

IN THE FRONT ROW

HEADLINERS TONIGHT. Hippodrome... Billy Malone... Photoplays... Nelson... Alias Mike Moran... Dixie... A Midnight Romance... Princess... Leave it to Susan

THIS is the fifth week of the Billy Malone engagement at the Hippodrome and if the week keeps the pace with its predecessors it will show an increased interest in the clever company and the style of performance they have been giving.

There is a distinctively human quality in the role played by Wallace Reid at the Nelson today which appeals strongly to the spectator sympathy.

Madge Kennedy starring in her last picture has picked out some lonesome place for location, the Mojave desert furnishing most of the cities.

First of all she is seen as the daughter of the capitalist who, with his family, journeys west on business.

Miss Eleanor Blanche Barnes is moving her studio tomorrow from the Barnes building on Main street to the Odd Fellows hall.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Musgrave and the Misses Pearl Griffith and Dorothy Holt have returned from a motor trip which included visits to Unlontown, Pa., and Washington, Pa.

Major George Pullen Peed, who is stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas, as a member of the U. S. regular army, was recently presented with a gold medal of honor by the French government for distinguished service over seas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnston and children, Martha and Guerin and Miss Amy Ingalls left yesterday for a ten days' motor trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hennen, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hennen and children, Tom and Miss Mary, and Mrs. Martha Davis motored to Morgantown yesterday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mestreat.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Kunst entertained several of the local physicians at luncheon on Saturday, honoring Dr. H. C. Davis, of Baltimore, a well known specialist, who was in the city on professional business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Boydston, Dr. and Mrs. Walter J. Boydston and Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Ross returned last evening from a several weeks' western trip.
