BAXTER WINS FREE HITTING GAME 10-9

A ninth inning batting rally in a game that was featured by exciting hitting turned the tide in favor of the Baxter team in its twilight game with the Rivesville team last evening. The Baxter players won the game by a one run margin, the final count being 10-9.

Rivesville started out well, scoring seven runs in the first inning and driving Pitcher Cronin from the mound. Hortscomp, who replaced Cronin, held the Rivesville hitters until the ninth, when they scored two more runs, making a total of nine for the game.

Baxter scored its first run in the third inning, added two more in the fifth and another one in the eighth. When the Baxter players came to bat in the last half of the ninth, five runs were needed to tie the score and six to win. It looked like the game was lost. However, a batting rally was started and before the smoke cleared away six runners had crossed the home plate and the game was won.

Score by inning:
Rivesville.....700 000 002—9
Baxter.....001 020 016—10
Batteries: Rivesville—O'Dell, McHowan and Morris. Baxter—Cronin, Hortscomp, Sloan and Dulan.

BUNT AND SQUEEZE PLAY DISAPPEARING

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Three interesting steps seen in the development of baseball are ascribed to veterans of the diamond to the "lively ball," namely, the gradual disappearance of the bunt, the squeeze play and fielding pitcher.

According to Grover Cleveland Alexander, veteran pitcher, the great majority of players are swinging heavily at the ball now and having new bats made with a smaller grip in an effort to knock it over the fence.

"Where I used to have four or five assists in every game," said Alexander, "I rarely have a chance at one now. The ball goes past the box so fast the pitcher has no chance for an assist any more."

The sacrifice fly has largely replaced the squeeze play as a method of bringing home a runner on third, according to baseball veterans.

Because the ball is so lively, it is said, batters rarely take a chance on trying to lay the ball down in front of the plate, as it is almost certain to turn into an easy infield out.

MORGAN INDORSES WILD LIFE LEAGUE

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Governor E. F. Morgan today expressed his approval of the educational value the Wild Life League will have in West Virginia in the preservation and development of the state's natural resources when he was visited in the executive offices by Howard H. Cleaves, secretary of the league, and State Game Protector A. B. Brooks of Buckhannon. They are here organizing a local branch of the league.

The Wild Life league of West Virginia was organized last April, the preliminary meeting being held at Clarksburg where state headquarters are maintained. Charles B. Johnson, Clarksburg attorney and sportsman who was instrumental in framing the present fish, game and forest protection laws of the state is president.

Secretary Cleaves came to West Virginia from natural history museum of San Diego, Calif., of which he was the managing director. He was formerly connected with the New York conservation commission. He has been successful in organizing a number of local branches to the state League, these now being fifteen in number and he expects the total membership to reach the fifty thousand mark.

"I am in heartily accord with the purpose of the league," said Governor Morgan, "and believe it will be indorsed by all our citizens regardless of whether they are hunters or fishermen, for all believe in the preservation of our resources. The work of the league will be largely educational, to bring about a higher appreciation of the development of our wild life. It is the aim of the league to secure wild lands that can be held forever by the state for game and state reserves, fish hatcheries and state nurseries. There is already a fire protection system being operated in West Virginia with about thirty protectors at work."

BAPTISTS TO MEET
The last state meeting of the West Virginia Baptist convention for 1922 will be held August 23 to 25 at the Gillet Baptist Church at Arlington near Northfork. A large number of ministers and laymen from all sections of the state will attend.

BUNNER'S STARS DROP TO SECOND PLACE IN LEAGUE

Tonight's Game Will Give Them Chance to Regain League Lead.

Bunner's Stars lost the lead in the Church League pennant race held here when the First M. P. Team, tail-enders in the race won a 6 to 3 victory. The Bunner's players had one bad inning, and after that time played airtight ball, but the damage was done in the first half of the first inning.

In this half chapter four hits off Petty, who was on the mound for the Bunner's team, accompanied by four errors by his team, netted the game for the First M. P. players. After this session the church team never scored another run.

The Bunner's players, scored two in the third, and one in the fourth, and for a time it looked like they would overcome the big lead gained by the churchmen in the first inning. However, R. Long, who was on the mound for the churchmen, lightened up and held the Stars runless in the fifth and six innings.

