ONE CENT A WORD.

Advertising in this column one cent a word, each insertion. Copy may be changed every week. Cash in advance required. No advertisement taken which is less than twelve words, two lines. Special terms to advertisers using from 250 to 1,000 lines within twelve consecutive months.

POINTERS.

OWNERS OF FARMS who wish to hire help or to sell a farm should use this column. Nearly 6,000 copies of this paper are sold every issue and your advertisement would be read by many possible buyers. 37,wtf

WANTED.

GIRL OR WOMAN wanted, family of two, no farm work, must understand cooking. Address Box 85, Charlotte, Vt. 178,0t&4w,2t.

GIRL wanted to work in boarding house. Steady work and good pay to the right party. R. J. Miller, Groton Pond, Vt. 178,2t&wlt

WANTED—Woman to wait at table and do housework; also man or boy for general outside and inside work at summer camp cottage in the country. Private family of two. Frequent guests. Strictest reliability, neatness and willingness essential. Mother and son satisfactory. Good wages. Apply C. D. Haskins, Schenectady, N. Y. 173,1t&wlt

MALE HELP WANTED.

$5.00 WEEKLY to competent man in every town. Two hours' work evenings. Arthur, 33 Northview avenue, Upper Montclair, N. J. 178,6t&w,1t.

FOR SALE.

5 ACRE FARM for sale cheap and on easy terms. H. H. Tilley, St. George, Vt. 152,d&wtf

FARM FOR SALE—100 acres, will carry 20 cows and team, 1 mile to school, 2½ miles to creamery, 7 miles to railroad, 8-room house in good condition, barn 63x42, built three years ago, fine water, 15 cows, 1 pair horses, all stock and farming tools, including hay in barn $2,725, or the farm $1,900. A. H. Drew, Real Estate, Hardwick, Vt.

FOR SALE—The Derby Lane Hotel and stables, Derby Line, Vt., will be sold in closing the estate of the late Capt. Henry Foster. It is a widely known house in excellent condition with steam heat, electric lights and all modern improvements. Price $10,000. Will net the right man from $1,800 to $2,500 per year clear. Books open to prospective buyer. Kingsbery Foster, executor. tw,2t.

FOR SALE—An established first-class dressmaking business; amount of business one year, 1904-5, $1,500; stock, fixtures and good will at reasonable terms; a rare chance for first-class dressmaker; best of reasons for selling. Mrs. A. M. Kerslall, 161 Bank street. 168,12t;w,3t.

FARMS, large and small, nice Burlingtington residence, ten rooms, all conveniences, low price; also Morrisville and Hardwick. O. D. Choate, Morrisville, Vt. 2w,1m.

TWO-SEATED SUNDOWN CARRIAGE for one or two horses for sale. Good condition, cost $160, will be sold for $30. E. Selden, 143 Main street, Burlington Vt. Also other goods. 3w,1f.

$2,500 BUYS a 100 acre farm, two miles to village six miles to railroad, R. F. D., meadows smooth and free from stone, 1,200 sugar trees newly equipped, a large amount of timber, all necessary farming tools, cream separator and dairy tools, together with 15 cows and all fodder put into barn. Possession given October 1. Terms $600 cash, balance to suit, no better bargain in Vermont. Apply at once to J. E. Hunt, Real Estate, Essex Junction, Vt. 1,wtf

VERMONT IN THE CIVIL WAR for sale. In cloth binding $3.50 for set of two volumes. The second volume alone $1.25. Free Press Association, Burlington, Vt. 31,wly

NOTICE.

NOTICE how little it costs to tell thousands of readers in many towns of Vermont what you have to sell or what you wish to buy. Advertise in the Free Press and you will get replies to your advertisement. 27,wtf

HOW ABOUT THIS FARM?

175 acre, 20 cow farm, strong soil, good buildings, nice sugar works, 100 to 150 M. saw timber, easy to get, 2½ M. to Marshfield village, R. F. D. and tel. Price, $2,100, including dairy, sugar and farming tools; ½ cash. Send 10c for 500 farm catalogue and map of Vermont. Several desirable cottages on Lake Champlain for sale or rent.

Live and paying livery for sale, 16 horses and full equipment, carriages, harness, robes, etc Doing a business of $15 to $20 daily. Must be sold as owner is to leave State.

REYNOLDS REAL ESTATE CO.

140 A. St. Paul street, Burlington, Vt.

Here Is Your Opportunity.

For sale on lovely main and level road, 3½ miles to pretty village and R. R. station; beautiful mountain scenery; 110 acre farm, 40 acres interval meadow, balance pasture, wood and timber; house pleasant in good repair, fine lawn; two 30x40-ft. barns, fine running water at H. and B.; apple orchard, hay, all for $1,750.

