LOVELY PRIOR

Once more PB time the veen shell To hills and dales my presim tell. A finus which time can never quel That burns for lovely Pezzy. The greater bank the lyre should het. For, way, what subject is more fit. Than to record the startling wix. And bloom of lavely Pergy:

The sun first rising in the more, That paints the downbetourkied there Does not se much the day source As does my levely Pergy.

And when in Thetis' lap to ceet the strocks with gold the raddy west, Ho's not so beautiful as undrest Appears my lovely Peggy. Where she arrayed in rustle weed, With her the bleating flocks I'd feed, To please my localy Perry.

With her a cuttage would delight. All's happy when the's in my sight, but when she's runs it's codless in a All's dark without my Peggy.

The rophyr's air the right blows. Or breath upon the dumask ross, He does not ball the sweets discloss. That does my invely Peggy.

While new from flow'r to flow'r shall rove And Unnets warne through the grove, Or stately swan the waters lave, So long shall I have Peggy.
