gressmen, has been elected by a plurality exceeding 25,000."

Representatives of the union labor party concede Gillette's election.

Meager returns from the interior show that Gillette is running strong in places that were thought to be overwhelmingly for Bell.

BABCOCK DEFEATED.

Wisconsin's Famous Congressman Will Be Succeeded by Democrat.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 6.—Returns from the third congressional district indicate the election of James W. Murphy, democrat, over Congressman Joseph W. Babcock, republican.

DOUBT IN NORTH DAKOTA.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 6.—Despatches from Bismarck, Fargo and Grand Forks, N. D., say that the election in that State is in doubt. Both republicans and democrats claim the election of their candidates for governor and justice of the supreme court.

It will be late to-morrow before anything definite will be known concerning the result.

DEMOCRATIC-SILVER VICTORY.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 6.—A democratic-silver party victory is indicated. Sparks for governor, is running ahead of Mitchell in all quarters. Returns show that Sparks, Bartlett for congress and Sweeney for justice of the supreme court are in the lead.

VOTE OF COLORADO.

Outside Vote May Overcome Republican Lead in Denver County.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 6.—Indications at nine o'clock are that Denver county gave Buchtel, republican, for governor, more than 10,000 plurality. Justice W. H. Gabbert, candidate for supreme judge, runs far behind other candidates on the republican ticket.

Meagre returns from the State indicate an increased democratic vote in some localities which may offset the democratic losses in Denver.

The democrats claim Teller county (Cripple Creek) which gave a republican majority two years ago.

LIGHT VOTE IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 6.—In North Carolina the vote was light but estimated to be democratic by about 20,000. The eighth district is doubtful. The tenth district is close with the democrats slightly in the lead.

LIQUOR LAW AN ISSUE.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 6.—Jacob Haussling, democratic candidate for mayor was elected to-day over Walter S. Howarth, republican, and George W. Tompkins, independent citizens. The liberal republicans who favor a less severe liquor law than the Bishop act voted largely for Haussling. Two years ago Doremus, the republican nominee for mayor carried the city by 10,739 majority.

FOR JOINT STATEHOOD.

Returns Indicate New Mexico Gave It Good Majority.

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 6.—Partial returns from seven counties out of 25 in New Mexico give joint statehood a majority of 2,000. Reports so far received indicate that the territory will go for jointure by from 4,000 to 7,000. Early reports indicate the election of Andrews republican delegate to Congress.

VOTE CLOSER THAN EXPECTED.

Sante Fe, N. M., Nov. 6.—The vote on the Statehood is closer than had been anticipated by both parties who had indorsed the Hamilton bill, but from present indications it will have at least 6,000 majority.

ARIZONA AGAINST STATEHOOD.

Tucson, Arizona, Nov. 6.—Chairman Tenney of the republican territorial committee says:

"Cooper will have a majority of 500."

An unusually heavy vote was polled. The vote for joint Statehood will not exceed 28 per cent.

Chairman Dillon of the democratic territorial central committe, estimates Smith's democratic majority at 2,000.

MICHIGAN REPUBLICAN.

Detroit, Nov. 6.—Governor Warner and the entire republican State ticket have been elected by 60,000 to 100,000 majority. The republican congressional candidates in each of the 12 Michigan districts have been elected and the republicans will have a large majority in the State Legislature with a possibility of its entire membership.

SEN. ELKINS IS SAFE.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Partial returns from scattered counties in West Virginia at 9 p. m. show the probable success of all five of the republican congressional nominees. The Legislature will be republican with the present joint ballot majority of 57, insuring the re-election of Senator Elkins.

VERY LIGHT VOTE IN TEXAS.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 6.—Notwithstanding excellent weather the total vote cast to-day was comparatively small, not exceeding 400,000 votes, all told, some 135,000 of which represent the combined vote of the republican, the reorganization republican, socialist, the socialist labor and prohibition parties. The next Legislature will be democratic overwhelmingly.

WILL NOT DRAIN THE EVERGLADES

Jacksonville, Nov. 6.—All the democratic candidates in Florida are elected. The Legislature is probably unanimously democratic. The proposition advocated by Gov. Broward to drain the Everglades seems to be defeated.

DELAWARE IS REPUBLICAN.

Burton Elected to Congress—Will Elect United States Senator.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 6.—It was stated at 11 p. m. that the republicans have carried Delaware and elected Burton for Congress over Marvel, democrat. They will also control the Delaware Legislature and will elect a successor to United States Senator Allee republican.