A great game is expected to-night when the Palatine Baptists, league leaders, and the Bunner's Stars second place contenders, meet.

The pitching of R. Long and a home run drive by Jack Bunner featured the game last night. The league race is closer now than any time since the first games were played, only a single game separating the all-enders from the leaders. If the tail-enders should drop from the lead, all of the four teams in the race would be tied at 500 per cent all.

COACH DAYTON IS LOST TO VARSITY WRESTLING TEAM

Mat Mentor Wants Increase in Salary and It Can Not Be Met.

MORGANTOWN, Aug. 10.—On the heels of the announcement that wrestling had been abolished at West Virginia University by the State Board of Control and State Board of Education comes the further announcement that even if O'Director of Athletics H. A. Stansbury does persuade the boys to reconsider their attitude about the sport, Coach R. B. Dayton, of Lehigh will not handle the coaching reins again.

Dayton is the "father of wrestling" here, and it was through his interest and efforts that the mat sport was inaugurated on a non-intercollegiate basis. He worked informally with a squad for one fall year before the mat sport had any place on the athletic program here, and during the two years since the sport has been officially recognized has been highly successful as head coach.

It is stated on good authority that inability to agree with reference to the salary was the deciding factor in Dayton's withdrawal and in this matter the athletic heads were "wedged" between Dayton's demands for an increased salary allowance and the fact that the sport in its two years had drained approximately $5,000 from the football profits for its support.

In fact, it developed today that the financial loss occasioned by the sport may have been a factor in its being abolished, but the same argument could be applied to every other sport carried on here except football, since track, basketball, tennis and baseball are also far from being self-supporting.

Dayton will be greatly missed this winter, but until assurances are given that the sport will be put back on the Mountain program, West Virginia fans are not likely to ask that his case be given further consideration. Nothing will be done to secure a coach until the present situation is settled.

Action Not Approved
MORGANTOWN, Aug. 10.—West Virginia University undergraduates and graduates together with athletic officials today expressed their "indignant regret" that the state boards of education and control had ordered wrestling abandoned at the institution. Petitions were hastily drawn up and signatures were being secured prior to their presentation to the two state boards. No reason for the state board's action was assigned in the order to Director H. A. Stansbury to abandon the sport immediately.

Although wrestling has been an intercollegiate sport at West Virginia University only two years, it is second in popularity to football, more than 100 candidates reporting for the sport last season and the "gate receipts" being second only to football.

Coal Sent to Michigan
HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Aug. 10.—One coal train has been diverted from the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad to the Detroit, Toledo & Ironport for points in Michigan, according to a statement made today by Chesapeake & Ohio officials. Other trains will be turned over to the D. T. & I. as fast as that road can handle them. The object of the diverting of coal was to relieve the shortage in manufacturing centers in Michigan.

Coal trains on the Chesapeake & Ohio are moving freely according to E. L. Block, general superintendent, and there will not be much need of diverting coal to the D. T. & I.

STATE FAIR TO BE BETTER THAN EVER

The West Virginia State Fair at Wheeling will be held this year September 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, opening as usual on Labor Day. Premiums have been greatly increased, and entries coming in indicate that all exhibit departments will be filled to overflowing. Some of the big features of the display will be the United States government exhibit, the display of various state departments of West Virginia, the 4-H Club exhibits and county farm bureau displays.

The entertainment features provided are spectacular in the extreme. A mixed harness and running race program for purses aggregating thirty thousand dollars, and special attractions costing $20,000 will be shown, including the "pyro-dramaturgic spectacle 'Hawaiian Nights,' which will feature the night show.

Excursion rates have been granted for the fair by all railroads leading to the exhibition, extending over a wide area of West Virginia, Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania.

DEMOCRATS WILL FORCE VOTE ON FORD'S OFFER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Democratic leaders in the House intend when it re-assembles next Tuesday to renew their efforts to force an agreement upon a date for a vote on Henry Ford's proposal to lease and purchase Muscle Shoals.

Representative Garrett of Tennessee, Democratic leader, has disclosed in the negotiations which were in progress looking to a gentlemen's agreement for a series of three-day recesses that he would not give his consent to such a recess plan unless the Republican leaders were willing to fix a date when a vote could be had upon the Ford offer.
