

MORGANTOWN CALL POSTPONED HERE

Men Who Have Gone to W. V. U. Not to Go Until November 5.

Orders have been received by the Fairmont draft board that the call for Morgantown on October 25, has been postponed until November 5. While nothing specific is mentioned it is presumed by the draft board that the "flu" epidemic is responsible for the postponement.

Three young men leave tonight for Camp Alfred Wall, Little Silver, N. J., to enter the radio service of the signal corps. They are: Harry Evans Watkins, Edwin C. Jones, Jr., and Joseph Thomas Hodges. The young men were trained in the radio school conducted at the "Y" by the federal vocational school board and the inductions are voluntary.

Tomorrow George H. McCrory will leave for Camp Holt, Gettysburg, Pa., to enter the tank corps.

There is a demand for colored young men in the student army training corps at West Virginia University, Morgantown.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Funeral of Dr. Sands.

The body of Dr. William Hupp Sands, whose tragic death occurred on Monday, was taken to Millersville, Md., last night and was laid to rest today in St. Stephens church yard, where the bodies of a number of his ancestors also rest.

The funeral party with the body left last night at 9:44 for Millersville the party including Mrs. Sands and son, William Hupp, Jr., Mrs. W. T. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Sands, of Richmond, Va.; Lawrence E. Sands, of Pittsburgh; Harry Sands, of Wheeling; the Rev. Jacob Brittingham, of Wheeling, and E. M. and H. W. Showalter, of this city.

Funeral services to be open were held yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from his late residence in Fairmont avenue at which a large number of people were present including many from out of the city and surrounding country.

The Rev. Charles Baird Mitchell, of Christ church, conducted the rites, and was assisted by the Rev. Brittingham, the latter a close friend of the family, and the Rev. A. H. Beavin, of Cumberland, Md., formerly rector at Christ church. A quartet composed of Mrs. H. C. Falcooper, Mrs. Forrest Fankhauser, John H. Rock and L. H. Randall rendered two selections, "Abide With Me" and "Asleep in Jesus."

The casket in which the body lay was entirely surrounded with a profusion of floral offerings entirely filling the room. The flowers included offerings from various organizations with which Dr. Sands was affiliated, as well as many from individuals.

Kinney Funeral Tomorrow.

Funeral services over the body of Mrs. Mary E. Kinney, whose death occurred yesterday at Cook hospital, where she had been a patient for several days, will be held on Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. Jim Bright at Bell Run, the deceased having also been a resident of that section. The Rev. C. D. Mitchell, of the Central Christian church, will conduct the services and the body will be interred in Woodlawn cemetery by Undertaker Cunningham.

Mrs. Kinney is survived by her husband, employed at the new power plant of the M. V. Traction company, and seven children. She was aged 33 years.

Clara Matthews.

Clara Matthews, aged 14 months, daughter of Robert Matthews, of Owens street, died this morning from influenza. The body will be interred in the Fride cemetery on Bunner's ridge tomorrow morning. The funeral party will leave the residence at 9:30 o'clock in charge of Undertaker Jenkins.

Charles Moore.

The body of Charles Moore, who died yesterday at Camp Lee, Va., from influenza, was brought to Mannington for interment. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Moore, of that place.

Two Flu Deaths in One Family.

This afternoon two children of Louise Urso, of Kingmont, were interred in Holy Cross cemetery in this city, the death of Joseph having occurred yesterday and that of an eight months old child occurring last night, both from influenza. Urso himself is a patient in the Fairmont emergency hospital with the same disease and his wife and another child aged 2 years, are both ill at their home in Kingmont. The child, it is stated, can not survive long. The bodies of the two children were interred under the direction of Undertaker R. C. Jones.

Mrs. Jerry Bartholow.

The body of Mrs. Jerry Bartholow whose death occurred Tuesday at her home on the Grafton road, East Side, after an illness from pneumonia, was laid to rest in Maple Grove cemetery. Mr. Bartholow is also ill from influenza and was unable to attend the services which were conducted at the grave of his wife by the Rev. O. C. Phillips.

Mrs. Dessie V. Fetty.

