CHAUTAUQUA WILL HELP PLAYGROUND

Profits Above Guaranty to Be Used to Boost Civic Enterprise.

MANNINGTON, June 2—Chautauqua season tickets this year will be $2 instead of $2.20 for adults, and $1 instead of $1.50 for children. This is the first year by the elimination of the war tax.

The local chautauqua committee secured this exemption by compliance with certain conditions laid down by the Department of Internal Revenue, outlined by Harry D. Elckmeyer, representing the Redpath Chautauquas at a meeting held Wednesday evening.

Chautauqua patrons have the further satisfaction of knowing that any profit accruing from the chautauqua are to be turned over to a playgrounds committee, to be used for the support of a public playground at the Central School grounds. In other words, the amount above the amount guaranteed the chautauqua will be used to aid the playground.

Season tickets for the program which is to be held June 21 to June 25 inclusive, have been placed on sale. The reason for a successful campaign, it is said, as the Redpath programs in recent years have been of the highest quality and the announcement for 1932 reveals a combination of actors, entertainers and musicians that merits enthusiastic support. Such numbers as Alton Packard, cartoonist; William Rainey Bennett, lecturer; the modern drama, "Friendly Enemies" and "Pines of the West" and Indian friends are of a caliber rarely found outside the largest cities.

Chautauqua's second advance man is due to arrive one week in advance of the program, and will remain until the superintendent comes with his equipment.

The guarantors for the chautauqua this year are George W. Bowers, L. S. Schwenck, S. M. Yoho, E. B. Koen, T. J. Jones, F. W. Vance, E. P. Furbee, A. W. Benton, F. A. Gould, D. C. Tabler, W. L. Jencks, F. E. Furbee, H. D. Atha, T. S. Rymer, E. E. Hamilton, R. B. Howard, S. W. Calvert, E. L. Armstrong, T. Koen, all of the Fairmont, the Rev. John Beddow, F. M. Lough, Jesse Shimp, A. J. Hess, J. B. Atkinson, J. H. Haight, I. W. Davis, C. C. Coffman, Homer Robey, S. E. Taggart, T. E. Eastman, R. M. Hite, D. S. Frank, W. Phillips, G. S. Furbee, F. W. Bowers, H. C. Anderson, A. G. Clayton, E. P. Gower, E. E. Hanes, C. M. Lowther, F. S. Huey, U. H. Debenardier, M. N. J. C. McClellan (deceased), R. J. Clarkson.

The ticket committee is composed of S. E. Phillips, chairman; C. Tabler, the Rev. B. E. Hanes, Dr. F. W. Vance, J. B. Dodge and R. J. Clarkson. The chairman of the playgrounds committee is R. J. Clarkson, while E. F. Gower and F. E. Furbee form the grounds committee.

BOYS' CLUB WINS FROM MOOSE NINE

MANNINGTON, June 2—The Boys' Club and the Moose baseball team played a seven inning game at Hough Park last night, the Moose getting a sound drubbing at the hands of the youngsters. Ryan pitched for the boys, holding the Moose to four hits and two runs, but Randy loomed up in the seventh, letting in twenty-five runs.

This game was more a practice game than anything else, and with a little more of the same sort of work the Moose expect to put a strong team in the field. The boys playing in the game last night have all played high school ball this season, and were in excellent form for taking the Moose scalp.

Letter to the Editor

MEMORIAL DAY.

MANNINGTON, June 2—[Editor, The West Virginian.]—When it comes to Decoration Day Mannington has had a wonderful parade, the largest parade ever pulled in the dear old town. The Legion boys, they did their part just fine, and to make things go they all had some pep in them. We had the drum corps that furnished such excellent music, and the Mannington Band sure did turn out fine. We all know they lose to furnish good music for the American Legion who did sacrifice all they had to save this dear old America of ours and to bring back our beautiful flag from overseas as spotless as did the boys of '61 to '65. How patriotic this dear old town is. The Women's Auxiliary they have the pep too, when it comes to parade, they are Johnny-on-the-spot. If I am not mistaken there were seventy-five in full abreast, and fifty Women's Relief Corps, 400 Red Cross girls, and 150 Girl Scouts, and twenty-five Girl Scouts, and the G. A. R. Veterans were so far ahead that I did not even get a glimpse of them. The cars were so beautifully decorated you did not know they were inside of them. The most wonderful parade that I was ever in. What a thriving town we have with all the wonderful improvements and a nice city hall to accommodate folks on a big day as was done in 1922. I think this day will be long remembered, and the good hospitality was shown. Three cheers for Mannington.

