

NEW ROCHELLE PLAN IS GOOD

Have Agreed There on Salaries for Teachers in the Schools.

New Rochelle, N. Y., has made the maximum salary for teachers in the elementary schools $2,100. For the school year 1920-1921 a special increase, ranging from $400 to $500, depending upon the experience and efficiency of the teacher, will be made. In the elementary schools next year no teacher now in service will receive less than $1,900. There will not be more than twenty teachers who have as low as $1,500. Nearly one-half will have $1,950. All further increases will be made to the salaries as they will be in September.

The initial salaries of newly-appointed teachers in the elementary schools will be from $1,400 to $1,700. In the high school the maximum for teachers has been made $2,700 for women and $3,000 for men. Each teacher now in the school will be given an increase for next year varying from $400 to $500.

The new salary schedule makes it possible to recognize teachers of more than ordinary success. The State Education Law requires that a minimum and maximum salary be fixed with at least eight annual increments.

By the New Rochelle plan the maximum salary in both the elementary and high school may be increased in case of exceptional merit by such an amount as may seem desirable. It is also provided that for special meritorious services or for extra duties the annual increment may be increased by such an amount as may seem advisable. In both cases these special increases are to be made only on the recommendation of the superintendent.

It is the aim of the New Rochelle school authorities to make salaries liberal enough to attract and to hold the best teachers to be had. In a year or two the present generous schedule is certain to be made still better.

It is to the credit of the city that this salary increase was made without the usual salary campaign. The teachers were asked to submit such a schedule of salaries as they thought equitable. The suggestions submitted by the teachers appeared so fair and reasonable that they were adopted with but few changes.

Sam R. Issues His Annual Cat Warning

Know all cats by "them which shall cast their greenish optics on this proclamation that Sam R. Nuzum, whose beautiful grounds surrounding his home on Locust avenue are known as "Bird Paradise," don't like you, d— you, and by cracky you had better not get caught ambling around his estate in search of a dainty breakfast on birds—or ambling around for any other reason, unless you desire to pass suddenly into that great and mysterious beyond from which place they sell no return tickets. Listen cats—you new cats in the community, we are not kidding you a bit about this. Sam R. means business and his trusty cat extinguisher has been oiled and shined until the barrel glistens like diamonds in the sun—and the shells are ready. Doubting us, consult the many widow cats in the community, whose wise Tom husbands thought they could put some thing over on Sam R. and pick a bird off in the early dawn or at twilight. They quickly learned at a fearful price that Sam R. is a regular Dave Crockett drawing aim on a cat.

The red birds are all ready on their nest, the robins are building, the thrush and the woodpecker, the cat bird and the flicker will soon be here—and Sam R. will give them protection.

Just the other morning he saw three cats on the forbidden ground. He spared their lives only because his annual proclamation had not been issued.

sued. It is issued now—so beware, beware.

And Sam R. wishes to greet cat owners out his way. He doesn't want to kill any person's pet cat. But he thinks as much of his birds as they do of their cats. Just keep your cats off his property and he will not harm. But if they step over the dead line—you won't even be invited to the funeral.

High Banquet Is On For Tonight

The high school football-basketball banquet will be held at the high school this evening at six o'clock. A fine menu will be prepared by the domestic science department. It is expected that about 30 will attend the banquet.

It is claimed that the term "hyphenated Americans" dates prior to the year 1876 when John Boyle O'Reilly applied it to a remnant of the old-time torism which objected to the nation-wide celebration which took place that year.
