Danger in New Coin.
The harpist was heaving and snorting with indignation. "Look at this story!" he cried, handing us a copy of the Fourth Estate. The story concerned the campaign for 2 1/2-cent pieces. "If they get this new coin minted," he moaned, "the concert managers are sure to offer it to harp soloists as a fee."—Musical America.

I Am For Men

I greet them in the evening after the day's work is done—
I turn their minds from business—
I soothe their tired nerves—I refresh their fagged bodies and brains. I quicken mirth and merriment—I stimulate their love for good things—I increase the pleasure of their home life—I enliven the monotony of dull evenings—I transmit the artistry of master musicians to untrained fingers—I kindle new enthusiasm—I impart new happiness—I animate new hopes, new life.

I AM THE "AUTOPIANO"—A Man's Piano! I am a perfect piano on which the children may take their lessons, but at the same time an instrument which the entire household may enjoy—especially the men.
