

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Constable-Watts
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Watts of Madison street announce the marriage of their daughter, Beatie, to G. S. Constable, of this city, which event was solemnized yesterday in Wheeling, Rev. Mr. Townsend of the First M. E. church officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Constable will take up their residence on Main street.

Lough-Martia
Fleming G. Lough, of Farmington, and Miss Grace Martin, of this city, were united in marriage here on Saturday at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. C. E. Goodwin, of the First M. E. church.

Taylor-Riggelman.
George Taylor, of Carolina Mines, and Miss Beatrice Riggelman, daughter of W. J. Riggelman, state mine inspector, being located at Fairmont, were married this morning at 5 o'clock by Rev. C. E. Goodwin.
The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, No. 408 Gaston avenue. The ring service was used and the couple were unattended. After a ten days' trip to Pittsburgh and points in Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will reside at Carolina Mines. Mr. Taylor is a policeman at Carolina Mines.

Leonard-Everett
Cards have been received here from Huntington Park, California, announcing the marriage of Sergeant George Dore Leonard, of Los Angeles, Cal., formerly of this city, and Miss Julia D. Everett which event was solemnized in Huntington Park on Saturday, November 17. Sergeant Leonard is a son of George F. Leonard, formerly of this city and is a nephew of Mrs. Emma Obley Johnson. He is a member of the 9th Company, Coast Artillery, at Fort McArthur, California.

Announcement Cards Received
Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of Miss Edna Mary Kidd to Robert Edward Bowie, Wheeling Monday.

Meeting Postponed.
The meeting of the Young Married Women planned to be held today at the home of Mrs. Arthur Brown on the East Side has been postponed until further notice.

Bazaar.
The ladies of the Central Christian church will hold their Christmas bazaar in the new Commercial building in Cleveland avenue on Friday and Saturday of this week. Aprons, both plain and fancy, children's clothing with hand made trimmings, a large assortment of hand made handkerchiefs, quilts, rugs and many Christmas novelties will be offered at this sale.

Announcing Marriage
Cards have been received here from Charleston, W. Va., announcing the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Callahan to Lieutenant Montague Bundson, of the U. S. Navy. The announcement was issued by Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Callahan, Callahan, parents of Mrs. Bundson. The marriage was solemnized several weeks ago.

Smeltzer-Ward.
Miss Frances Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ward, of this city, and Lieutenant John L. Smeltzer, of Charleston, W. Va., were united in marriage this morning in Meridian. Miss Ward left here Monday for Meridian and the ceremony was performed on her arrival at the rectory of the Episcopal church. Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Harness, formerly of this city, now stationed at Camp Shelby, witnessed the ceremony. The bride wore a coat-suit of Peking blue velour with hat, gloves and shoes of grey. She wore a corsage bouquet of violets and sweetheart roses. Lieutenant and Mrs. Smeltzer left Meridian after the ceremony for New Orleans where they will spend their honeymoon and at its conclusion will reside at Camp Shelby where Lieutenant Smeltzer has constructed a bungalow on the camp grounds.

The announcement of the marriage of Lieutenant Smeltzer and Miss Ward will be learned with interest by their friends here. The marriage is the culmination of romance which began this summer when Lieutenant Smeltzer was lo-ated at the Mobilization camp with the First West Virginia Regiment. Since that time he has been transferred to the 11th Regiment U. S. Army Engineers. Miss Ward, now Mrs. Smeltzer, is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward and is a popular member of the younger society set and a young woman of unusual charm. Lieutenant Smeltzer was engaged in the practice of dentistry in Charleston prior to joining the army.

MONONGAH

Belgium Relief.
Next Sunday morning, the children of the Baptist Sunday school will vote on sending the money, usually used to purchase their annual Christmas treat to the homeless children in Belgium. A decision to this effect has been made by the officers and teachers of the Sunday school, but the children will decide the matter for themselves.

Pie Social.
At the Thoburn school this evening the pupils and teachers will give a pie social, the proceeds of which will be used as a benefit of the school. Besides the pie social, several other interesting events have been planned.

Home for Christmas.
A letter received from Bule Boydoh, one of the Monongah boys at Camp Lee, states that Boydoh and Pat McDonnell are both planning to come home for Christmas. In case they get to spend Christmas at home, they will be here for five days.
