ROLL CALL OF FORMER TRACK STARS BRINGS RESPONSES FROM ALL CORNERS OF THE EARTH

BY HAROLD JOHNSON

Where are the stars of yesterday? What has become of the old champions who made history on the cinder path and the athletic field?

Circle the globe and you'll find them scattered here and there. Many have run their last race. Scores have succeeded in the commercial world while others have failed. Fickle Fortune has played many pranks with the Old Guard.

Johnny Owens, the first amateur to run 100 yards in 9:09 4/5 is one of the country's foremost automobile builders with headquarters in Detroit and New York.

Bernie Wefers, once king of sprinters, is coach of Columbia university athletics.

Judge Hugh Baxter, famous jumper, sits on a magistrate's bench in New York state. Millionaire Hugh Baxter, former pole vault record holder, keeps a close eye on his extensive quarry and railroad interests in Vermont.

Bartow S. Weeks, the old Mercury

Foot sprinter, is a supreme court judge in New York city.

Wendell Baker and Harry Brooks, sprinters, are officials of one of the biggest telephone companies in the east.

Martin Sheridan, the greatest all-around man of them all, is a detective sergeant in the New York police department.

Charley Melvor, the old 100-yard title holder, owns the famous Buena Vista vineyards in California. Charley Stage, the former 100 and 200-yard champion, and later an umpire in the National league, is a lawyer in Cleveland. Dan Kelly, the former speed marvel, is in business in Portland, Ore.

Warren Schutt, famous Cornell distance runner, is in the consular service in Europe. John Paul Jones is working in Chicago. Mel Shepard holds a job in the customs service and John Flanagan is a farmer in Ireland.

Al Ing, the old-time hammer-throwing champion, is a piano tuner. Johnny Hayes, the London marathon winner, is a playgrounds director in New Jersey. His great rival, Dorando Pietri, runs a spaghetti restaurant in Carpi, Italy. Over the door is a sign which reads "Fatto da Piedo," which translated, means "Made by the feet" — the restaurant, of course.

Billy Frank, another famous marathoner, is a chauffeur and so is Pete Golden, also a one-time distance runner.

Lewis Tewanima, the great Indian distance runner, is back among the Hopis, trying to help his tribesmen with the knowledge he acquired at Carlisle. Gwinn Henry, the sprinter, is in business in Texas. Jim Crowley, the 15-mile record holder, is a bricklayer, and Henry St. Yves is an aviator.

Ira Davenport, Chicago's famous middle distance runner, spends his time on his big ranch in New Mexico. Simon Gillies, the weight thrower, is a movie actor. Tom Tunney, veteran sprinter, is a New York police captain, and at present in command of the bomb squad. Dutch Arnold is shouldering a gun in the regular army, and Alexander Grant, former two-mile record holder, is a professor at Hill school.

SATISFY!

— what does that mean?

It means that NEW quality, in a cigarette, that does for your smoking exactly what a drink of cold water does for your thirst!

To satisfy, a cigarette must do far more than just "please" you—it must let you know you've been smoking.

That's what Chesterfields do—they satisfy! And yet they're MILD!

For the first time in the history of cigarettes, here's a cigarette that satisfies and yet is mild! Chesterfields!

Other cigarettes may be mild, but they don't satisfy. BUT, Chesterfields satisfy—yet they're mild!

This is new enjoyment for a cigarette to give. It is something that no cigarette, except Chesterfields, can give you—regardless of price.

Why?

Because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend!

One Minute Talks with Ballplayers

JACK COOMBS, BROOKLYN DODGERS:

"Baseball is a peculiar game. The life is hard and the game fast but there is a fascination about it that just holds one. There is something that comes of watching your eye against a sweeping curve ball that can be found in no other game in the world. Once you get inside the fanels you hate to let them aside. "We Brooklyn men should win this pennant. We have a fair lead and at the clip we are traveling should not have much trouble in holding our position.

"We arrived at the top through good baseball and no one can down us. However, there are 55 games to play and accidents may cut us down."

"STUFFY" MINNIS, PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS:

"The one best way for the young fellow breaking into the major leagues to get along is to keep his eyes and ears open at all times. "The bench is one great training school. The men there discuss the weakness of every player on the opposing team and before long you learn that So-and-So can't hit one kind of a curve but will murder another, and that Bill Whoosit feeds on a fast ball chest high and that certain other batters murder certain kinds of curves but can't touch others.

"Youngsters who listen carefully learn these points and when they get out on the field they can use the knowledge to good advantage."
