

A MONSTER PROCESSION

HARRISON'S ELECTION ENTHUSIASTICALLY CELEBRATED.

The City Fairly Abuzz with Illuminations and Pyrotechnics—The Torchlight Procession Participated in by Fully 1000—Telling Transparencies.

"A glorious celebration" was the universal verdict... The torchlight procession participated in by fully 1000 telling transparencies.

The manner in which all our leading citizens took part... The celebration began in fact early in the afternoon at which time the enthusiasm broke out in frequent cheers.

The torchlight procession... The parade was everywhere greeted with enthusiastic cheers and those in the procession were warmly welcomed.

The parade was everywhere greeted with enthusiastic cheers... The torchlight procession participated in by fully 1000 telling transparencies.

The torchlight procession... The parade was everywhere greeted with enthusiastic cheers and those in the procession were warmly welcomed.

ILLUMINATIONS AND DECORATIONS.

A Gorgeous Spectacle Presented Along the Route of Procession.

The illuminations and decorations of private residences and places of business were unusually elaborate and surpassed by far anything of the kind ever before seen in Burlington.

On Main street the residence of William Raine and the windows of Nash & Roche and John Griffin & Son were resplendent with light.

On College street the store of B. Turk & Bro. was brilliantly decorated, while the window displays of brunting and lights were made by Pease, Bro. & Pease, Reed & Taylor, the Merchants' bank, O. J. Walker & Bro., G. L. Hagar and B. W. Carpenter & Co.

On Main street the residence of Messrs. H. W. Allen and R. S. Styles were tastefully decorated and illuminated and the spacious front of the residence of Edward W. E. Greene, W. H. Livingston and S. Beach made handsome displays.

On Main street the residence of Messrs. H. W. Allen and R. S. Styles were tastefully decorated and illuminated and the spacious front of the residence of Edward W. E. Greene, W. H. Livingston and S. Beach made handsome displays.

There were also a large number of men in line who were not members of the various clubs, including representatives from Essex, Jericho, Williston, Colchester, Hinesburg and other neighboring towns.

The police under command of Officer Lamora did good service and presented a good appearance. The number of horse-drawn carriages... The torchlight procession participated in by fully 1000 telling transparencies.

The various republican clubs of this city were well represented and they carried many telling transparencies... The torchlight procession participated in by fully 1000 telling transparencies.

The torchlight procession... The parade was everywhere greeted with enthusiastic cheers and those in the procession were warmly welcomed.

The torchlight procession... The parade was everywhere greeted with enthusiastic cheers and those in the procession were warmly welcomed.

The torchlight procession... The parade was everywhere greeted with enthusiastic cheers and those in the procession were warmly welcomed.

The torchlight procession... The parade was everywhere greeted with enthusiastic cheers and those in the procession were warmly welcomed.

The torchlight procession... The parade was everywhere greeted with enthusiastic cheers and those in the procession were warmly welcomed.

The torchlight procession... The parade was everywhere greeted with enthusiastic cheers and those in the procession were warmly welcomed.

The torchlight procession... The parade was everywhere greeted with enthusiastic cheers and those in the procession were warmly welcomed.

The torchlight procession... The parade was everywhere greeted with enthusiastic cheers and those in the procession were warmly welcomed.

was also finely illuminated. The hand-drawn carriages... The torchlight procession participated in by fully 1000 telling transparencies.

On Prospect street Mr. A. C. Spear's residence was brilliantly illuminated with candles, arranged in various styles and also decorated with brunting.

On Pearl street Alderman O. S. Storrs made an elaborate display, the house being handsomely illuminated and Chinese lanterns suspended over the grounds and sidewalk.

On College street Mr. B. Turk, ex-Mayor Hatch, Mr. G. L. Hagar, Mr. L. M. Hazar and Mr. W. S. Whitcomb illuminated the store places of Judge Walter G. Peck and Mr. E. W. Peck were brilliant in the extreme.

On Winoski avenue fine displays were made by the Messrs. Ryan, Cyrus Roby, Major Blodgett and D. Murray, colored lanterns being arranged in a beautiful manner.