F. H. McGinnis, Real Estate Agency, Essex Junction, Vt.

Best 25c Dinner

In Burlington at

KI'S RESTAURANT,

Cor. Church and Main Sts.

BETTER THAN EVER.

New Management.

Low priced short orders at all hours.

F. R. ROBERTS, Prop.

VERMONT LOCAL NEWS.

(Continued from first page.)

Winifred Wolcott; first and second grades, Miss Mary Redmond of Williston; primary, Miss Alice Atherton.

CHARLOTTE.

A party consisting of the Misses Helen and Julia Converse and Fannie Bullard of Burlington, Miss Bessie Converse and Mrs. Edgar Leavenworth of Charlotte are occupying the Foote cottage at Thompson's Point for the season.—Mrs. Phebe Owen has gone to Saratoga to visit her son.—Mr. Dalton of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ross at their cottage Cedar Beach.—Miss Grace Bora is in Bristol for a month visiting her aunt, Mrs. St. George.—Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hosford left last Monday for a few days trip to Boston.—William Root had a relapse last week and is quite ill again.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Root of Boston are visiting in town.—H. J. Stone and wife of Illinois are in town.—Miss Mary Smith of Northampton is here during her vacation.—Mrs. Solon Lewis and son have been entertaining the mumps.—C. T. Holmes has obtained a patent on his trimming saw.—Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Horsford have gone for a trip to South wick and other points in Massachusetts.—The Ladies Aid and Library association netted about $80 at their midsummer sale.—W. M. Spear is arranging a new piggery with cement instead of plank floors.—Miss Mamie Russell intends visiting friends in Lincoln next week.—Miss Kate Fleming of Burlington is visiting her mother and family for several weeks.—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tobey visited their son, John H. Tobey, and family last week.—J. Richard Dean intends entering Dartmouth College this fall.

WESTFORD.

C. E. Noyes has been appointed postmaster.—The Cloverdale Creamery Co., paid 86 cents per hundred for June milk.—Dr. Herrick from Sheldon has located in this town. He has taken rooms at H. N. Macomber's for the present.—Chester A. Grow of Vergennes is spending a week's vacation with relatives here.—A young son of Orvis Gabaree was seriously hurt Thursday by being kicked by a horse. His cheek was cut open and he was badly cut on the neck.

WEST MILTON.

Mrs. Jane Horton fell Monday morning and fractured her hip. Dr. Coburn attended her. Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Horton are spending their vacation at their old home and were visiting his mother when she met with her accident. Her home is with her son, Olen McNall of Petty Brook.—Mrs. Truman Johnson and two children of Huntington are visiting her uncle, G. W. Granger, this week.

Mrs. Truman Johnson and children, who have been visiting at G. W. Granger's returned to their home in Huntington Tuesday night.—Mrs. Jane Horton, who broke her hip Monday was resting Tuesday morning after a night of great suffering

RICHMOND.

Mrs. Christina Ferguson celebrated her 80th birthday last Friday. A dozen of her neighbors and friends were invited to be present and were delightfully entertained by their hostess.—Mrs. Hattie Lindsay and daughter from Chicago are expected Tuesday night as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perry L. Towers.—Mrs. L. M. Snyder and her sister, Mrs. George Williams, from Chicago are guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Bates.—The Congregational Sunday school will enjoy a picnic Wednesday, August 6, at Lake Iroquois. Means of conveyance will be provided for all that have no conveyance.—Mrs. Clark Sumner and son from Moriah, N. Y., are the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Andrews. Mrs. Butler Firman and family from Chicago return Tuesday night. Mr. Firman led the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday night and Mrs. Firman gave an account of the missionary work in Chicago in the evening, she being an active member of the society.—The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. W. Walker this week Wednesday.—The 4st circle of the King's Daughters will meet at the vestry of the Congregational Church next Friday afternoon and will be entertained by Mrs. Bissell and Mrs. F. H. Shepardson.—Mrs. Daniel Burke is very sick. Dr. Black is attending her.

ST. GEORGE.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Tilley, J. G. Loggins and daughters, Lottie and Bertha, of Williston and Mrs. L. A. Allen of Shelburne were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Tilley on Sunday.—W. H. Parker of Charlotte was in town Monday looking over a farm in view of purchasing in the spring.—W. H. Millham and family were in Richmond recently visiting Mrs. Millham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Buley, Sr.—Mrs. Malisa Allen is visiting friends in Williston village.

MILTON.

