

VERMONT LOCAL NEWS

(Continued from third page.)

ual supper.—Mrs. Nancy Carlton has gone to Warren to spend the winter with her son. Mrs. Carlton is in feeble health.—Miss Alice Campbell has gone to California, where she has employment for the winter in a hotel.

Dr. H. W. Barrows was in Bethel on Tuesday. His parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Barrows and Miss Mary Barrows will leave Bethel for Stowe the last of the week and will reside in the house recently purchased of Henry Gibson on School street.—Mrs. E. S. Scribner and little son are visiting relatives in Enosburgh.—Miss Nellie Badger of Northfield is visiting friends in the Pucker street neighborhood, where she at one time taught school.—Mrs. Frank Heath of Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Eddy of Keene Heights, N. Y., are guests at C. F. Eddy's.—Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Straw and son, Richard, of Woodstock are spending a few days with relatives in Stowe.—At the meeting of Mt. Mansfield Juvenile temple on Saturday afternoon, the following officers were elected and installed: chief temple, Edwin Smalley; vice-temple, Kate Robinson; secretary, Mrs. F. A. Blodgett; treasurer and financial secretary, Miss Nellie Cole; marshal, Lloyd Douglas; deputy marshal, Vester Smith; assistant secretary, Isabel Smith; chaplain, Katherine Smalley. An interesting discussion was a part of the program. Several well prepared papers were read. The next meeting will be held on Saturday, November 17.—The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. N. Bigelow on Thursday afternoon, November 15.—Laura, the seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mason of West Branch, fell while at play on Tuesday evening, breaking both bones of one arm. Dr. Morgan was called to set the arm.—Earl Parker and family have moved to Moscow. The chicken-pie supper given by the Slide chapter, O. E. S., on Tuesday evening, was very successful. The proceeds being about $25.—The subject of the sermon at Unity Church Sunday morning will be "Believe and be Saved." Young People's fraternal meeting at 7:00 p. m. Topic, "Self-Improvement"; leader, Jesse Moody.

ORLEANS COUNTY

CRAFTSBURY.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Hill have moved to their new house lately purchased of Elmer Baker.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ladouceur visited in Eden last week.—C. H. Hanson has purchased Edward Wheeler's home paying $1500.—Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Hibbe have purchased Mr. Ira Dutton's house and taken possession. Mr. Dutton expects to remain with them the remainder of her life.—The Bishop brothers have moved to the J. C. Allen house.—Dr. Dillingham spent the greater part of last week in Burlington for medical treatment.—The Rev. W. R. Allen spent a few days in Grand Isle his native town.—Miss Anna Wylie has opened a millinery store at East Craftsbury.

NEWPORT.

One of the largest pieces of granite taken out of the Newport quarries was shipped to Albany, N. Y., Saturday to Judge McCall of that city. The piece weighed 12 tons and required 20 horses to move it from the quarry, which is located about four miles from railroad station, to the freight yard where it was loaded onto a special flat car.

Miss Alice Baker, who eloped with Leon Leach about two weeks ago, was located in Laconia, N. H., Friday and returned to her home in the west end, having become discouraged with the ways of the world.

BROWN TOWN.

Mr. Kelley of Barton Landing has moved to the farm recently purchased of Morton Parker.—Stanley Marsh has moved back to his farm.—Mr. and Mrs. James Ward are the parents of a baby, born October 25.—Mrs. Martin Heath has returned from a visit of several weeks among friends in Maine, Massachusetts and Rhode Island.—The Ethel Moulton's school in the Center district finishes Friday the 9th, with an exhibition at the town hall in the evening.—Mrs. Lorenzo Grow from Michigan is visiting friends in this vicinity.—Mrs. Nellie Osgood and children have gone to White River Junction.—John Busby has moved from Barton Landing to his farm.—Thomas Lafoe, who has been sick with rheumatism is better.—Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Lockwood of Newfane are visiting Mrs. Lockwood's mother, Mrs. Maria Going, and sister, Mrs. E. L. Huse, and other relatives and friends.—R. H. spent the past week with his father, Rev. Royal C. Vail.—The Ladies Aid society will meet with Mrs. Henry H. Leland Thursday afternoon and evening Nov. 8. Fish chowder will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock. A photograph entertainment will also be given. All are cordially invited.

LOWELL.

R. L. Powers is home from Massachusetts.—Rev. O. B. Newton of Albion is in town visiting relatives this week.—Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gelo of Fletcher passed a few days in town recently.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corlies are the parents of a daughter, born November 1.—W. A. Blake has rented his home to Leader Holdrege for one year.—Rufus Barker accompanied W. B. Patterson to Burlington Wednesday, where Mr. Patterson underwent an operation on his eyes for cataract.—Judge M. E. Tucker has sold an interest in his lumber and asbestos plant to Messrs. Gallager and Moore of Philadelphia, Pa., who have taken possession and are making extensive repairs, preparatory to starting business. The firm will be known as the Lowell Lumber & Asbestos Co.

MORGAN.

Charles Ellis of Derby is moving to his mother's farm in this town.—Geo. Gray is moving to Brownstown.—Joel Temple and John Drown have rented Fred Hamblet's farm.—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blood left their daughter Myrtle in the hospital at Hanover, N. H.—Mrs. R. W. Taylor started Friday for Concord, N. H., where she will spend the winter.—Marcella Dutton has sold his valley farm and has moved to his little farm at the Center.—Richard Maplesden has gone to California again this fall. He is 85 years old and has been West several times. He expects to live with his son.

DERBY.

