THE FLORIDA ELECTION.

WASHINGTON, May 14. Dispatches to Gen. Grant from Jackson-pille, May 14th, state that thirty-four counties give 5000 majority for the constitution, and Harrison Reed, the Republican candidate Governor, 7000 majority. The Legisla-ire is three-quarters Republican.

NEW YORK, May 18. The Times Washington despatch says: There is a scheme to pass Impeachment by rotes of Senators to be admitted from Southern States. Another proposition is made to bring in all the re-constructed states by a The Heraid's despatch says. It is stated that the Arkansas Senators and those of ser-Salmon, salt $\psi$ its.

The Sun's despatch says: Many members of both houses have left for Chicago. The investigation of the corruption charges will be energetically pushed by the managers.

Mr. Stanton will not resign until more defin-ate action is taken on impeachment, nor will ate action is taken on impeachment, nor will the President make any effort to remove Tallow P b.

Exeres, N. H., May 18. J. L. Pike, the murderer of the Browns at Hampton Fulls, is undergoing an examination before Justice Bell. He pleaded guilty to both charges. He appears downcast and ill at ease. Several hundred people are present, many from neighboring towns. The evidence will be taken at length.

NEW YORK, May 19. The Terbune's despatch says: It is stated that startling developments were made at the examination of witnesses yesterday before the managers, relative to bribery and corruption. of Senators. Many witnesses from the whis ky ring have been summoned.

The Arkansas bill will undoubtedly pass before the close of the Impeachment trial, but Senators from that state will not claim the right to vote on that question. The President will not veto the Arkansas bill but will allow it to become a law by lapse of time.

New York, May 20. The Tribune's Chicago despatch says: At least 1000 outsiders are here working for Fenton's nomination, to the Vice Presidency. The S. C. delegates have arrived, thus comoleting the Southern list of delegates. Gov. Ward of N. J. will call the convention to order at noon to-day, and he will recognise a delegate who will propose Gen. Carl Schurz as temporary chairman. This gentleman appears to be the unanimous choice for that position. Then a committee of one from each state is to be appointed on permanent or-ganization and platform; after which the convention will probably adjourn till after

On re-assembling the committee will report after which an adjournment till Thursday may be effected.

For permanent President Gov. Hawley of icut seems to be the choice, though H. Bingham and Gov. Fletcher are named. Neither the friends of Sickles nor Vanzandt well organized as Hawley's. The financial question will be one of the leading features of the platform and the anti-repudiating resolutions of the Illinois Repubican Convention will probably be adopted. The contesting delegates from Pennsylvan-ia, California, and Maryland, some of the latter being negroes, are to beadmitted to the

Another Tribune despatch dated midnight says. The Illinois delegation has just ad-journed after a long and stormy meeting. Gen. Logan advocated Wade for Vice President, but on a final ballot was beaten, Wade getting only four votes; the others were qually distributed to Fenton, Colfax and Hamlin New England is still divided. Hamlin's friends count 30 votes on the 1st Fenton's stock is quoted highest to-night. Coffax comes in second. Wade is losing ground but his friends say he will rally.
