Mr. Boardley had been falling in health for a year and on Sunday evening of yesterday left him in an unconscious state till his death. Mr. Boardley was one of the town's best known and most respected citizens. He was born in Albany in March, 1825, and has never resided anywhere else with the exception of eight years spent in Malone, N. Y., in his early life. He was always a democrat in politics but has held many offices in both town and county, being senator from this county at one time. He was also United States customs official at East Albany a number of years. Mr. Boardley is survived by his wife and one son, Justin Boardley of this place, also a sister, Miss Sara Boardley and a brother, John Boardley of Malone, N. Y. The family have the sincere sympathy of their neighbors and friends. Mr. Boardley's death seems a personal loss to all.
