Grain and Produce.

CHICAGO, May 18.—Wheat sold rapidly downward in value yesterday, hurried by reports that the United States government had requested Great Britain and her European Allies to relinquish immense holdings of Board of Trade future delivery wheat contracts purchased here and in other leading domestic grain centers. At the farthest point of the break prices were off as much as 16c, but something of a reaction followed and the close, although unsettled, was at 8c to 10c net decline, with July at $2.10 and September at $1.99. Other leading staples all shared in the setback, corn finishing 1c to 2 1/2c down, oats lower, 3/4c to 1c, and provisions 1 1/2c to 1 3/4c.

New York

NEW YORK, May 18.—On transactions slightly in excess of 1,000,000 shares, yesterday's market supplemented for the most part its gains of the previous session. Removal of some of the uncertainties in the foreign situation and further indications of the assured success of the government's bond offering constituted the chief moving factors.

Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, May 18.—On the Pittsburgh Stock Exchange trading continued light, but the market was decidedly firmer, and not the least favorable feature was the absence of selling pressure. Westinghouse Electric followed the movement in New York and closed at a net gain of 2 1/2 points. A small lot of Westinghouse Machine sold at 50, an advance of $15 a share over the last previous sale. Air Brake was steady at 113 to 113 1/4.

Oil and Gas.

The poor showing in the way of new production in the Eastern fields is not due to lethargy on the part of oil operators. The only wonder is that there is so much doing and the reward for energy and capital invested so small. To make matters still worse there is no prospect for improvement in the near future. Nearly all of the new work is located in old territory and light pumps are the best that can be hoped for.

On Laurel run, Murphy district, Ritchie county, W. Va., the Hope Natural Gas company has drilled a test on the J. H. Leiving farm through the salt sand. It is good for five barrels a day. In the Hughes river pool, Clay district, the Imperial Oil and Gas Products company completed in the Big Injun sand No. 4 on the C. M. Darnold farm. It is a small gasser.

Near Everett, postoffice, Union district, Tyler county, Thorn & Co. drilled a test on the Frank Ponner farm through the Cow Run sand. It is a duster and will be abandoned. In Union district, Wood county, the South Penn Oil company drilled No. 12 on the Elvira Richardson farm through the second Cow Run sand. It is dry.

Close to the Uphus county line in Gilmer county, the Hope Natural Gas company has made a location at Avondale and is getting in a rig and drilling material. This is purely a wildcat, located far from production. Toledo parties have taken up a large block of leases near Ten Mile, located in Washington district, and in the near future will start several test wells. In the Ohio run pool, Marion county, all of the wells have dropped below 50 barrels a day, except F. W. Bartlett's No. 3 on the Z. E. Batson farm, which is still producing 65 barrels a day.

BITS OF STATE NEWS

West Virginia University has finally fell in a more forcible way than athletic authorities of the institution at first believed possible the effects of the preparations for war that are going forward. In addition to the various cancellations of the baseball schedule including the date with Leland Stanford University here Saturday, May 19, the track team has been forced to abandon its proposed meet with the University of Pittsburgh scheduled for June 2 here and negotiations are under way looking to the cancellation of the meet arranged with West Virginia Wesleyan College here on Memorial Day. The city of Morgantown is to have a patriotic celebration on May 30 which interferes with the proposed meet, so that the event will at least be shifted and perhaps called off altogether.

The annual West Virginia Christian Endeavor convention will be held in Martinsburg June 28, 29 and 30, regardless of the postponement of the International Christian Endeavor convention which was to have been held in New York in July, because of the war. The international trustees unanimously decided to postpone the New York convention near or during the war, but recommended that state conventions be held as planned.

Among the prominent speakers announced for the West Virginia convention are Dr. Martin, president of the British Christian Endeavor Union; Dr. August Holmes, of Philadelphia; Dr. Edward Haines Kietler, of Baltimore, and Charles F. Evans, field secretary of the extension committee of the South.

A West Virginia Epworth League Institute will be held at Buckhannon August 4 to 12, it was announced here this week. The Institute will be one of several to be held in different sections of the United States under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Your Own Garden

By A GARDENER.
Garden vegetables may be divided into two classes—"warm temperature" and "cold temperature" varieties. When peach and plum trees are in blossom, they say, it is time to sow in the open ground such seeds as lettuce, radish, parsley, beets, turnips, cabbage, carrots, peas and onions.

Wrinkled peas should not be planted until later, as they are more liable to rot in cool ground than are smooth varieties.

When apple trees bloom, it is time to plant the heat-loving vegetables such as cucumbers, beans, sweet corn, pumpkin and squash.

The quickest crop to mature is radish. Lettuce, turnips, peas, beets and beans usually require from 6 to 9 weeks, corn from 11 to 13 weeks, and potatoes from 15 to 16 weeks.

Cucumbers, squashes and melons require rich soil, and the cucumber profits by the application of fresh horse manure. Sheep manure will hurry plants along more rapidly than most chemical fertilizers.

I have found that cut worms will seldom bother cucumbers if an onion is planted in the middle of the hill.

Lettuce and cabbage require more water than any other garden stuff. Soft water is preferable to hard water.

Every town has something to boast of. Here is what a Sutton citizen thinks of his home according to the Braxton Democrat. "Bob Hall, the shoemaker, says that Sutton has more pretty women and good whistlers than any town in the world, and that he will back it up with $50 to any town that can produce as many, that is, according to population. Other towns are in view to get into the contest.

Some fellows are just bound to get into the army. Read the following from the Spencer Times Record. "John Bolton, son of Dr. and Mrs. Jno. O. Bolton, after having been rejected as an applicant for enlistment in the regular army, finally broke into the service through medical corps, which he joined at Parkersburg on his way back to Wesleyan College after a recent visit here. From Parkersburg he was sent to Columbus, whence, in company with about 60 other youths, he was sent to Fort Moultrie, just outside the harbor of Charleston, South Carolina. The medical corps recruits will likely be among the first to be sent to France and young Bolton would not be surprised to go at any time. Fort Moultrie was successfully defended by Col. William Moultrie on June 28th, 1776, when the British fleet and a land force under Sir Henry Clinton attempted to take it. This victory for the Revolutionary forces kept the British out of the Southern Colonies for more than two years and it was not until the surrender of Charleston on May 7th, 1780, that the defenders of Fort Moultrie were finally forced to capitulate."
