

LATE DEVELOPMENTS IN THE LOCAL SPORT WORLD

IT WAS EASY FOR MONONGAH GLASS

League Leaders Took Nine Nothing Victory Last Evening.

Poe's offerings last night were piled on the Monongah Glass sluggers, and with a choice collection of ten or more back of him, gave Monongah a 9-0 victory over the Owens team. Burns, for Monongah, was touched up for three hits, which resulted on two different occasions in Owens men getting to third, when the scoring tap was needed was not, as the poets say, forthcoming.

Tonight the West Virginians and Broaders tie up and the printers set all set for that burst that is going to put them in fourth place and the 11th division.

Labor Day Games at Jamison No. 8

Two real good games of baseball were expected at Jamison No. 8 on Labor Day when the Kingmont baseball team comes over to Jamison No. 8 to participate in the Labor Day celebration there.

Jamison No. 8 has not played many times this season but they have certainly made a fine showing in every game they have played. Earlier in the season, the Jamison team trimmed a first team from Clarksburg and only a few weeks ago, the Jamison team beat the Kingmont nine by a large score on the Kingmont diamond.

HOULT

Westerners Like Fairmont.

W. F. Hoult, of Chrisman, Ill., who with a neighbor, Mr. Tripplett, motored through in a big car for the Hoult Reunion, expressed himself as well pleased with the people and county hereabout, the only exception being our excusable roads, which he felt does not do us full justice, in an otherwise progressive state.

Mr. Hoult, who is president of the Hoult Reunion Association of Illinois and a direct descendant of the original Hoult, for which this place was named had not been in this state for 34 years.

These gentlemen were wonderfully pleased and surprised at the progressiveness and enterprise of Fairmont, saying it was by all odds the best town they had been in. Mr. Hoult's two daughters, Geneva and Naomi, who are in government service at Washington, were also here with their father.

In Honor of the Returned Soldiers.

Special services were held at the Hoult M. E. church last evening by the Pastor, Rev. McNemar, for the returned soldier boys of Hoult. In welcoming home the boys the pastor expressed the belief that the country was safe in the hands of the young men, who were willing to offer their lives for their country. Mr. Hoult of Illinois and Mayor Bowen had both promised to be present and speak but for some reason changed their plans. In their absence, some brief remarks were made by some local people. Rev. McNemar's record shows ten boys from Hoult, classified as follows:

Those seeing active service in the field of battle, Archie McElfresh, Brooks Durr and Robert Costello.

Those who got over to France, too late to get into battle, James McElfresh, Lloyd McElfresh, Clarence Bowman and Ross Satterfield.

Those in training camps in this country but failed to get over to France before the war ended, Robert McElfresh, Lieut. Olin Watkins, officers training camp.

In Student Army Training Corps at Morgantown, W. Va. University, Jessie Bowman, Roy Huffman, who in active service although enlisted from elsewhere came back to Hoult to resume civil life.

Rev. McNemar, expressed the belief that while we honor the boys, who have faced death, their should be no jealousies, nor should we differentiate between those and the boys just as brave and loyal, who failed to get into the fighting because the war ended before their training service was complete.

Archie McElfresh, the second division boy who re-enlisted, goes tomorrow to Akron, O. to visit his father, Frank McElfresh.

Echoes from the Reunion.

As a staff reporter covered the Hoult Reunion, we have given it no space. However so important an occasion could not but greatly affect the even current of social affairs here and it would be impossible to list all visitors in Hoult as a result.

Some of those we noted were: Mr. and Mrs. Millard Layman, of Uffington and Mrs. Hood, their daughter, of Rivesville, at Wm. H. Halls. Benson Jacobs and Amanda Technel, of Little Falls and Leslie Devault, of Catawba at Wm. Hoult's, Frank Tripplett and wife, lockmaster, from Lock No. 18; at C. R. Hall's John Wright and wife and daughter, Mrs. Hannah Woody of Enterprise at Jos. Sniders, Rev. C. H. Meredith, wife and son, E. E. Meredith, of Fairmont at D. E. Snider's, Mr. and Mrs. Gaskins of Monongah at Chas. Keller's; George Griffith, of Uffington, Ben Griffith and Miss Griffith, of Pennsylvania, Hattie and Rose Stanley of Piedmont, at Mrs. Dora Hoult's. Also others, noted from afar and visiting various homes were:—H. H. Sturm and wife, of Mannington, Jake Hoult, of Clarksburg, Misses Georgia Brown and Belle Thomas, of Clarksburg; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Freeman and daughter Catherine, of Benwood; Miss Minnie Freeman, of Bellaire; Harvey Steele and wife, of Little Falls; Harry Robinson, of Fairmont and Charles Robinson and wife, of Winchester, Va.; John Bowman, Mrs. Elizabeth Bowman, Miss Zannie Powell and Mrs. Perry Jenkins and daughter all of Little Falls; Mrs. Frances Brown, of Clinton Furnace, Monongalia Co. Clarence Bowman and sister, Mrs. Stanley Casteel, and children of Terra Alta, and many more persons whose names we failed to learn.