THE ELKS BAND

MANNINGTON, June 2—[Editor, The West Virginian.]—The band in a measure is correct, for when the American Legion asked what satisfaction could be obtained from the manager for he said they were going to play in Fairmont.

Again, when asked to play in the morning for a few minutes in order to get the crowd over on the school grounds, the manager was in the affirmative but the price was prohibitive. The scale of payment was supposedly based on the same plan as the weekly concerts were about a year ago. That was the time when $1,000 was subscribed to the band in order that we might have a community band. In return the people received seven concerts for their money, and after that charges were made for playing for any and every community affair. To make a long story short, the price asked for playing less than one hour, before going to Fairmont, was $94.

It was stated that the Mannington Band did not sign a contract to go to Fairmont until the contract was seen. When the manager went to the manager of the band he stated that they would be unable to play in the afternoon because they had signed a contract to play in Fairmont at that time.

It was then arranged by the American Legion committee to get the Boys' Band to play during the day. Seeing that the home town was going to have a band, the manager of the Elks' band, and the manager of the American Legion are combining forces to organize a thirty-piece band, and hereafter we will not have to feel that we are the humble members of the band if we are in the line of this band is in order that the American Legion will not have to go out of town to get a band if they want to have a parade.

The morning paper stated that the band left Fairmont in time to get home to play a concert. Probably they did, but there was no concert. This letter was not written for any means or purpose of starting a scrap of any kind. It was merely written in order that the people of Mannington who supported the American Legion so loyally on Decoration Day the same as they have on all other occasions, might know why we did not have a band. The statements in this letter are not merely hearsay nor curbsome gleanings, for the writer was, and begs to remain.

Very truly yours
MEMBER OF AMERICAN LEGION COMMITTEE

CITY POLICE GET IN RICH HARVEST

Windows Knocked From Jail by Drunken Prisoner.

MANNINGTON, June 2—Wednesday night and Thursday were very busy times for Chief of Police J. E. Masters and Night Policeman Cunningham, yielding a harvest of five inmates for the city jail.

Denver Ice and Thomas Cumberland were arrested Wednesday night on a charge of furnishing liquor to a 15-year-old girl who resides on lower Main street, and Daisy Harker, a woman who accompanied the two men and the girl, was also taken upon a charge of being drunk. Ice was recently released from jail after serving a term for bootlegging, and Mayor J. M. Barrack held him on $1,000 bail for the next grand jury. Cumberland's trial come up today, but the Harker woman was too drunk this morning to be given a trial. It is charged that Cumberland secured the liquor and brought it to Ice.

Sometimes yesterday Chief Masters picked up Arthur Yost, who was being drunk on the sidewalk in front of the Arlington Hotel, and gave him a berth in the lock-up. Yost recovered sufficiently to knock all the windows out of the cell, and late last evening was still raising a row that could be heard a block away.

Prior to his incarceration Yost had succeeded in getting one pint of liquor to the other inmates of the jail and was in the act of putting another pint through the window when he broke it. The Harker woman secured enough of this liquor to make her dead drunk again.

Jeff Taylor was caught with two bottles of morphine in his possession yesterday and will be tried under the Federal Narcotic Law.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, June 2—Wheat prices averaged a little lower today in American trading, the chief factor being failure of Liverpool quotations to reflect yesterday's advance on this side of the Atlantic. Estimates that the amount of wheat on hand in Chicago amounted to as much as 14,000,000 bushels, tended also to check bullish sentiment. Rush reports from Texas and Kansas, however, brought in some buying orders, and pressure to sell was light. The opening which varied from unchanged figures to quarter cent lower, with July $1.18 1/2 to $1.19 1/2, and September $1.17 1/2 to $1.17 3/4, was followed by a slight rally and then by a moderate decline all around.

Corn and oats were easier with wheat. After opening unchanged to 3/8 higher July $2 to $2 1/2, the corn market sagged. Oats started unchanged to 3/8 lower, July $3 1/2 and later showed a slight set back.

Lower quotations on hogs weakened the provision market.

SEEK AGREEMENT ON MEXICAN DEBT

NEW YORK, June 2—Determined to reach an agreement if possible, but privately admitting that they were skeptical bankers, headed by Thomas Lamont of J. P. Morgan & Co., were called in conference today with Adolfo de La Huerta, Mexican secretary of the treasury, in an attempt to settle the long standing problem of the $700,000,000 Mexican debt, which no interest has been paid since 1914.

While the conference is ostensibly a bankone, it also is regarded as having at least an indirect bearing on the question of export oiling in the financial district that a satisfactory solution of the problem would have the way for the recognition of Mexico by the United States government.