Kenneth, the little son of A. B. Ashley, was hit by the wagon wheel while the horse was standing in front of the house on Saturday and when found his head lay under one wheel. He was unconscious for an hour or so and received a bad cut under the eyes but is doing nicely now.—Mrs. I. L. Chadwick of Boston is visiting Miss Kate Ashley and other friends in town.—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Beeman spent Sunday with friends in St. Albans Bay.—Edward Clark from the West was the guest of Col. H. O. Clark last week.—Mrs. Rockwell and son, Harold, have returned to their home in Burlington.—Henry Molles returned Saturday to Providence, R. I.—Miss Alice Jackson is visiting friends in Sheldon.—Miss Ella Herrick went to Windsor Monday, where she is to teach in a summer school.—Arthur Phelps spent Sunday and Monday with friends in Swanton.—Mrs. Tillotson is visiting in Underhill.—Mrs. Nichols and daughter of Essex were at C. P. Sanderson's Sunday.—Ernest Rogers and friend returned to Boston Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Pierpont of Savannah, Ga., and Dr. John Drew of Rumney, N. H., arrived Wednesday for a visit at their fathers' C. G. Pratt, and are at his cottage, Oak Ledge at Camp Rich.—St. Ann's day was observed Wednesday at St. Ann's Church. There was not quite as large a number present as usual.—Henry Peltier of Lisbon, N. H., is visiting friends in town.—Mrs. H. H. Beeman is spending this week in camp with friends at St. Albans bay.—Miss Geneva Patterson is down from Burlington for a two weeks' vacation.—Mrs. Mary J. Skeels, who has been visiting her son, C. F. Skeels returned this week to her home in Highgate.—Mrs. Helen Ballard has returned from a visit in Lowell, Mass., and Miss Bernice Ballard from a visit in Flattsburgh.—Victor Capen has bought Mrs. C. L. Wolcott's store and moved his goods there.—Edward Ladue has his new house up and enclosed.—Mrs. Jane Flynn is in St. Albans called there by the serious illness of Mrs. Richard Flynn.—Frank Harris has been removed from his position of fish and game warden on the grounds of misconduct and the good of the service.

HINESBURGH.

Mrs. C. S. Isham of Burlington is visiting her father, Louis Sanctuary.—Undertaker E. H. Read has been in Boston and purchased a very fine hearse. George Loveland's team ran away Saturday in South Burlington doing considerable damage. The meat cart was nearly ruined.—George Love, Edna and Mary Ray of Shelburne were at Mrs. Albert Ray's Saturday.—The Rev. Mr. Edwards is enjoying a two weeks' vacation in Manchester and other points south.—Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Hanson, who have been ill are much better.—Mrs. Wesley Weller of Burlington is visiting Mrs. John Somers.—Mrs. W. E. Field and two children of Washington, D. C., arrived Saturday to spend the remainder of the summer with Mrs. Field's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hull.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Butler of Richmond were in town over Sunday.—Mrs. Julia Collamer and son, Jacob, attended the White family reunion in Starkshoro Thursday at the residence of A. L. White.—Dr. Burritt's little son is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Joseph Landon.—F. B. Dow lost a valuable horse Saturday with the colic. Dr. Rich spent Friday night with the horse but could not save it. It was one of his gray span and valued at $150.—B. L. Byington's family from Burlington spent Sunday at the farm.—Truman Burritt and his hired man, George Cross, are sick with typhoid fever but are slightly better and hopes are entertained of their recovery.—Clark Pierce had a narrow escape at the grist mill Thursday. He was down in the wheel pit repairing some of the machinery when his father, who does not work in the mill now, came in and not knowing about it attempted to start the mill. Pierce escaped with some bruises but it was a close call.—Several have reported seeing a white crow about town this spring and Saturday the writer saw the bird near Andrew Cury's in with a flock of typical black crows. There is no doubt about its being a crow and being white.—P. Raftery of Montreal is at the Bergin place for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Foran, who have been at the Palmer House for the last three months, have returned to Burlington.

ESSEX CENTER.

William Dike and family were guests of G. Brand over Sunday.—Mrs. S. A. Thompson visited relatives in Colchester last week.—The Oregon Indian Medicine company have been giving a series of entertainments at the town hall the past week. In the contest for the gold watch to be given the most popular young lady, Miss Katie Moran was the leader Saturday evening.—Ralph Wool was given a surprise party last Tuesday evening by severaal of his young lady friends The occasion being the 18th anniversary of his birthday.—Mrs. Frank McClure of Cambridge was a visitor at the home of C. A. Nichols last week.—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sibley July 15.—William Curtis and wife have returned to Jeffersonville after a few days stay with friends in Essex.

