

Evening Chat

Many persons are ambidextrous but those who are possessed of that quality of mind that enables them to do two or three things at once, ordinarily requiring the closest concentration, are very few.

These pianists can not only read the book and thoroughly understand it but at the same time by some subconscious mental process can play the piano and play it well.

This brings to mind the strange fact that many men have the habit of whistling while shaving or taking a bath. Just why this is so has never been satisfactorily explained and is a question for psychologists and philosophers to worry about.

That lighting is one of the most important factors in the appearance of a room is shown by the few changes that were but recently made in the local Grand Theater.

A little paint together with plenty of soap and water in other parts of the theater have wrought a remarkable change for the better.

State Game and Fish Warden J. A. Vignone, of Belington, has started a movement to establish game and fish clubs in every county in the state and with this idea in view will shortly make a trip to this city.

Big game still abounds in the remote sections of the state and in the mountain streams fish are to be found in plentiful numbers.

Guests From Texas Mrs. Josephine Haymond and daughter, Miss Kate Preston Haymond, have as their guests, Mrs. Charles T. Butler and daughter, and Mrs. John N. Gilbert and daughter, and Mrs. James Harvey Wilbarger, all of Beaumont, Texas.

HERE'S CHANCE TO LEARN IF PUPILS CARRY ARITHMETIC THROUGH VACATION

(By SAM LOYD.) PUZZLELAND, Aug. 18.—"How old are you, daddy?" "Daddy," being a bit sensitive about his age, was moved to admonish daughter for impertinence, taking her by the ear.

"Your mother's age is four times your own, and our three ages combined amount to 76 years. When our combined ages amount to 88 years, mother's age will then be three times yours.
