No. 15, F. H. Baxter, post 73, High-educational purposes, and may political move would necessarily work an injury to the organization and to farmers by divid ing instead of uniting their forces. Instead, herefore, of the grange taking up the sub ject, the Farmers' Alliance was formed for political purposes only, with the intention of uniting all the farmers in the several States o that they might work and vote together for honest and just legislation, both local,

State and national. The farmers claim that this is all they want, as that means, they say, equal taxa-tion and protection against fraud trusts and kindred evils. The alliance believes that it is time for the farmers to come to the front in politics, and offers a plan whereby this can be done. It believes that if farmers would only unite politically they could largely control both the great parties. They propose to manage the caucuses and nominating conventions and believe that there are enough republican farmers to make the republican party toe the mark in the farmers' behalf and enough democratic farmers to make the democratic party do

The Standard.

"I regard Hood's Sarsaparilla as having passed above the grade of what are commonly called patent or proprietary medicines," said a well known physician recently. "It is fully entitled to be considered a standard medicine, and has won this position by its undoubted merit and by the many remarkable curved it has effected. For an alterative and tonic it has never been equalled."

SCALY PSORIASIS 20 YEARS