Brown's River creamery paid for standard milk for the month of June 88 cents per hundred pounds.—H. Edward Butler, D. D., and daughter, Miss Carolyn, of Chicago, were callers in the village Friday.—Ralph Hebb station agent spent Sunday at his home in Jeffersonville.—Mrs. Ellen Cilley of Burlington was a visitor in town one day last week.—A large paarty of young men and boy's from McVickers' camp at Malletts Bay passed through here Friday afternoon on their return from a few days stay on Mt. Mansfield.—Johnson's creamery paid 88 cents per hundred for June milk.—The Essex ball team were losers by a score of 4 to 1 in the game with the Richmond team at Richmond Wednesday. They expect to go to Bristol Saturday for a game with the Bristol team.

SOUTH CHARLOTTE.

The four years old daughter of William Palmer died Saturday. The funeral was held Sunday at the home of B. B. Palmer. The Rev. James Renfew of the Friends Church officiated and the burial was in the Friends Cemetery. Undertaker E. H. Reid had charge.—The Y's had a very pleasant meeting Friday evening at William Partch's. A load of 20 came from East Charlotte. After a pleasant programme, refreshments were served.—G. N. Baldwin has put in a side delivery rake, hay loader and horsefork.—Charles Ball has purchased a large team of W. A. Lawrence of Bristol.—Peter Stebbins of Winooski is staying with his son, Philip. Mr. Stebbins is 93 years old and is as straight as a man of 20. He has never known a sick day in his life or had pain of any kind. He is the father of 14 children only five of whom are living.—Some on has been taking milk from the cans of Philip Stebbins during the night, he has missed it several times once about 20 pounds. He heard them one night, but only got a glimpse of them.—A few farmers finished haying

EAST CHARLOTTE.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Estey, Friday the 21st inst.—C. N. Johns and his mother, Mrs. H. H. Chaxton were in Bristol Saturday and Sunday.—About 25 of the young people of the Y. society and their friends enjoyed a very pleasant time last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Partch. An interesting programme on "Independence," with music on organ, violin and cornet formed the principal entertainment for the evening. Ice cream and cake were served.—The funeral of little Christina, oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. William Palmer was held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, at their residence, the Rev. James Renfrew of the Friends Church, Monkton officiating, the interment being in the Friends cemetery.—Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Howes of Southboro, Mass., who have been touring Vermont, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Day from Wednesday until Friday of last week. Mr. Howes is the general manager of the Dearfoot Farms company Southboro.—William Hunter of Rutland spent Sunday at B. J. Clark's. Mr. Hunter was accompanied home Monday by Mrs. Hunter and little daughter, Dorothy, who have been visiting at Mr. Clark's for the past two weeks.—Guy Beardsley of Plattsburgh, N. Y., is visiting cousin, Burton Beers.—Miss Frances Crossman and her niece, Bernice White of Burlington, who have been visiting Mrs. Ellen Horsford, returned home last Monday.—Mrs. Chester Smith recently lost 30 young turkeys and one old turkey by foxes.—Miss Lena Cleveland, who has been living in the family of her uncle, Burton Beers for six months past, will go soon to Thompson's Point for a week's outing, after which she will return to her home in Huntington.—Miss Augusta Tatro of Burlington, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Voight, this week.

UNDERHILL.

Dr. A. F. Burdick and wife have gone to Saratoga, N. Y., for a few weeks.—Miss Harriet Mann is at home spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. E. H. Mann.—Frank A. Knight, formerly of this place, and Miss Jennie Ellis, were married at her home in Bellows Falls July 9. Their future home will be in West Chester, Penn., where he has a good position.—Mr. and Mrs. Scott of Boston have returned to their home after visiting relatives in town.—Miss Daisy McGibbon is camping with friends at St. Albans Bay.—Arthur F. Nay is spending a week with his parents.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Bentley and grandchildren of New Bedford, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Douglas.

SHELBURNE.

W. A. Wood, Jr., went Monday on a trip West. He will visit Buffalo, Detroit, St. Paul, St. Louis and other Western cities.

Frank Rushaw fell Saturday and broke several ribs on his left side and bruised his back badly.

G. N. Roberts and F. R. Roberts and families are camping at Blair's cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubre Pool are the parents of a ten-pound son, born July 25.

Miss Florence Pool, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. A. Pool, has returned to Albany, N. Y.

The Methodist Sunday school will have their annual boat ride on the steamer Chateaugay Wednesday, August 2.

H. E. Kinsman of Williamstown, Mass., is visiting his sister, Mrs. F. R. Stoddard for a few days.

Mrs. F. W. Bissonett, who is visiting her mother and sister in Boulder, Col., is expected home Saturday.

The announcement is made of the engagement of Allen Henry Perin of Shelburne harbor to Miss Ida Holmes Gilman of Corinth, N. Y.

BOLTON.

