized congregation.

Mrs. Spruill Ill.
Mrs. G. E. Spruill, of Siler City, N. C., has been very ill for some time, but her many friends here will be glad to learn that she is recovering slowly. Mrs. Spruill is the wife of the former pastor of the Palatine Baptist church. Their Fairmont friends will regret to learn that Mrs. Spruill's mother, Mrs. Moore, died recently at her home at Greenville, S. C.

Enroute Home.
Miss Gladine Fisher, of Morgantown, who is teaching at White Sulphur Springs, arrived here yesterday and left this morning for her home. While here she was the guest of Miss Louise Leonard.

Christmas Programs.
An excellent Christmas program was rendered last evening at the First M. P. church by the members of the Sunday school.

A program will be rendered on Friday evening at the Diamond street M. E. church. Rehearsals will be held each afternoon this week at 2 o'clock.

A very interesting program is being prepared by the children of the Palatine Baptist church. This entertainment will also be on Friday evening.

Went to Pittsburgh.
Miss Louise Leonard, of Guffey street, spent today in Pittsburgh, the guest of her uncle, Cecil G. Rice.

Former Fairmonter Dead.
Mr. W. B. Crouther, a former resident of this city, died a few days ago at his home in Pittsburgh. Mr. Crouther had been very ill, but was thought to be recovering when he suffered a relapse and died very suddenly.

Personals.
Mr. and Mrs. Larny Radford are moving from the Gaskin's property on Columbia street to the Radford property on Haymond street. Mr. Costello and family are moving from the Radford property to Market street.

Mr. W. A. Husted is ill at his home on Columbia street.

Mr. Howard Gaskins and children, Edward and Louise, of Newark, O., arrived here yesterday to visit relatives.

Mr. Headley, of Waynesburg, Pa., who spent several months here, left Saturday for his home.

JEWELS RETURNED.
By ASSOCIATED PRESS.
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—The $50,000 worth of jewels lost here recently by a Chicago bride, have been returned, the advertiser reward, of $2,000 has been paid, no questions were asked and the incident is closed according to an announcement made today by the manager of a hotel where the couple were staying. still remains secret, the only new clue, being the statement that they motored here from Chicago on a honeymoon trip.

Although no questions were asked of the finder of the jewels the information was volunteered that the bride dropped the jewel case as she entered her automobile upon leaving the theatre and that the finder, picked up the case, read of the advertisement and returned them.

The reason why the couple declined to make public their identity it was said at the hotel, was that they did not want to give their relatives an opportunity to scold them for being careless.

Protests Against Piers.
The records at the city hall show that at the regular weekly meeting of the City Board of Affairs held on Monday the Fairmont Ice Company and H. M. Foster filed a protest against the Buckhannon and Northern Railroad Company's erecting certain piers in Merchant street. The matter was referred to Street Commissioner Lehman.

Sentence Withheld.
Constable Bassett, of Worthington, brought Harry Preston here today for Judge Haymond to sentence. Preston was indicted at the last sitting of the grand jury on a charge of forestalling. Judge withheld sentencing Preston until the lad's parents can be notified.

We Start Our Christmas Savings Club December 28, 1914 NO CHARGE TO JOIN AND EVERYBODY IS WELCOME

The ideal way to accumulate your Christmas Fund is to join our Christmas Club and Make Small Weekly Payments
AN EASY WAY TO GET IT
A SURE WAY TO HAVE IT

We have several methods of making the Payments. You select the one suited to you.

In the 1c Progressive Class pay 1c the first week, 2c the second, 3c the third and so on, and at the end of the Club year we will mail you a check for $12.50.

The 2c Progressive Class operates in the same way increasing 2c each week, and if payments are made for the full 50 weeks, you receive check for $25.00.

The 5c Progressive Class will entitle you to a check for $63.75, if carried to completion.

YOU MAY REVERSE THE ORDER IF YOU WISH.

For instance, your last payment in the 5c Progressive Class would be $2.50. Begin with $2.50 and reduce it 5c each payment, and your check will be the same—$63.75.

We also have the 25c straight payment, or the 50c—any method to suit you. Join Yourself—Tell Your Friends About It. Prepare for a Merry Christmas. NOTE THE DATE OUR CLUB STARTS—DECEMBER 28.
