

MANNINGTON

Buried Near Here.
The body of Mrs. Barbara E. Floyd, who died at Grant Town on Monday evening was brought to this city at one o'clock Wednesday and taken to Loconsport where interment was made in the Floyd cemetery, funeral services having been held at the home at Grant Town. The deceased is survived by four sons, Ezra, Jesse and Lindsey Floyd, of Grant Town, and Zach Floyd, of near Mannington, and by five daughters, Mrs. David Floyd and Mrs. Los Rogerson here; Mrs. Will Floyd and Mrs. (In Robinson, of Elversville, and Mrs. J. J. Mercer, of Dunkard Mill run. She was eighty-five years of age and had been a member of the Baptist church since childhood. The interment was in charge of Undertaker F. H. Huey.

Community Tree.
On Christmas Eve, December 24, at eight o'clock Mannington folks will gather around the Christmas tree on the lawn of Roy F. Alder's residence in Locust street where there will be community singing of Christmas carols and a sheet will be spread under the tree on which to receive presents for the needy. Even the smallest gifts will be welcomed and appreciated if only an orange, an apple or a potato, and all will be distributed among Mannington's deserving poor. The singing will be under the direction of Miss Helen Redmon and Sam F. Haborn.

Church Cancels Debt.
The members and friends of the First Baptist church held a talent social at the church on Wednesday evening to celebrate the lifting of a large debt which stood against the property. Rev. Arthur Gee, of Fairmont, former pastor of the church, was the principal speaker of the evening and in addition to Rev. M. W. Jennings the present pastor, who has been untiring in his efforts to free the church from debt, much credit is given to the women of the church for their efforts in earning a considerable portion of the money. The church which is one of the finest structures in Marion county is now entirely free from debt.

Special Xmas Services.
A large choir of the Methodist church has prepared choice Christmas music for the service next Sunday. In the morning the boys' choir will sing and the sermon will be on "Gifts for the Child Jesus." In the evening there will be four anthems, besides some solos, and a brief address on "No Room in the Inn." The Sunday school Christmas exercises will be on Tuesday evening, December 22, at 7:00 o'clock and a good program of music will be given. Santa Claus and his toy cabin will be there.
