

EVERYBODY

They are so far ahead that a day or so will not make any difference. That is where they are wrong. If one would win in this campaign advantage should be taken of every single day. Say less about what you expect to do and do more than is expected of you. The people who always do the most talking are very seldom winners.

Subscriptions Count
At each day passes in the greatest Voting Campaign that Fairmont has ever seen, the candidates themselves, as well as the entire public, are coming to the realization that it is the subscriptions that count the most after all. There are several of the candidates who assumed leading positions during the past day or two simply by clipping coupons, while votes run in series. Some of these candidates, by the way they are managing their campaign, show they have not given the Golden Festival through study. Surely every candidate in the campaign knows at least a half dozen people; have a half dozen friends who are not readers of The West Virginia. These candidates could easily enroll these six friends for a year's subscription no doubt. This would mean over one hundred thousand votes and these subscriptions could be gathered up by any contestant on the list in half an hour. Figure the thing out for yourself. One yearly subscription to The West Virginian counts fifteen thousand votes. Figure again how long it would take you; how much energy you would have to expend to secure fifteen thousand votes by clipping coupons.

If you are interested in the campaign yourself it is supposed that you entered to win. If you were nominated by a friend that friend nominated you because he thought you stood head and shoulders in ambition above every other friend he knew. He nominated you because he himself saw the opportunity and wanted to do you a favor. He thought you would appreciate that favor enough to do your best. Why, when you have an opportunity facing you like this, will you allow procrastination to ruin you? Why will you put off until tomorrow to do what you should do today? As you run your campaign, so will the election go out among your acquaintances of a life well ordered or a life carelessly lived. Your hopes, your ambitions are reflected in your campaign. You win only if you are willing. You will lose without an effort. Put a punch in your ambition.

Not Too Late to Enter
It is not by any means too late to enter the campaign. In reality, the Golden Festival is just starting. Clip the coupons, vote them in the proper series, and you can be at the head of the list without an appreciable effort. It is no more an effort to win the $1000 than it is to draw your breath.

The Awards.
The rewards in this Great Golden Festival are all in gold. There are ten awards of definite value as follows: One award of $1,000 in gold, which is to be given to the person procuring the most votes in the whole campaign. One award of $500 to be given to the person obtaining the second highest number of votes. Then there are two awards of $200 in gold; two awards of $100 in gold; two awards of $50 in gold and two awards of $25 each in gold. In addition to this fortune, every one else who takes an active part in this Golden Festival and remains until the final day—April 14th—will receive a commission of 10 per cent, providing he does not earn one of the above awards. So you see that everyone earns something.

There is no possible chance for anyone to lose. Many persons who have been out of employment will enter this campaign. Many married people will enter in order to get a little extra income during their spare hours, to offset the present high prices, assured that their ambition will be definitely rewarded. Many young men will enter and make an effort to earn the thousand to take a college course, some to start a business of their own, and others for special training. There will be those who have thoughts of wedding bells. The thousand will feather their nest. To have a definite desire in life, is to enter this Great Golden Festival of The West Virginian.

How to Enter.
There is nothing hard to understand about entering, or, in fact, winning.

YES, COBB SCORED! BILL EVANS GIVES CORRECT SOLUTION TO WEST VIRGINIAN'S GREAT PROBLEM

COBB HITS FOUL FLY THAT IS CAUGHT, BUT CATCHER TIPS HIS BAT WHICH ENTITLES COBB TO FIRST. ALTHOUGH CAUGHT OFF FIRST COBB WAS GRANTED SECOND BECAUSE THE PITCHER MADE HIM THROW TO SECOND. SHORTSTOP TRIPPED COBB, ENTITLING HIM TO THIRD. COBB WAS CAUGHT AT THE PLATE, BUT THE CATCHER WAS STANDING OUTSIDE HIS LINES, CAUSING HIM TO BALK AND ALLOWING SCORE.

Billy Evans' Great Baseball Problem

BY BILLY EVANS. (World's Greatest Umpire.)
In a game between Detroit and Washington, Ty Cobb is at bat.

Can Cobb reach first base on a foul fly that is caught, then score a run, although in his attempts to advance to the plate he is apparently retired at three succeeding bases, no assistance being rendered by any other batsmen or runner?

If so, tell how.
The solution must tell how he reaches first base on a foul fly that is caught and describe his trip around the bases.