Fred Jewett, who has been treated at the Mary Fletcher hospital the past two weeks for blood poisoning, returned to his home last Saturday night very much improved in health. He expects to start his mill again next week.—Jack May went to Denver, Col., about two weeks ago.—The adopted parents of Louis Blair, who ran away from home to travel with a circus company, have heard from him, saying he was traveling with the company through the Western States.—Mrs. Swagg of Jericho is stopping at the Bishop house for a few days.—Alden Briggs returned from Bethel Tuesday night, where he has been visiting his parents for a few days.—Grace Parcher of St. George was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Sabins from last Saturday night until Monday morning.—Miss Nora Page of Richmond visited at the home of George Thompson last Sunday.

WILLISTON.

Fred Croto of Rapid City, S. D., is the guest of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Croto, of South Burlington.—Dr. A. L. Bingham and nephew, Frank Talcott, arrived at home Tuesday from their western trip.—Mr. and Mrs. Fay Kenyon and daughter of Hinesburgh were at Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hewett's Sunday.—Frank Croto was in Jericho Tuesday on business. He was accompanied by his cousin, and they made a short visit at his father's, Jerry Croto.

MILTON BORO.

The water pipes connecting the house and barn of F. E. Smith, frozen since March, thawed out July 1.—The house and outbuildings of David Bevins, Georgia Plain, were burned to the ground July 20.—There is to be a lawn party at Camp Rich Tuesday evening, August 1. The Georgia cornet band will be in attendance and ice cream and cake served.

JERICHO CENTRE.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jordan and daughter started Thursday for a week's carriage drive and visit with relatives at Morrisville and Hardwick.—There will be a moving picture entertainment at village hall Friday evening.—Miss Montague, Mrs. Hall and Miss Ayers, relatives and friends of Mrs. J. H. Hart of Brooklyn, N. Y., are staying at Mrs. Hart's for a few weeks.—E. J. Jones and family are moving this week to Burlington, where Mr. Jones has employment at his trade.—Mrs. L. M. Howe is spending a week or so at Westmore, visiting the Rev. and Mrs. E. Rose, former pastor of the church at this place.—Miss Emma Bicknell has leased her farm to Mr. Terrill and expects to go to California this fall for an extended visit.—Miss E. L. Church and Miss M. Meikle have spent the past week at their cottage at Malletts Bay.—Mrs. Cora Smith has been sick the past few days, but is now better.—Mrs. H. B. Hall of Burlington visited old friends in town the past week.—Miss Grace Pease of Burlington is visiting her sister, Mrs. May Nichols.

HUNTINGTON CENTER.

I. L. Strong of Holdridge, Nebraska, came Friday night to be the guest of his brother, F. R. Strong and other friends for the next few weeks.—Mrs. John Miles and daughter, Doris, went to Canada Monday to visit her parents and other friends.—Mrs. Wyram Taft will entertain the ladies society Wednesday.—Mr. and Mrs. William Miner visited her sister, Mrs. James Cass at Northfield the last of the week.—Mrs. D. F. Hanks visited W. E. Hanks and family at Bristol the first of the week.—Thomas Dupont and D. F. Hanks visited at Burlington the last of the week.

SOUTH BURLINGTON.

William and Charles Heath started for California Monday. They will visit the world's fair at Portland. They expect to be absent six weeks.—Frank Toner, who is engaged in market gardening on Long Island, came Wednesday to visit his parents and returned Sunday night.—As George Loveland, a butcher from Hinesburgh, was delivering meat at Wilbur Hall's, one of his horses in some way got its headstall off and becoming frightened started and ran around the house overturning a bee hive. The horses cleared themselves from the cart and ran as far as John Brown's, where they were stopped. The angry bees flew out of the hive lighting on the cart, making it difficult to get it out.—Miss Gladys Brooks of Burlington was the guest of Hattie Heffion over Sunday.—S. H. Tilley and daughter have gone to Laconia, N. H., for a week's stay.

WESTFORD.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Perry have returned from Burlington, where they have been for a week and they are now entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Earl Perry.—Don M. Rice is at home from Philadelphia.—Miss Mildred Moseley is visiting at Philo T. Irish's.—Don A. Stone was in town for a few days last week.—Chester Grow returned to Vergennes Monday.—The Rev. De Forest Safford of Peterboro, N. H., is spending a few days in town.

During the heavy thunder shower of Tuesday evening July 18, the lightning struck an apple tree in Ira Farnsworth's orchard in Westford turning a few of the leaves black, then passed to the ground and threw out quite a quantity of dirt at the roots of the tree. Passing underground it came out in three places, under the wire fence about 20 feet from the tree. In the tree near where the leaves were blackened there was a bird's nest with two little birds in it. But they were not hurt.—Miss Laura E. Dolloff of Lawrence, Massachusetts is boarding for a few days with Miss Danie L. Prior.