Mrs. Dessie Vandergift Fetty, aged 41 years, wife of Olive Fetty, died today shortly after noon at her home in Maple avenue after a week's illness from influenza. She was a daughter of Gideon and Mary West Fetty and is survived by her husband and five children, namely, Lewis, Fred, Gilbert, Willie and Fay. Three children are deceased. A brother, Grant, Vandergrift, and four half brothers, namely, Gilbert, Hays and Albert and one sister, Mrs. Hays, also survive.

GREAT DAY FOR FLAG WAVING WHEN THE YANKS COME

These youngsters of the liberated village of St. Mihel are having more fun than a Fourth of July, for the American army has just driven out the Hunns, the hospital is decorated for a holiday and Granddaddy Somebody is just taking down the German sign over the door.

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. Smith Give Party.

To Mrs. Winston T. Smith, of Mannington, W. Va., is due the credit for the decidedly unique and wholly delightful idea of a "consolation party." Owing to the quarantine at Camp Johnston, several young people were disappointed about a supper party to have been given at camp last evening, so Mrs. Smith, whose husband is stationed in the officers' school in the Remount, gave a wonderful dinner for four of her friends.

The table was arranged in the raised portion of the Mason hotel dining room, and a most delicious course dinner was served. Following dinner, each guest was presented with a dainty piece of lingerie as a memento of the occasion. Mrs. Smith's guests at this clever little party included Mrs. Chandler H. Foster, Miss Margaret Nelson, Miss Gladys Baker and Miss Helen Ingram.

Mrs. Smith is living at the Hotel Mason while Mr. Smith is stationed at camp, and has made countless friends in Jacksonville. — Florida Metropolis, Jacksonville.

PORTRAIT OF AMERICAN GEN. TASKER H. BLISS

This portrait of General Tasker H. Bliss—its author, Dana Pond, in the foreground—was painted before the famous Versailles picture of Napoleon at the Battle of Wagram, a portion of which appears in this photograph. Pond is the first artist permitted to paint in the great halls of the palace of Versailles and this is but one of a series of war portraits to be done there.

Back on the Job—Miss Letitia Ryan returned this morning to her duties at the postoffice after an absence of ten days with the influenza. Miss Ryan says she doesn't think very much of the flu.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 27

ISAAC'S MARRIAGE TO REBECCA

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 24. GOLDEN TEXT—Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: . . . So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man.—Proverbs 3:3-4. DEVOTIONAL READING—Ephesians 5:2-3; I Thessalonians 4:13-18. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL FOR TEACHERS—Genesis 23:19-24; Proverbs 11:20-31.

1. Abraham's Solicitude for a Wife for Isaac (vv. 1-9).

He knew that Isaac's success in life would much depend upon what kind of a wife he should have. Man's welfare in this life and that to come largely depends upon his wife. For Isaac to have an idolatrous, Canaanitish wife would be fatal to his posterity, would subvert the plan of God as expressed in his covenant with Abraham. It would have been perilous to Isaac himself. To have married a woman in that land would have made him in a sense an heir to the land through marriage, and would have tended to divert his mind from the heirship through the covenant promise.

1. The Servant's Oath (vv. 2-4). Abraham committed to his trusted servant the matter of securing a wife for Isaac; therefore, he made him swear that he would go to Abraham's country and kindred to get a wife for him. He doubtless regarded his servant more competent to select a wife than Isaac was to select one for himself.

2. The Extent of the Servant's Responsibility (vv. 5, 9). Before the servant would take the oath he must have clearly defined the extent of his responsibility. If the woman would refuse the invitation, the servant would be clear of responsibility. The minister's obligation ends when he has earnestly and intelligently made known to sinners the will of God.

3. The Servant's Helper (v. 8). Abraham assured him that God would send his angel to make the mission successful. The servant found this to be true. God sends his Holy Spirit to make the message of the minister successful.

11. The Servant's Obedience (vv. 10-49).

1. He Took Ten Camels (v. 10). These were to carry presents to the bride, and to conduct her and her companion back to his master.

2. His Prayer for Guidance (vv. 12-13). He asked that the Lord would guide him to the woman whom he had chosen for Isaac. Earnest prayer for guidance should be made in the selection of a wife.