REPUBLICAN GOVERNOR IN NEBRASKA.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—(10:00 p. m.)—Indications at this hour are that Sheldon, republican for governor, has been elected by a plurality slightly in excess of that for Governor Hickey two years ago, which was 9,000. The rest of the republican State ticket probably is elected.

NORTH DAKOTA REPUBLICAN.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 6.—Preliminary returns show that Fisk has been elected judge of the State supreme court over Knauf, the republican nominee. For governor, Sarles, republican, and the rest of the republican ticket is elected. Later returns show that Sarles had a close call.

SENATOR DRYDEN IS SAFE.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 6.—At a late hour the returns from New Jersey indicate that the republicans will have 44 members of the House of Assembly and the democrats 16. This would give the republicans a majority on joint ballot of 89 and make certain the reelection of John F. Dryden to the United States Senate.

WYOMING REPUBLICAN.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 6.—No figures are available at this hour, 9 p. m., but it is not doubted that the entire republican State ticket has been elected by good majorities and that the Legislature which will elect a senator will be overwhelmingly republican.

IDAHO LOOKS DEMOCRATIC.

Republican Candidate for Governor Run Behind His Ticket.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 6.—Stockslager, democrat, for governor has carried Ada county against Gooding, republican, who is running behind his ticket. The legislative ticket seems to be republican. Republicans still claim Gooding's election.

INDIANA STRONGLY REPUBLICAN.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—From scattering reports the indications are that Indiana has gone strongly republican by from 45,000 to 55,000. The election of the entire republicann State ticket is conceded. Marion county went republican by 5,000, the democrats electing one county candidate and perhaps two. The legislature will be republican.

LOOKS LIKE CHANLER.

Returns at Midnight Indicated He Has Been Elected Lieutenant-Governor.

New York, Nov. 7.—At midnight to-night there was still doubt as to who is elected lieutenant-governor of New York. Sixteen counties had not reported the official count at that hour, but on the face of the figures in hand at that hour the result seemed to favor Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler on the democratic-independence League ticket. Whatever the result may be the figures will be close and until complete official returns shall have been made by all the counties now missing, it will be impossible to do more than to guess at the winner. The total vote for the State, so far as returned, including the democratic stronghold of the city of greater New York for lieutenant-governor is Chanler 664,234, Bruce 519,479.

It appears that outside of the candidates for governor and possibly for lieutenant-governor the democratic ticket is elected.

In greater New York Chanler's majority over Bruce is 124,691 and this big lead Bruce must overcome in the up-State counties. Among the missing counties is West Chester which gave Hughes 8,000 plurality.

Republican State headquarters, while expressing the belief late to-night that Bruce would pull out ahead of Chanler, would give no figures. Chairman Woodruff said: "On looking over returns from some 40 odd counties we find that Mr. Bruce has run ahead of Mr. Hughes by 600 votes and I believe he is elected. At the present time I do not care to give any opinion regarding the rest of the ticket.

The independence headquarters claim that the whole ticket with the exception of Mr. Hearst for governor has been elected. At democratic State headquarters no predictions or estimates were given out.

Charles E. Hughes republican candidate for governor has a majority of 52,000 approximately.

Up-State M. Linn Bruce, republican candidate for lieutenant-governor, is running slightly ahead of Mr. Hughes' vote. As Mr. Hughes came down to Greater New York with a lead of approximately 120,000, it readily will be seen that the vote for second place in the ticket will be close and only the complete official count will determine the successful candidate.

Returns are coming in slowly from up-State counties. At eleven o'clock forty out of the sixty-one in the State had completed the count and turned in the figures. From these it was impossible to predict the result of the entire count as to the subordinate places on the two tickets. At republican headquarters no definite statement on or claim could be had. It was stated that as there were still about twenty counties to be heard from officially nothing would be given out until these have reported.

GREATER NEW YORK'S VOTE.

New York, Nov. 7.—At 7:30 this morning the returns were complete in greater New York for the governorship. They showed Hearst's plurality to be 76,656. The vote by boroughs follows: Manhattan and Bronx, Hughes 134,228, Hearst 195,540; Brooklyn, Hughes 106,348, Hearst 111,141; Queens, Hughes 14,162, Hearst 22,221; Richmond, Hughes 6,518, Hearst 7,310; total, Hughes 261,256, Hearst 336,212.

NEW HAMPSHIRE FAILED.