JERICHO.

George N. Nay of Ithaca, N. Y., formerly of Jericho, who recently graduated from the College of Law at Cornell University, has been admitted to the New York State bar.

Miss Lillian Bradford is spending a few days at home.—Ralph Buxton is out after being quarantined for the measles for a number of days.—Mr. and Mrs. Y. G. Nay and son, George, went Monday for a short outing to St. Albans Bay and other points.—A little runaway was indulged in Saturday by Mr. Chase's team on the meat cart which resulted in breaking the cart considerably.

The Rev. and Mrs Rand go next week to Moores, N. Y.—Miss Mary Adrian went Wednesday morning to Quebec for a vacation of two weeks.—Mrs. Dr. Bradford of New York is a visitor at F. R. Howe's.—Max Buzzell is spending a few days in Colchester at his father's, the Rev. Buzzell's.—Mrs. Stephen Curtis of Colchester and Mrs. W. Buzzell of Nashua, N. H., visited Mrs. Cliff Buxton Monday.—Mrs. Ellen Percival went Tuesday night to Burlington with her son, Harmon.—Mr. and Mrs. W. Buxton came from Malletts Bay Tuesday and will return the last of the week.

Mrs. Chauncey Hayden of Riverside, Mrs. Hayden and daughter of St. Augustine, Florida, called on Mrs. White Friday.—Mrs. Wright has finished her work at Mr. Cook's and returned home.—Mrs. Mary Lowry returned from Lake Caspian Monday.—O. C. Grace and daughter, Winnie, of Fairfax came to town Monday going back Tuesday taking Miss Lena Nichols with them.—The Rev. Deforest Safford of New Hampshire, a former Baptist preacher here visited Wilson Curtis last week.—Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Percival of Burlington were visitors at his mother's, Mrs. Ellen Percival Tuesday.

COLCHESTER.

Mrs Elmer Durrell and baby are visiting at Fred Wilson's.—John Simond of Brattleboro is the guest of Josiah Cary.—Mrs. Loux and Miss Ella Cobb, who have been guests at W. H. Munson's have gone to Waterbury.—Mrs. G. L. McBride fell off from the piazza Tuesday and broke both bones of the lower arm and knocked the cap off her elbow. Dr. Arkley was called and reduced the fracture.—Miss Helen Shaw spent last week in Burlington.—Miss Jessie Lord is visiting friends in town.—Miss Susan Baker is visiting at Martin Fowler's.

HUNTINGTON.

Mrs. Nelson Bashaw is visiting in Richmond.—T. W. Johnson visited Burlington Tuesday.—Mrs. T. W. Johnson, Miss Gladys Johnson and Master Glen Johnson, have been visiting in Milton the past week.—Miss Daisy Kenyon visited in Jonesville Saturday and Sunday.—Dr. Falby and family have gone to Iowa to visit the doctor's mother. They will be absent two weeks.—Miss Fern Fargo has returned to her home in Richmond after spending some time with friends here.—The King's Daughters will meet August 2 with Mrs. Sarah Cleveland as hostess.—Mrs. Cyrus Harris is very low with a chance for recovery.—Mrs. Marrilla Crane and daughter, Miss Jessie Crane of Chicago are visiting friends here.

E. H. O'Brien of Rutland recently visited his parents and other relatives.—W. S. Durand is home from his work having had the misfortune to hurt one hand quite badly with a pitchfork.—Mrs. Rose Ellis, Mrs. T. W. Johnson and children, Miss Gladys and Master Glenn are spending a few days with relatives in Milton.—Mrs. Thomas Rider and Mrs. Marietta Frowley of Riverport, R. I., are at N. A. Bickford's for the summer. Mrs. Marilla Crane and daughter, Jessie, of Chicago are expected here Monday for a short visit with relatives and friends.—The Misses Eleanor and Laura Sweet are visiting friends in Winooski.—Guy Bickford is making repairs on his store.—Dr. and Mrs. Falby and son, Charles, left Tuesday for Iowa to visit his mother, who will return with them.

HUNTINGTON CENTER.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis of Richmond visited their son, Harry, the last of the week.—Dayton Baker of Massachusetts is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Baker.—Mrs. R. C. Paldwin and daughter visited at R. A. Norton's the last of the week.—Roy Hanks of Richmond is the guest of Ralph Miles.—Milo Taft went to the hospital in Burlington Wednesday.

CALEDONIA COUNTY

EAST HARDWICK.

