

LILAC WATER AND POP KICKS A LOT

Cincinnati Negro Pays $5 And Tells Cops a New One.

A large sized bottle of lilac toilet water and a gallon of Fairmont pickhandle was all that it took to make Tom Williams, a husky Cincinnati negro, a social whirl in this city yesterday. And if Tom's memory is good it is the first time in his life that he has ever been under the influence of alcohol.

Even though not so well experienced in the disposition of strong drink, the colored gent gave the police headquarters attaches a new recipe. He explained that a quantity of lilac toilet water mixed with a certain kind of red or white pop made a mixture which, when applied internally, so well combined the delicacy of the pop, the fragrance of the lilac and the alcoholic kick that one was very pleasantly "perfumed up."

Before leaving the police station he paid a fine of $5 and costs, presented Chief Moran with a large army knife as an evidence of his gratitude and bade farewell to all in the police court room explaining that he was "going back to Cincinnati."
