

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Hutchinson-Owens

The marriage of Harold Hutchinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson of this city, and Miss Margaret Owens, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. K. Owens of Montgomery, Va., was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church at Montgomery and was a brilliant society event. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ernest Thompson, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large assemblage of friends.

Southern smilax, ferns, palms, and chrysanthemums were used lavishly in the church decorations, and tall lighted candles added to the pretty effect.

The bride was attended by Miss Julia Montgomery as maid of honor, and her bridesmaids were the Misses Janice Montgomery, Mae Legg, Thelma Snead, of Montgomery, and Miss Helen Tompkins of Cedar Grove. Paul Hutchinson, who is a student at Yale, was his brother's best man, and the ushers were Roy Long of Montgomery, John Hart, Jr., of Charleston, Dr. C. C. Bell of Fairmont and Allen Kirk of Philadelphia.

As the wedding guests assembled, Mrs. William McVickers sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and the bridal party entered the church to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin and left the church in reverse order to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march.

The bride was given in marriage to her father. She was becomingly gowned in a bridal costume of ivory satin with rincestone trimmings and wore a tulle veil with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses, orchids and valley lilies.

Miss Montgomery, as maid of honor, wore a rose silver metal cloth gown with hat of silver and velvet and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. Miss Tompkins wore orchid charrmuse with georgette bertha and carried yellow roses. Miss Snead wore pink charrmuse and carried pink roses. Miss Janice Montgomery was gowned in yellow charrmuse and carried a bunch of pink roses, and Miss Legg wore blue charrmuse and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids wore picture hats to correspond with their frocks.

The bride's mother was gowned in black jettied chiffon with satin slippers and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, the groom's mother, wore royal blue chiffon embroidered in gold with gold slippers. Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Hutchinson wore coronets of violets, roses and orchids.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. John Carlin Montgomery, after which Mr. Hutchinson and his bride left for a trip to Chicago, New York and New Haven, Conn., and will later take up their residence at Crescent, W. Va.

The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. K. Owens and descends from a prominent family of the southern part of the state. Mr. Hutchinson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson of this city, and is a descendant also from prominent families of West Virginia. He attended the Virginia Military Institute and was a student at West Virginia University at the time of the United States entry into the war. For some time he has been located in the southern part of the state, where he is in the coal business. His father is one of the prominent coal operators of the state and has extensive holdings in the southern as well as the northern part of West Virginia.

Relatives and friends who were in attendance at the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson and sons, Paul, Robert and James of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks S. Hutchinson of this city, Miss Florence Hutchinson of this city, Dr. C. C. Bell of Fairmont, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lee Hutchinson of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hutchinson of Logan, W. Va.

Ball Tonight
The assembly room of the Fairmont Hotel is all set for the charity ball which the Quota Club will give this evening, and everything is in readiness for a highly enjoyable evening. Officers and members of the club will act as hostesses and will dispense the hospitality of the evening. The presence of the football team from the University of Virginia, which is passing through the city to Morgantown for a game with the W. V. U. tomorrow, will add snap to the dance, and the fact that a number of visitors will be here from out-of-town will add zest to the evening. Many tickets have been sold and the affair promises to be among the most enjoyable of the season.

Coming for Dance
Mrs. Bruce H. Fanus of this city, who is located temporarily in Clarksburg in charge of the Fanus Jewelry Store there, will come here this evening for the charity ball which the Quota Club is giving this evening at the Fairmont Hotel. Mrs. Fanus is a charter member of the local club and she will bring with her several members of the Clarksburg Quota Club, which was recently organized in that city.

Afternoon Bridge
Mrs. James E. Sutton was hostess yesterday afternoon at her home on Benoni avenue at a bridge tea of charming appointments. The living rooms and sun parlor were utilized by the players and those rooms were prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns.

Fifteen tables were used in playing bridge. Following the games several friends came in for tea. The guests numbered upwards of seventy-five. At the conclusion of the games, a salad and ice lunch was served. Mrs. Sutton was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. M. E. Ashcraft, Mrs. E. T. Kelley, Mrs. R. K. Tallant, Mrs. H. E. Hamilton and Mrs. A. W. Reed. Out-of-town guests present were: Mrs. M. J. Lynch, Clarksburg, Mrs. H. E. Hamilton, Clarksburg, the former a sister and

Episcopal Cook Book

The women of the Christ Episcopal Church will soon place on the market the third edition of a cook book which they have published during the past few years. The book which contains recipes from many of the well known women of the city, has been revised and a number of new recipes added. The book will be off the press in time for Christmas and will make an ideal Christmas gift. A number of years ago the women of Christ Church gathered together the choicest recipes of a number of the householders of the community and published the book which had since been on the pantry shelves of most of the homes of the city, and the new book will find a place also in the pantries of housekeepers of Fairmont and vicinity.

Gives Talk

Mrs. Rollo J. Conley, who toured abroad this summer, was the honor guest at a social given by the American Post Auxiliary at the Legion headquarters last evening. Mrs. Conley gave an interesting travelogue talk and was attired for the occasion in a quaint Dutch costume, which she secured while overseas. Upwards of thirty were in attendance. A social hour followed the program, and refreshments were served.

To Have Sale

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will hold a rummage sale all next week, beginning Monday and continuing through Saturday, at the Yost Building at 428 Main street.