No Popular Choice for Governor—Legislature Must Elect—Only Five Cities Voted for License.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 7.—With 17 towns still to be heard from, the returns from yesterday's State election indicate that the conest for the governorship will have to be settled in the Legislature, the republican candidate, Charles M. Floyd, having failed to secure a majority over the other two candidates.

The returns from 275 of the 292 wards and towns of the State give Floyd, republican, 29,948 for governor; Jameson, democrat, 37,138; Tetley, prohibitionist, 2,123; scattering, 874. This is a republican loss from four years ago of 5,164.

The democrats made gains in the legislature, although not enough to place in doubt the election of a republican United States senator to succeed Senator Burnham.

Five cities, Manchester, Nashua, Portsmouth, Dover and Somersworth voted to remain in the license column. The no-license forces were successful in the other six, Concord, Keene, Franklin, Laconia, Rochester and Berlin, all previously license cities.

GUILD'S PLURALITY 31,662.

Complete Returns from Massachusetts—Eleven Republican Congressmen.

Boston, Nov. 7.—The revision to-day of the figures in yesterday's election did not effect the republican victory. The complete returns placing Guild's plurality over Moran at 31,662, while Draper defeated Brown by a margin of 9,779.

Eleven republican congressmen were elected while the three democratic congressmen who won received strong endorsement. The democrats made a gain of three in the senate, but the lower branch of the legislature will remain the same as last year.

The balance of the republican State ticket was also re-elected. The executive council remains the same.

The total vote for governor is: Guild, 322,673; Moran 191,011; lieutenant-governor, Draper, 200,628; Brown, 190,849.

BECKHAM FOR U. S. SENATOR

Has Beaten Sen. McCreary in Kentucky—Republicans Gained Two Congressmen.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—With only a few mountain counties to hear from, and these probably increasing his lead, Governor Beckham has won his fight against Senator McCreary for the nomination for the United States senatorship in yesterday's democratic primaries. Samuel W. Hager was nominated for governor in the same primary by a majority of between 12,000 and 15,000, the nomination for attorney-general going to John M. Hendricks.

The complexion of Kentucky's representation in Congress has had some changes the republicans gaining two congressmen, giving them a total of four. The republican members are Dr. A. D. James of the third; John W. Langley, in the tenth; Don C. Edwards, in the eleventh, and Joseph B. Bennett, in the ninth district, Edwards and Bennett were reelected.

ELECTION IN HAWAII.

Honolulu, Nov. 7.—The election returns so far as received indicate the re-election of J. K. Kalanianaole, republican, as delegate to Congress by an increased majority.

The territorial Legislature will be republican.

It is probable that the republicans will contest the result in Honolulu.

The island of Hawaii went democratic except for delegate.

RHODE ISLAND'S COMPLETE VOTE.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 7.—Mayor James H. Higgins of Pawtucket, democrat, defeated Gov. George H. Utter, republican, for re-election by a plurality of 1,238, according to complete returns compiled by the Providence Journal to-day. The rest of the republican State ticket was elected. Republican control the general assembly which is to choose a United States senator to succeed George Peabody Wetmore. In the first congressional district, D. L. Grainger, democrat, was elected over Elisha Dyar, republican, by 727 plurality. A. B. Capron, republican, defeated Lucius F. C. Garvin, democratic, by over 2,000. For governor, Utter had 31,864, and his: Higgins 29,12.

SEN. DRYDEN IN DOUBT.

Democrats Gained Three Congressmen in New Jersey.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 7.—Revised returns show that the democrats will have the House of Assembly, 21 to 19 and have elected four congressmen in New Jersey, a gain of three. The democratic congressmen elected are William Hughes, sixth district; Logane Pratt, eighth district; Edward W. Leake, ninth district; James A. Hamill, 10th district.

The Legislature will be republican on joint ballot, 41 to 37. This gives the republicans three more than a majority, but Senator Colby of Essex, and Assemblyman-elect Fake, republicans, have both announced that they will not under any circumstances vote for the reelection of United States Senator John F. Dryden. This would reduce Mr. Dryden vote to 42, provides he got the republican caucus nomination. This would be only one more vote than the necessary 41. One of the things that operates against Mr Dryden is the fact that about three-fourths of the republican members of the Legislature will be from south Jersey. That section now has no United States senator, Mr. Kean and Mr. Dryden both being from the upper part of the State.

MISSOURI DEMOCRATIC.

