SOCIAL EVENTS

Engagement Announced. The engagement of Miss Florence B. Wilfong, daughter of Charles Wilfong, of Alexander Place, and John Edward Stevens of Philadelphia, formerly of this city, was announced at a prettily appointed tea at which Mrs. Lawrence M. Hennen was hostess.

Only once, however, did the man rouse himself to make another remark and that was to say that he would like to find a buyer for his car. He did not say why he wanted to sell the car, the rambler knew but said nothing.

Then he lapsed into silence as the rambler, seeking to start him on a more cheerful train of thought, spoke of the beauty of the country through which the road wound, of the birds and the flowers, and the gay parties seen on all sides enjoying the perfect day.

Deputy County Clerk Frank Foster stood leaning against a post at the corner of the Watson building about ten o'clock Saturday night, a look expressive of the deepest melancholy on his classic features.

Frank roused himself with an effort. "What," he asked, "has become of the guy who used to shed his coat and dare any four cops to take him down?"

"Trainsmaster's office," said E. Bartlett, T. M. of the B. & O., picking up the receiver. "Is this the trainsmaster's office?" asked a feminine voice.

"Yes, this is the trainsmaster speaking." "Is there a train to Grafton at noon?" "Yes."

"What time does it leave?" "Twelve o'clock." "What time is it now?" "10:50."

"What time?" "Ten minutes to eleven." "Oh. Then I've got—let me see—" "business of lightning calculation—over an hour."

"Yes." "Are you sure your watch is right?" "Quite sure." "Thank you." "Happen often?" he was asked as he turned wearily to resume some dictation.

"Maybe a dozen times a day, especially when I'm busy."

U. S. Marines to Map French Battlefields

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Relief maps modeled in clay, showing every detail of the ground fought over by the Second Division in the World War, will be made by a party of U. S. Marines who will leave New York city for France on June 5.

Beginning with Blanc Mont district, where the Second Division took part in the great French offensive of the Champagne, the mapping party will visit the Meuse-Argonne, St. Mihiel and Soissons battlefields before returning to the United States next October.

Last year a Marine mapping party visited France and completed a relief map of Belleau Wood, showing hills, ravines, rocks and other topographical features. The new maps will be similar in design.

CIVIL WAR SOLDIERS

417. But the Grand Army of the Reformed was growing continually. He paid a high tribute to the soldiers who helped to save the union, and emphasized the thought in that the victory they gained, even their enemies have become their friends and rejoice with them because they did gain the victory.

In closing he gave a thrilling account of the closing events of the war in which these veterans engaged the separation from their comrades which were very much like the parting scenes of the Christian soldiers, and the happy home coming was a type of the meeting of the comrades in Christ in heaven.

The large audience, in general and particularly the old soldiers, were delighted with the sermon.

After the sermon the audience their future under the low salaries which are handicapping them. A number claim they are sticking to positions they can scarcely afford to maintain because they realize they are greatly needed in the service.

The committee which had charge of today's convention consisted of: Reception committee, Miss Mary Gaughan, Clarence Hall, C. L. Wilmoth, Brooks Hall, Willis Wilson, Glenn Downs, Miss Ryan, Hervey Martin.

Publicity and advertising committee, N. G. Rollins, Glenn Fortney. Hotel committee, Frank E. Smith, Fred Wallace, Glenn Downs, Hervey Martin.

Speakers' committee, N. G. Rollins, Miss Mary Gaughan. General program and entertainment committee, Frank Barnes, G. M. Meredith, Clarence Hall, Thomas E. Cook, Fred Wallace.

There are altogether 230,000 various postoffice employees in the country and for the last 14 months a salary commission of senators and congressmen has been working industrially in an effort to have their salaries raised.

At a meeting of Supervising Postoffice employees held Saturday at the postoffice in this city a telegram was sent to Washington to this body of men urging that the great loss in clerk service due to poor salaries be checked and everything possible done to get the matter favorably before congress before it adjourns June 5th.

The following officers were elected at the Saturday meeting: President, J. J. Denham, of Clarksburg; first vice president, J. J. Knapp, of Moundsville; second vice president, H. C. Kitchen, of Martinsburg; secretary-treasurer, Louis Nearman, of Charleston.

Jesse D. Wilson, of Fairmont, was elected delegate to the national convention to be held in Indianapolis on the second Monday in September. J. C. LeSage, of Huntington, was elected alternate.

The meeting Saturday was the first annual West Virginia branch of the national Association of Supervising Postoffice Employees, an association formed recently.