On Main street the residence of William Raine and the windows of Nash & Roche and John Griffin & Son were resplendent with light.

On College street the store of B. Turk & Bro. was brilliantly decorated, while the window displays of brunting and lights were made by Pease, Bro. & Pease, Reed & Taylor, the Merchants' bank, O. J. Walker & Bro., G. L. Hagar and B. W. Carpenter & Co.

On Main street the residence of Messrs. H. W. Allen and R. S. Styles were tastefully decorated and illuminated and the spacious front of the residence of Edward W. E. Greene, W. H. Livingston and S. Beach made handsome displays.

On Main street the residence of Messrs. H. W. Allen and R. S. Styles were tastefully decorated and illuminated and the spacious front of the residence of Edward W. E. Greene, W. H. Livingston and S. Beach made handsome displays.

There were also a large number of men in line who were not members of the various clubs, including representatives from Essex, Jericho, Williston, Colchester, Hinesburg and other neighboring towns.

Kinsley, J. H. Holton, H. E. Adams & Sherman, George T. Adams also made appropriate and attractive displays.

On lower College street Messrs. A. B. Kingsland and T. A. Wheelock made good ground displays, the former with white and blue banner inscribed with the letters "H. and M."

On Prospect street Mr. A. C. Spear's residence was brilliantly illuminated with candles, arranged in various styles and also decorated with brunting.

On Pearl street Alderman O. S. Storrs made an elaborate display, the house being handsomely illuminated and Chinese lanterns suspended over the grounds and sidewalk.

On College street Mr. B. Turk, ex-Mayor Hatch, Mr. G. L. Hagar, Mr. L. M. Hazar and Mr. W. S. Whitcomb illuminated the store places of Judge Walter G. Peck and Mr. E. W. Peck were brilliant in the extreme.

On Winoski avenue fine displays were made by the Messrs. Ryan, Cyrus Roby, Major Blodgett and D. Murray, colored lanterns being arranged in a beautiful manner.

On Main street the residence of William Raine and the windows of Nash & Roche and John Griffin & Son were resplendent with light.

On College street the store of B. Turk & Bro. was brilliantly decorated, while the window displays of brunting and lights were made by Pease, Bro. & Pease, Reed & Taylor, the Merchants' bank, O. J. Walker & Bro., G. L. Hagar and B. W. Carpenter & Co.

On Main street the residence of Messrs. H. W. Allen and R. S. Styles were tastefully decorated and illuminated and the spacious front of the residence of Edward W. E. Greene, W. H. Livingston and S. Beach made handsome displays.

There were also a large number of men in line who were not members of the various clubs, including representatives from Essex, Jericho, Williston, Colchester, Hinesburg and other neighboring towns.

FROM MONTEPELIER.

THE EDUCATIONAL BILL REPORTED TO THE HOUSE.

Some of Its More Important Provisions—The Agricultural and Manufacturer's Commission Bill Passed—Cavalry Renoun.

MONTEPELIER, Nov. 13.—The education committee reported the school bill to the House to-day with various proposed amendments. The chapter in regard to normal schools is eliminated from the bill.

The agricultural and manufacturing commission bill passed on motion of Paul O'Brien, the salary is to be $5 instead of $5. The bill cutting down the railroad commissioners' per diem to $6 was reported adversely by the railroad committee and passed on motion of Mr. O'Brien.

The Vermont Cavalry Renoun society held its 16th annual meeting here to-day. A business session was held at the State House this afternoon and H. O. Wheeler of Burlington was chosen president.

Among the bills introduced in the House on the day of limitation were these: By Mr. Walbridge of Concord to establish the Vermont school of agriculture and to unite the State Agricultural Experiment Station therewith.

Under an old charter it is proposed to extend the Mississippi railroad to have another road connect with it to the town of Eden. Hon. O. N. Kelton of Montgomery, Superintendent of the State Geologist and Curator of the cabinet.

The bill of Mr. Walbridge to reduce the salary of the railroad commissioners to $5000 was reported adversely by the railroad committee.