St. Louis, Nov. 7.—From nearly complete returns from all counties, the democrats have carried the State by a plurality of 7,840, electing all candidates on the State ticket and 12 of the 16 congressmen. The republicans elected congressmen in Kansas City and St. Louis, but lost all the districts in the State, which had been swept into the republican ranks two years ago.

KANSAS IS IN DOUBT.

Republicans Claim Lead of 3,000 with Returns from 12 Counties Missing.

Topeka, Kans., Nov. 7.—Republicans claim a lead of 3,000 votes on governor with 12 counties still out. Democrats claim a lead of less than 1,000 for Harris with 12 counties out.

MARBLE DIFFICULTY SETTLED.

The receivers of the Columbian Marble Quarrying company have made an agreement with John E. Eastman and George P. Eastman whereby the latter again get possession of the marble quarry at West Rutland over which there has been considerable litigation and which has been controlled by the receivers for about three weeks. It is understood that by the terms of the agreement all legal proceedings against the Eastmans are discontinued; the receivers are to pay double price for the marble taken from the Eastman quarry duing the time that the injunction was in force but the Eastmans will pay all reasonable and proper expenses of quarrying such stone; minor differences as to book accounts are to be settled by arbitration, the receivers claiming that George P. Eastman is indebted to them; both parties in the agreement bond themselves to carry out its terms. The receivers have obtained marble probably sufficient to enable them to complete the Harig contract for which the injunction was obtained.

NO FISH HATCHERY FOR BRATTLEBORO.

It is considered very unlikely that John W. Titcomb, a government fish culturist, will decide to establish a fish culture station in Brattleboro with the $20,000 recently appropriated for another station in Vermont. Mr. Titcomb has inspected the trout preserve owned by L. J. Johnson in the western part of Brattleboro at the request of the Windham County Fish and Game Protective Association. He told President George W. Pierce and Secretary R. C. Bacon that the water supply at Mr. Johnson's preserve was not sufficient for the purpose. A supply adequate to raise 1,000,000 fingerlings a year is wanted, while the Johnson supply would raise only 300,000 to 400,000. Mr. Titcomb told the officers of the county association that he would send a large consignment of fry next spring, to be planted in the streams throughout the county. Cutting out the Brattleboro site gives Rutland county one less rival for the hatchery, local fishermen being very desirous of having the station located on Furnace brook at Holden. Mr. Titcomb during his recent visit to Holden found the supply fairly good but the great distance of the locality from the railroad was a drawback. This too may be said of the proposed Dorset, Arlington and Stowe sites, all of which have excellent springs. In discussing the matter recently Mr. Titcomb said: "We will pick out the two most favorable localities and give the hatchery to the one having the best railroad facilities."

JUSTICE OF SUPREME COURT

Attorney-General Moody to Go from the Cabinet to the Highest Bench.

SEC. HITCHCOCK TO GO

Feels He Cannot Continue As Secretary of Agriculture after March Fourth—Will Be Succeeded by James R. Garfield—H. K. Smith to Be Com'r Corporations.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The President today announced the appointment of Attorney-General William Henry Moody of Massachusetts as justice of the Supreme Court of the United States to succeed Justice Henry Billings Brown, who retired some time ago.

Mr. Moody has filled the office of attorney-general since July 1, 1904. Previous to that time he had server for more than two years as secretary of the navy. He had also represented his State in the 56th, 55th, 58th and 57th Congresses. It is generally is expected that Mr. Moody will retire from the department of justice the latter part of December.

This statement was issued from the White House today:

"The Secretary of the Interior Mr. Hitchcock, has informed the President that he would be unable to stay after March 4. Mr. Hitchcock has for some time felt that the very exhausting work he has been engaged in for over eight years in the interior department was wearing on him so as to make it impossible for him much longer to remain. At the President's earnest request he consented to accept a reappointment on March 4, but at the time of the President's inauguration, that he then stated that he could not say how long he would stay and he feels now he must insist on being relieved after March 4. The President urged him to accept the ambassadorship to France but Mr. Hitchcock feels that he is entitled to absolute rest and was obliged to refuse the offer. The President talked carefully over with Mr. Hitchcock the choice of a successor who would be depended upon to carry on with absolute fidelity the present policies of the department, and agreed with Mr. Hitchcock that the best man to carry on the exceedingly serious difficult and responsible work of the department was Mr. James R. Garfield, a present commissioner of corporations. Mr. Garfield has accordingly been notified that he will be appointed on March 4 when Mr. Hitchcock retires.