New Daughter

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ohley Graham of Fairmont, was a daughter. She is the fourth daughter in the family and has been named Joan Graham.

Morgantown Guests

Miss Millie K. Evans, Mrs. G. M. Loush, Mrs. J. W. Lowery and Mrs. W. S. Thomas were hostesses last evening at the home of the former's brother, W. D. Evans, on Gaston avenue to several Morgantown women, members of the Women's Welsh Club of America. The hostesses of the evening are members of the Morgantown club, and they entertained the Morgantown members in a delightful manner.

During the evening six new members, all Fairmont women, were taken into membership of the Morgantown club. They were Mrs. George M. Price, Mrs. Loretta Morgan Fishback, all descendants of David Morgan, early settler of Marion County, and Mrs. Ora Kinsey Evans, Mrs. Elizabeth Evans Dent and Mrs. Margaret Evans Sharp. The Morgantown women, who were Mrs. W. H. Davis, president, Mrs. John George, secretary, Mrs. Griffith Thomas, treasurer, Mrs. John Thomas, Mrs. Evan Thomas, Mrs. Thomas Johns, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Evans, came to this city on the train arriving here at 8:30 and were met with automobiles and taken to the Evans home, where a delightful evening was spent in a social way, following which a salad lunch was served and the guests were driven to the midnight train to return to Morgantown.

The object of the club is to promote charity, good fellowship, benevolence, sociability, civics and the welfare of the Welsh women in America, and there are similar organizations dotted around in many cities and towns of the United States. The Fairmont women form the Fairmont unit, which is a part of the Morgantown organization.

The club had its origin fifteen years ago, in 1907, when a number of Welsh women formed a club to promote sociability among its members. Realizing that the club was accomplishing little, it decided to broaden its scope, and twelve years ago bought and established a home on the Mayfield road at Clarksburg, Ohio, for aged and infirm Welsh men and women at a cost of $15,000. The home contained a good residence and eleven acres of ground. The club house was quickly outgrown and in 1919 the organization sold its property for $65,000 and immediately purchased another home for $50,000.

A large number of infirm and aged Welsh men and women are cared for in the home. The scope of the club has widened until now it is an important factor in the lives of the Welsh residents of America, and plans are being made to still further widen the scope of its activities.

A feature of the program last evening was the reading of the twenty-third Psalm from a Welsh Bible, the Bible having been the property of Edwards Evans, the father of Miss Millie K. Evans.

School Social

A school social will be held at the Captain Booth School tomorrow evening. The affair will be given as a benefit for the school. Refreshments will be served.

Splendid Success

Between three hundred and four hundred persons were served last evening with a splendid turkey dinner which was held at the social rooms of the Billingsley Memorial M. E. Church, South, and which was given by the ladies of the church. The rooms were attractively arranged for the occasion, and a splendid menu, well cooked and served, was enjoyed by those present. When the doors opened at 5:30 o'clock, a stream of people poured into the rooms, and the tables, which seated 240 were soon filled. When they had been served the tables were practically filled again. The tables were centered with fall flowers and greenery. The social rooms are ideal for serving a dinner, the service was splendid and the menu excellent.

Have Guests

Mr. and Mrs. James Edw. Watson, Jr., will have as their guests over the week-end, Miss Mary Hart and Miss Mary Ruhl of Clarksburg. They will all go to Morgantown tomorrow, where they will attend the Virginia-West Virginia football game. Mr. and Mrs. Watson and son Ned will leave Monday for New York. They will attend the Yale-Harvard game at New Haven next Saturday, and will remain away until after Thanksgiving.

Guests for Game

Mrs. George Work and Mrs. Daisie Cassell of Parkersburg will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Brady at their home in the West End Addition. Mr. and Mrs. Brady, Mrs. Work, Mrs. C. Atwell, and Dunlap Brady will motor to Morgantown to attend the football game tomorrow afternoon.

Will Attend Game

Mrs. J. E. Watson and her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sullivan and Miss Louise Nichols, will go to Morgantown tomorrow to attend the Virginia-West Virginia football game.

Will Have Exchange

Mrs. Charles E. Potter's division of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will have a sale of pastries, salads, homemade bread and other delicacies at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning at the home of Mrs. W. H. Kunst, 321 Jefferson street.

Coming for Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Garvey of Wheeling will arrive tomorrow to attend the indoor picnic of the B. and O. Veterans' Association and Ladies Auxiliary. Mr. Garvey is the state president of the association, and Mrs. Garvey is state vice president of the auxiliary.

Society Meets

Mrs. W. D. Reed was hostess yesterday afternoon to the members of Mrs. W. A. Crowl's division of the Home Missionary Society of the First M. E. Church at her home in Fairmont avenue. Plans (Continued on page six)

"Merode" UNDERWEAR Week

"MERODE" Is Hand-Tailored Underwear

The beauty of truly hand-tailored underwear depends upon many factors and conditions found only in the making of "Merode." "Merode" garments are cut out one at a time by hand—they follow their patterns accurately every time, and the patterns are based on years of study of human models. The result is perfect-fitting underwear. Fine, firmly knit materials, smooth flat-lock seams, dainty finishing in every way, make "Merode" both comfortable and attractive.

Models in union suits and separate garments suitable for high or low dress—cotton, merino and silk mixtures. For women, girls and boys.