The Rev. O. N. Bean and family are spending a few weeks in New Hampshire with his parents.—Charles Paterson is moving to Walden, having sold his farm to Walter Ward of Hardwick.—Charles Smith has returned home.—Ethel Currier is working for J. A. Cota.—Mrs. William Underwood has returned home. Edith and Ernest Hall came with her.

FRANKLIN COUNTY

ENOSBURGH FALLS.

What is evidently a young deer is making its home near the farmhouse of A. W. Smith near the Sheldon camp ground, having been seen several times at close range and without showing any fear, even at the noise of the mowing machine.—Mrs. H. C. Pomeroy and Miss Bessie Chency of St. Albans were at J. W. Pomeroy's Saturday.—Joseph Paquette is laid aside by blood poisoning from a slight scratch on one the fingers of his right hand.

A. M. Aseltine and J. W. Green are in Montpelier in attendance upon the meeting of National Life agents.—Mrs. David Tees and daughters, Lizzie and Jennie, of Montreal are spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Paw.—Lydia Beatty, who has been visiting in East Burke for the past week, returned home Tuesday. She was accompanied by her friend, Floy Gibson, who is to spend a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gibson.—C. W. Ingalls of Montpelier is spending a few days at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. E. Beatty.—Mr. and Mrs. Harlie A. Bashaw returned from their wedding journey Tuesday and will pass a few days here previous to making their home in Farnham, Que.—Seth Towle returned from Potsdam Wednesday morning. He visited the Sisson stock farm and purchased a four years old cow that will be shipped at once.—The Vermont Mutual have adjusted the damages by lightning to St. Matthews Church done last week by payment of $10. The Dr. B. J. Kendall company are to make the repairs of damage done at the same time and the insurance company will pay the bill.—Harlow Searls of Des Moines, Iowa, and Foster Clement of Burlington were in town Tuesday calling on old friends.

Mrs. Bronson of Kingman, Kansas, who with a daughter has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. S. Towle, has returned to her father's in Chataplain, N. Y.—Dr. W. S. Stevens and family, who came to Maple Grange cottage Saturday were in this village Monday with friends who were on their return to St. Albans.—Merrill Irish spent Sunday in Burlington.—E. S. Morrill, a nephew of the late United States Senator Morrill, is canvassing in the interest of the Free Press.—An evidence that there are still some all-round mechanics left may be seen by calling at the blacksmith shop of C. H. Mitchell and inspecting a hammer he made last Saturday. It is as fine a piece of work as you will seldom see.—The King's Heralds will serve ice cream next Friday evening on the lawn of Mr. H. N. Kimball.—Seth Towle went Monday to Potsdam to see the Jersey stock on G. W. Sisson, Jr's farm near that city. His herd already contains some animals of the Sisson strain.—Miss Lillian Brown of Bellows Falls is stopping for a few days in the family of her brother, Dr. F. H. Brown on Orchard street. Dr. and Mrs. Brown and daughter spent Sunday with his father's family in Swanton.—The funeral exercises over the remains of Miss L. S. Walker were held at the residence of Mrs. Abbie Rawson on Church street at two o'clock Tuesday, the Rev. F. E. White officiating. Music was furnished by a quartette consisting of W. H. Yaw, C. H. Abell and Misses Jessie and Helena Carpenter who rendered "O! Thou My Child", "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Lead Kindly Light." The bearers were C. Fuller and Harold Rawson, Dr. C. G. Abell and J. A. Leach. The body was taken to Greens Corner on the 3:30 train, where the burial was made. Among those from out of town present were W. H. Jennison, Misses Bertha and Minnie Jennison, Mrs. C. V. Fulton, Mrs. Joseph Warner and William Larall of St. Albans.

ST. ALBANS.

A daughter was born Saturday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. George P. Anderson of Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are the guests of Mr. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Anderson of Congress street.

Stephen D. Hopkins of Congress street, who was stricken with paralysis several weeks ago, shows a marked improvement in his condition, and expects to be able to be out and around within a few weeks.

The sale of the St. Albans street railway advertised for the 20th inst., to satisfy a judgment obtained by the Citizens Coal company of Burlington of $6,685.46 for coal, has been postponed until September 1. It is understood that the sale was put over as a partial payment and understanding has been had between the parties interested.

Sergeant William H. Sullivan Camp, No. 7, United Spanish War Veterans was mustered in with 24 charter members July 26 by Department Commander E. H. Prouty of Burlington. The ceremony which was attended by most of the members took place in Soldiers' Memorial hall on Maiden Lane at eight o'clock. The following officers were elected, being installed by Department Commander Prouty: Commander, Frank L. Greene; senior vice-commander, John G. Norton; junior vice-commander, Roy A. Brush; officer of the day, Royal S. Kimball; officer of the guard, George Petty; chaplain, Merton J. Bascom; trustees, Harrie V. Hall, A. Wellesley Coote and Frank L. Greene. The camp is composed of former members of Co. B, 1st Vermont volunteers in the Spanish-American War.