"Commissioner Richards has informed the President that in accordance with his intention expressed to Secretary Hitchcock last May he will resign, his resignation to be effective March 4. This will complete eight years of service in the land office, four years as assistant commissioner and four years as commissioner. His successor has not yet been determined upon.

"The assistant commissioner of corporations, Mr. Herbert Knox Smith, will succeed Mr. Garfield as commissioner of corporations."

DROP A BOTTLE FROM A BALLOON, AND YOU GO UP 400 FEET.

No writer ever described the sensations of ballooning with such particularity as does A. W. Rolker in his article on "Sky Sailing, the New Sport," in The American Magazine for November. The author is a joy to the reader because he relates all the little things that you want to know. He is indeed a traveller returned from a land of wonders, possessed of a passion to tell what he has seen, and equipped with the power to write entertainingly.

Among the numerous specific facts that Mr. Rolker reports, the following are interesting:

"It is while discharging ballast to enter the higher altitudes that you get your first idea of the hair-trigger balance of the giant contrivance keeping you afloat. Your pilot takes a small wooden scoop no larger than an ordinary-sized soup bowl, digs into one of the sand bags and scatters a single 'shovelful' overboard. Up darts your balloon—100, 200, 300 feet. An ordinary-sized bottle of beer spilled overboard lightens the balloon enough to send it up 250 feet, and if you happen to be over vacant land where you can drop the bottle itself without risk of killing anyone, the release of this weight will send you up another 300 feet. So delicately poised is your balloon once it has struck its balance that you could push it up or pull it down from 300 to 400 feet with strength equal to that of your little finger.

"When a mere cloud passes between you and the sun, causing instant contraction of the gas in the balloon, the envelope becomes baggy and flaccid at once and you begin to fall, sometimes at the rate of a thousand feet a minute, although you have no warning of this other than the statoscope and no sensation except the thrill as you see the alarming rapidity with which the earth comes nearer you. Three or four scoopfuls of sand may be necessary to sacrifice before you again strike your balance and the next moment the sun darts from behind the cloud, warms the balloon, and the envelope tautens almost with a bang and you go kiting upward under your lightened load until you are obliged to open the escape valve to let out gas to prevent going above your original level. Then it is that you begin to understand why the bugbear of the aeronaut is alternate cloud and sunshine why he prefers sailing during the night, and why, if he does sail throughout a day, he mounts high above the clouds in continuous sunshine where the volume of gas in the balloon remains constant."

TO CONTINUE IN OFFICE.

During a famous deadlock fight in the house at Washington over the civil rights bill Gen. Benjamin F. Butler favored a Sunday session.

"Bad as I am, I have some respect for God's day," replied Sam Randall of Pennsylvania.

"Don't the Bible say it is lawful to pull your ox or ass out of a pit on the Sabbath?" asked Butler. "You have 37 asses on your side of the house and I want to get them out of this ditch tomorrow; I think I am engaged in holy work."

"Don't do it," replied Randall. "I expect to see you in a better world."

"You'll be there, as you are here, a member of the lower house," flashed the sergeant, with telling effect.

THE WEEK'S NEWS

Wednesday, Sept. 7.

Elections were held in 42 states and, while the results in a number of instances were of unusual interest, it may be said that, generally speaking, there were no great surprises. Perhaps the widest general interest centered in the remarkable fight for governor which has been waged in New York between C. E. Hughes and W. R. Hearst. Hughes, while losing nearly all of the principal cities of the state, was successful by about 50,000 plurality. The rural districts brought about the Republican victory. In New York city the Tammany-Independence League judiciary ticket was successful, with one exception, over the candidates named by the non-partisan "judiciary nominators." Massachusetts re-elected Curtis Guild, Jr., Republican, as governor, over District Attorney Moran of Boston, who was the candidate of the Democratic party, the Independence League and the Prohibitionists.

BIRAM MORSE PARDONED OUT.

A number of years ago, at a small town in Maine an important local election was to take place, and there was strong rivalry between the republicans and democrats. Old Biram Morse, the blacksmith, was a strong democrat, but many of the farmers were republicans.

On the morning of the election a farmer came in to have his horse shod. The blacksmith said to him: "We're both busy. You're a republican and I'm a democrat. Let's pair off. We'll neither of us vote, and it will amount to the same as if we both went to the polls."

This was agreed upon. After election it was found out that Morse had paired off with five republican farmers.