There is a nomination blank on the other page, which counts for 5,000 votes when properly filled out and sent or brought to the Golden Festival Manager, Room 209 Jacobs Building. Fill this blank out and send it in, and the Campaign Manager will be glad to explain all the little details of this golden gift of fortune. As soon as you have nominated yourself, or been nominated by a friend, you will need to start saving the vote coupons which will appear in The West Virginian starting Wednesday. You should ask your friends and acquaintances to save these coupons for you. In addition to these coupons, all paid subscriptions to The West Virginian will count for votes for you, according to the schedule printed below.

Ask all the people you know to subscribe for The West Virginian with you, then collect their money right on the spot, and bring it to the Campaign Manager and he will give you votes for it, which will be good any time during the campaign. The Campaign Manager also has at his office some special receipt books and vote blanks for your convenience. These are all free. Call or write and he will see that you are supplied with all that you can use to advantage. In fact, there is not a single cent of expense to you. You can enter and win the $1,000 in gold without the outlay of a single penny if you so will it.

The rules of the Golden Festival follow. These rules will be strictly enforced:

Rules and Conditions
Any white man, woman, boy or girl of good reputation residing in the city of Fairmont or any outside territory in which The West Virginian circulates or may circulate, may become a candidate.

No employe of The West Virginian or member of his immediate family is eligible.
Candidates may nominate themselves or be nominated by friends without any cost.

The name of a person who places a candidate in nomination will not be divulged under any circumstances.
The Campaign Manager reserves the right to reject any nomination without giving any reason for doing so.

Votes are obtained either by being clipped from The West Virginian or by procuring paid subscriptions.
Votes cannot be transferred or purchased. They must either be clipped from The West Virginian or secured by special ballots issued on paid subscriptions.

In the event of a typographical error it is understood that neither The West Virginian or the Campaign Manager shall be held responsible except to make the necessary correction on discovery of the same.

Subscriptions may be procured anywhere. All subscriptions must be paid in order to vote.

Every candidate in the Campaign has an equal chance of winning either the $1000 in gold or the $500 in gold or any other award on the list. Candidates compete only against the candidates in their own district for the district awards.

In the event of a tie, awards tied for will be divided equally.

The Campaign Manager reserves the right to make any ruling which may be, in his opinion, necessary, without giving any reason for doing so.

The Campaign Manager reserves the right to eject any candidate from the campaign at any time if after being given due warning such candidate continues to violate any rules of the campaign, or to circulate any unfounded rumors which may tend to mislead the public or the other contestants.

In such case votes will be cancelled.
The Campaign Manager will decide all questions which may arise during the course of the campaign and his decision must be final. Candidates entering this contest thereby agree to abide by the rules of the campaign and all rulings which the Manager may make.

Any candidate once nominated, and not wishing to continue in the Golden Festival must notify the Campaign Manager in writing within five days after the first appearance of such name on the vote list.

No money will be accepted for votes under any circumstances unless accompanied by a bona fide subscription to The West Virginian.

The Campaign is now open. It will close Saturday, April 14th, at 6 o'clock in the evening.

NO NEED TO FEAR BALDNESS

Here's a Good Way to Stop Loss of Hair and Start New Hair Growth.

If your hair is falling or thinning out, don't wait another day, but go to the Mountain City Drug Company and get a bottle of Parisian Sage, the truly efficient hair grower.
Don't say: "It's the same old story; I've heard it before," but try a bottle at their risk. They guarantee Parisian Sage to grow hair, to stop falling hair, to cure dandruff and stop scalp itch, or money back.
Parisian Sage contains just the elements needed to properly invigorate and nourish the hair roots. It's a prime favorite with discriminating ladies because it makes the hair soft, bright, and appear twice as abundant.
Parisian Sage is inexpensive and easily obtainable at all drug stores.

HERE'S THE SOLUTION!

Catcher tips Cobb's bat as he hits foul fly which is caught by first baseman, creating an interference which entitles Cobb to first.

Cobb is caught napping off first and thrown out at second by the pitcher, but the umpire calls a balk on the pitcher, entitling Cobb to second.

Cobb attempts to steal third, but the shortstop trips him as he passes, causing him to be thrown out by the catcher, but he is allowed the base on account of interference by the shortstop.

The catcher while standing outside lines of his position when the pitcher delivers the ball receives same and touches out Cobb who is attempting to steal home.