These bills were introduced in the Senate by Senator Stratton, by request to incorporate the Bitter Sweet Gold Mining Company; by Senator Fisk of La Motte, to amend section 2108 Revised Statutes to allow owners of widow shares to pay their own expenses out of it.

By Senator Bates amending sections 4226 and 4227 Revised Laws relating to intimidation of workmen; by Senator Bates amending section 4227 Revised Laws relating to the sale of land.

His excellency, Gov. Dillingham, received a letter from Hon. George Nichols, acting president of Norwich University, stating that the Norwich University corps cadets, Lieut. E. H. Catlin, 2nd Art. U. S. A., commanding, proposed to visit the capital on the 14th of November.

THE 26TH ANNUAL REUNION OF THE VERMONT OFFICERS. Agricultural College Bill—Prohibiting Insurance Discriminations—Sanitary Conditions—Supreme Court Matters—Trent River Railroad.

MONTEPELIER, Nov. 14.—The Vermont officers reunion society held here to-day their 26th annual meeting, which was very largely attended. The officers are: President, Z. M. Mansur of Island Pond; vice presidents, F. S. Stranahan of St. Albans, Fred D. Butterfield of Derby; treasurer, L. G. Kinsley of Rutland.

THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE BILL. The bill introduced by Mr. Walbridge proposes to separate the college from the U. V. M. and have them separate and distinct institutions and buildings.

PROHIBITING DISCRIMINATIONS BY INSURANCE COMPANIES. This measure presented by Mr. Pitkin of Montpelier, provides that no life insurance company doing business in Vermont shall make or permit any unjust discriminations in favor of individuals between insured persons of the same class.

FARMERS TO CLARKE SANDERS. A bill has been introduced to pardon Clarke Sanders, who was convicted of manslaughter at the March term 1885, by the Washington County Court.

VERMONT MERCANTILE AND COLLECTION ASSOCIATION. J. J. Enright, Albert E. Richardson, E. W. Peck and Bennett Furca and their associates are incorporated into a body politic with a capital stock of $10,000.

THE TROUT RIVER RAILROAD. Under an old charter it is proposed to extend the Mississippi railroad to have another road connect with it to the town of Eden.

CHANGING TIME OF SUPREME COURT. Mr. Marsh, by unanimous consent, introduced a bill changing the time of holding the Supreme Court in some of the counties. It provides for the better filling up of the time, whereby there will be no hiatus of nearly a week between the expiration of the Chittenden Supreme Court and the opening of the next term.

SALARY OF RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS. The bill of Mr. Walbridge to reduce the salary of the railroad commissioners to $5000 was reported adversely by the railroad committee.

stay, and we should have good men to improve our views. It did not seem to him that the present per diem was too large.

There is little doubt that the bill will be killed in the Senate. SUPREME COURT. The case of Joseph Vetter vs. Omer Miller was on trial yesterday.

MRS. DILLINGHAM'S MUSICAL. Mrs. G. W. Dillingham gave a musical at the Pavilion parlors last night. Mrs. F. W. Bancroft, Miss Mary Plimney, Mrs. Stearnham and Mr. Wilder took part.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS. In the Senate yesterday afternoon House 191, an act to incorporate the Maritime Canal company of Newburg, was read the third time and passed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION—By Mr. Phelps of Newport, on House 31, containing a report on the bill to amend an act relating to the State Normal School, which was read the first and second times by title and ordered to be read and passed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION—By Mr. Phelps of Newport, on House 31, containing a report on the bill to amend an act relating to the State Normal School, which was read the first and second times by title and ordered to be read and passed.

THE VERMONT CAVALRY. Their Annual Reunion and Banquet at Montpelier. The cavalry boys met for their annual reunion at Montpelier on Tuesday.

THE VERMONT CAVALRY. Their Annual Reunion and Banquet at Montpelier. The cavalry boys met for their annual reunion at Montpelier on Tuesday.

THE VERMONT CAVALRY. Their Annual Reunion and Banquet at Montpelier. The cavalry boys met for their annual reunion at Montpelier on Tuesday.

THE VERMONT CAVALRY. Their Annual Reunion and Banquet at Montpelier. The cavalry boys met for their annual reunion at Montpelier on Tuesday.