3. His Prayer Answered (vv. 15-27). Before he had done praying, the answer was realized to be in the process of fulfillment. The answer was according to the request, even in the matter of fulfillment. God does definitely answer prayer.

4. The Servant's Message (vv. 33-49). The Lord had prospered the old servant's way. He now was face to face with Rebecca. Supper was ready, but the delivery of his message was more important to him than eating when he was hungry. He said, "I will not eat till I have said my errand." Good were it if all ministers were as much interested in delivering the good news in Christ. (1) His master was rich (v. 35). God the Heavenly Father is rich. The silver and gold and the cattle upon a thousand hills are all his. (2) All his riches have been given to his son (v. 36). All the riches of heaven, God the Father has given to Jesus Christ, his son. (3) Opportunity was given Rebecca to become the wife of Isaac (v. 49). He not only gave the opportunity, but he urged her to accept the invitation.

111. Rebecca's Relatives Begging for Postponement of Action (v. 53). They did not object to her going sometime, but they desired that she postpone action for a time. What folly to remain and water sheep when she had the opportunity to become the bride of a rich man's son.

What folly for sinners to remain servants in the world when they have the privilege of becoming the bride of Christ.

IV. Rebecca's Glorious Decision. (v. 55).

When the decision was referred to Rebecca she said, "I will go." Good judgment would not allow her to refuse nor delay.

V. The Meeting of Isaac and Rebecca (vv. 64-67).

Isaac was waiting for the return of the servant with the woman who was to be his wife. Isaac was joined to her in marriage, loved her, and was comforted in her after his mother's death.

Spirit of Christ.

The longer you read the Bible the more you will like it; it will grow sweeter and sweeter; the more you get into the spirit of it the more you will get into the spirit of Christ.—Romaine.

The Cross is Peace.

The Cross is peace, and that sums up the past; The Cross is joy and that my future sums; I need but simple faith, faith that shall last; The hope that liberates and overcomes.

800 WOMEN NEEDED BY SALVATION ARMY

Commander Evangeline Booth Says War Relief Work Must Be Extended.

Commander Evangeline Booth, leader of the Salvation Army in the United States, has been suddenly called upon to furnish 800 additional war work women for France. The request is contained in a report just received by her from Col. William A. Barker of the Salvationist forces, whom she sent to France over a year ago to establish hutment and general war relief work with the American troops.

"We will do all we can to fill this demand," said Commander Booth when discussing the approaching United War Work Campaign, "and the need itself should impress the American public all the more with the absolute necessity for sustaining and enlarging the war relief work of the seven organizations, besides the noble Red Cross, now merged for a drive for funds. Each is a vital cog in a vast machine for human relief, and each is indispensable, serving its particular elements in its own way.

"The Salvation Army was born in hardship, reared in privation and trained to every phase of human misery and how to cope with it. Perhaps that accounts in some degree for the success our work has attained and for which we are thankful.

"We are of the common people, and we toil on a practical basis. We learned the lesson of how to do it in the Boer war, when we stood at the side of Britain's troops and weathered it out to the end. We have been tried by fire, and the mothers and fathers of America, as in other countries, trust the Salvation Army to do for their men if they but had the chance.

"With 1,210 trained workers at the front, operating from 420 huts and lounges, the Salvation Army is doing, has done and will continue to do its best for the cause of humanity and Liberty."

BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS SUPPLIED BY A. L. A.

English Camp Shows the Good Work of That Organization for Our Boys.

Something like 10,000 pieces of stationery are distributed daily among 4,000 enlisted men by Dr. A. L. A. Baker of Jola, Kan., as librarian at the Y. M. C. A. Writing tent, Woodley Rest Camp of the American Expeditionary Forces in southern England. The number of troops at this camp varies from 3,000 to 5,000.

This single detail indicates why it is necessary for the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council and K. of C. War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board and Salvation Army have to furnish 100,000 sheets a month for soldiers' letters.

Hundreds of books are being sent to the American Expeditionary Forces in France by the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council and K. of C. War Camp Community Service.