But by standing outside of his lines the catcher caused the pitcher to make a balk in delivering the ball and Cobb is permitted to score.

Evening Chat

A little bit o' kindness shown, Comes back to you and me, Over the years that may have flown, 'E'en to eternity.
And though the way is dark betimes, The sun light WILL come through, And lighten, splendidly, the vale.
That we are travelin' through— A little bit of kindness shown, Gives credit up above, And pleases yer good Master's heart, O' tenderness an love— A little bit o' kindness shown, While ve are here below, Will multiply ten thousand times, Up where yer goin' to go— A little bit o' kindness shown, Will help ye reach yer goal, And be a blessin' to yer self, And to some other soul.
THE DEACON.

Heard this morning in the dark: "Quick mother! Bring the candle, I've been washing my face in baby's bath tub!"
"Turn on a little more gas, I can't tell my ham from my eggs!"
"Fer Gosh sake Bill, light another mech. Here we are on East Park avenue instead of Main street."
"Turn up the lamp a little more, this is my shirt I'm trying to climb into instead of my pantaloons."
"Mother, can't God do anything with the Traction Company for making it dark this morning?"
"Harriet! see whose husband is sitting at the other side of the table!"

A GREAT MEDICINE

That most successful of all remedies for woman's ailments, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, owes its origin to a botanic recipe which came into the possession of Lydia E. Pinkham about fifty years ago.
This recipe had proved so effective in the practice of a skilled physician that Mrs. Pinkham procured the herbs and steeped and prepared them in true old-time fashion on her kitchen stove for her friends and neighbors who suffered from woman's ailments. The fame of the virtues of this wonderful medicine spread, until it is today recognized as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

Druggists Know a Good Medicine

Ten years ago we commenced selling Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and during our entire experience we cannot recall a single instance where a customer was dissatisfied with the results obtained from its use; all of them speak in the highest terms. We know Swamp-Root is a splendid preparation else it would not enjoy such a steady, reliable sale.
Very truly yours, HENLEY & HENLEY, Druggists, Henley's Drug Store, Lakeland, Florida, July 18, 1916.

Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Prove What Swamp Root Will Do For You. Send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample size bottle. It will convince anyone, but you will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the West Virginian. Regular fifty-cent bottle and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

will be to teach practical salesmanship in all of its phases. The lectures will be along broad lines and will enable the salesmen to return home and apply new ideas to the various kinds of selling in their respective stores. The curriculum for ten days will consist chiefly of applied principles of salesmanship. In order that the men may get the experience of some of the lead-

"What d'ye think of this old boy? He's been standing round here doing nothing so long that I thought I'd put him to work. He oughtn't to mind, though, 'cause Chieftain is named after him and it's darned good stuff. I use it on Dad's shoes all the time and he swears by it. (So long, old Standing Bull, here comes the storkeeper after me!)"

CHIEFTAIN SHOE DRESSINGS

The cigar store Indian is about out of date. 'Twas only a sign of a place to buy something. Chieftain is now a sign of something to have—a good shine—good shoes—good appearance. See that you have Chieftain Polish in your home.

This Simple Laxative A Household Necessity

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin SHOULD HAVE A PLACE IN EVERY HOME.

Constipation, or inaction of the bowels, a condition that nearly every one experiences with more or less frequency, is the direct cause of much disease. When the bowels become clogged with refuse from the stomach, foul gases and poisons are generated, and unless the congestion is quickly relieved the system becomes weakened and most susceptible to attack.

Some Difference.
When a little friend of mine was three and one-half years old his father asked him what he wanted to be when he grew up. He replied quickly: "A man." "Well," said his father, "what's the difference between a boy and a man?" The little fellow was puzzled for a moment, finally he said, "spoke."—Cleveland Leader.

Various remedies to relieve constipation are prescribed, but many of these contain cathartic or purgative agents that are harsh and violent in their action and shock to the system. The most effective remedy is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that is sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.
The Hon. John D. Keister of Brandywine, W. Va., who has represented his district in the State Legislature for six years writes that he uses Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and finds it a splendid laxative, easy to take and mild, yet positive in its action, and that it should be in every household for use when needed.
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists in all parts of the United States and costs only fifty cents a bottle. It contains no opiate or narcotic drug, does not gripe and is recommended as a family laxative, mild enough for the tiniest baby, yet sufficiently powerful to act easily on the strongest constitution.

To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle free of charge can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.