A son was born Tuesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bostwick of Bank street.

The Franklin County Telephone company of this city has bought from W. O. Start of Bakersfield, the telephone line which Mr. Start as special licensee of the New England Telephone Co. held on a five-year term. The field in which this line is located will be developed to its greatest capacity and a modern and complete exchange will be installed at East Fairfield to handle the business of that section. There are now but fifteen on the line, but thirty-six new subscribers have already been secured and it is confidently expected that there will be at least one hundred phones in use on this new addition within three months.

The marriage of Miss Florence A. Holyoke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Holyoke of the town of St. Albans, and Dr. Harley S. Herrick of Westford, will take place on Wednesday evening, August 2, at 7:30 o'clock.

RICHFORD.

J. Birney Martin fell on a moving circular saw Saturday at eleven o'clock, while working in Comings's saw mill. The saw struck him in the right thigh and penetrated to his lungs, cutting them apart and laying bare the heart. The saw also threw him over and cut off his right knee cap. Several physicians were summoned and he was taken to his home, Drs. Rogue and Lunderville being in close attendance until the hour of his death, which occurred about three o'clock Sunday afternoon, after having been in great agony 27 hours. Mr. Martin was a kind-hearted, agreeable man of 50 years, a devoted husband and father. He leaves a wife and four daughters, Lelia, Georgia, Marion and Frances, and two sons, John and Carl. The funeral took place at his late residence at ten o'clock Wednesday morning and interment was in Richford cemetery. The Rev. Mr. Smith, pastor of the Methodist Church, was conducted the services.

SHELDON.

E. M. Gunty of Swanton has the contract to build the new grand stand on the fair grounds at Sheldon Junction and will have it completed ready for the fair which will be held September 5, 6 and 7. A car load of cedar posts have arrived to be used in building the new fence. General Superintendant H. P. Marsh has put the track in shape so that the horsemen are working out their horses. The track requires a good thorough repairing before the races. This will be done at once. J. M. Hill of Morses Line has several horses at the track. They are being cared for by W. H. Duba.—The new Portland house has a few city boarders.

FAIRFAX.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Holbrook spent July 24 in St. Albans.—Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Bullock of West Milton visited Hiram Cook and family Saturday.—The funeral of Mrs Emma Davis was held at the Methodist Church July 21. The Rev. S. S. Brigham officiated. Mrs. Davis leaves a husband and infant daughter.—A. D. Ufford is a little better.—Mrs. Wagne Warren is critically ill.—Mrs. M. J. Hapkins and Miss Florence Hopkins of Coaticook, Can., was the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Hicks.—Miss Florence Bullard of St. Albans is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. H. H. Bullard.—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilson visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rood July 21.—Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Bishop and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brush were called to to Montpelier by the death of Mrs. Bishop's sister, Mrs. George Nay.—J. M. Learned of Wolcott was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. Bailey Rugg last week.—Miss Lottie Kidder spent several weeks with friends in Watertown, Mass., recently.—Mrs. A. J. Halstead of Westfield, N. J., is visiting her sister, Miss C. C. Hunt.—Mr. and Mrs. Depatie left July 14 for a carriage drive to Canada, where they will spend a week with friends.—Arthur Beeman is suffering with a large carbuncle on his hand.

FLETCHER.

This community was shocked to hear of the death in Seattle, Washington of Herbert Westbrook He died quite suddenly while out rowing in the canoe Mr Westbrook married Miss Carrie Brush of this place who survives him with one son.—Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Ellis have returned home from Boston, where they have been visiting relatives.—F. L. Smith paid 17½ cents for butter in June.—Lucius Whitney is ill also Thomas McGuire.—News has been received of the death in Richford of Joseph Deth. He was a resident of this place for many years. He leaves one son here by his former wife, who was Miss L. Netherly also a wife and son in Richford.

GEORGIA.

Harrie Earle, son of Floyd and Emma Mason, aged six years and nine months, died on Sunday morning and the funeral was held from the house Sunday at two p. m. The Rev. C. W. Clark officiating.—Little Bernice Hadley is suffering from a bad dislocation of the elbow, caused by a fall in the yard. The real trouble was determined by the use of the X-rays at St. Albans.—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pike and daaughter, Lizzie, of Johnson have been passing a few days at the home of his brother, Sidney Pike.—Martin Rankin is still gaining and took a short ride on Sunday.—Louisa Ballard is visiting her friend, Mrs. Daisy Knight, of Waterbury.—On