Jacob Martin moved last week to the farm he lately bought of Henry Colby.—The W. C. U. met with Mrs. E. T. Duley last week. Extracts from the report of the state convention at St. Johnsbury were read and approved. The special opinion expressed that the local option law should be repealed during this session of the legislature.—The Rev. Mr. Harvey of Derby preached in the Congregational church here last Sunday at 1:30 p. m. The large congregation found the discourse both interesting and profitable.—A daughter was born to Mr. Mrs. L. Hall, at the Derby Line house, last week.—William Davis spent last Sunday with his son, Arthur, at Miss Chas. Bates'—The Rev. Mr. May moved last Friday night. Miss Miss Graham also returned to her home in Gorham, N. H. They both have many friends here who deeply regret the necessity of their removal.—William Moran returned to Oregon last week, only three or four more days later than Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilder, who have also gone West to reside.—Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Niles came home last Friday from Roxbury hospital. She is able to be about a little. Her friends hope for a speedy recovery.—E. A. Allbee is about to move his family into his father's house. His father, Dea. A. J. Allbee will live with him.—Chicken pox is the label on many doors in our village now, but no serious cases are reported.

ORANGE COUNTY

RANDOLPH.

At the Baptist parsonage Thursday afternoon Foster B. Felton of Woodstock and Miss Ella Marsh of Melrose, Mass., were married. The ceremony which was witnessed by a few friends, was performed by the Rev. Samuel Knowles, Howard March of Boston attended the ceremony. Miss L. Chadwick, who has been suffering for the past three years with a cancerous trouble, died at his home on Randolph avenue at ten o'clock Sunday morning. In 1899 he married Helen Louisa Moulton and to them two children were born, Minnie Chadwick, who died in 1902 at the age of nine years, and Lena, the wife of Harry St. Charles. Mr. Chadwick was a kind hearted, hustling business man. He spent the greater part of his life in Randolph. Constantine Chadwick, oldest brother of the deceased, is very seriously ill at his home in East Bethel and was unable to attend the funeral which was held at the house at two o'clock this afternoon.

There was a large stock shipment from this station Monday. Rickard & Blanchard shipped a number of horses, calves and sheep and Hale L. Flint shipped a carload of cows and three horses. The prices paid were $3.4 cents, calves 3 to 6 cents, sheep 3 to 5 cents per pound.

Thomas Carr, who has been at the Mary Fletcher hospital for treatment the past two weeks, was reported yesterday as being quite a little better.

In East Randolph Sunday took place the marriage of Lucius Blodgett and Mrs. Bessie Tilton. Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett are making their headquarters at her home on Center street.

RANDOLPH CENTRE.

There was a husking bee at Alfred Boyer's last Saturday evening, which was largely attended by the students of the Normal and many of the young people from Randolph.—Mrs. Field of Vergennes was a guest at the old Homestead, from Friday till Monday.—Reserved seats for the lecture course were sold at the Normal hall last Saturday evening at auction and about $50 dollars realized. The first entertainment of the course will be a concert next Friday evening at the Normal hall.—R. S. Messer and wife of Rochester were at N. L. Boyden's last Sunday.—Aline Parmenter and wife of Rochester visited their son, F. W. Parmenter, last week.

CHELSEA.

Alonzo T. Doyle is very sick with typhoid fever. His grandmother, Mrs. Lucas, who was thought to be afflicted with the same disease, is considerably better. Asahel Barnes last month sold his West Hill farm to Joseph Mennard of Plattsburgh for $1400. Mr. Barnes on Saturday purchased of Fred A. Ordway the former Thorne place, one mile from the village, for $1800.—Eugene E. Denamore of Barre city was in town last Sunday on a visit to his children. He is now employed at the Morrison milk farm in Barre.—W. W. Perkins, the miller, had sold his great mill to Milton E. Huntington, the preceding proprietor, and is removing to his former farm at East Brookfield.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norris of Barre, the parents of Mrs. Edward O. Matton, who recently died, are to remain with their son-in-law during the winter.—Miss Maria White of Montpelier was in town over Sunday as the guest of Miss Nancy B. Hall.—Mrs. William E. Lord left town on Tuesday morning to visit her daughter, Gail, who is the wife of Dr. George J. Helmer of New York city.—Elisha Mattison, aged 35 years next March, recently husked 25 bushels of corn in 10 days. He is well and hearty and more quick in motion than many a younger man.—Miss Marion L. Ramsdell, who has been visiting at Syracuse, N. Y., since September 8, returned home this week.—Fred Cleveland of Barre was in town last week visiting his father, George Cleveland.—Philip J. Little, the barber, who has had a run of typhoid fever and been confined to his house for several weeks, is now in his shop.—Elihu D. Barnes old at auction the remnants of the old Sleeper building, whose land has been condemned for school use, and is drawing the lumber to his bobbin shop for consumption.

BRADFORD.

Kenneth Low of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. S. Cole.—Mrs. M. G. Flinders is in Boston.—Mrs. W. C. Woodbury of White River Junction visited her sister, Mrs. Helen Peckett, last week.—E. W. Cummings was in St. Johnsbury last week visiting his father, George Cleveland.—Philip J. Little, the barber, who has had a run of typhoid fever and been confined to his house for several weeks, is now in his shop.—Elihu D. Barnes old at auction the remnants of the old Sleeper building, whose land has been condemned for school use, and is drawing the lumber to his bobbin shop for consumption.

RUTLAND COUNTY

BRANDON.

The funeral of Delmar J. Vail, late United States consul at Charlotte, N. C., was held Monday afternoon at two o'clock from the Congregational Church, the Rev. P. Launston Bullard officiating. The Knights Templar burial service was solemnized by Mr. Calvary Comendary. A large number of Masons from adjoining towns and from here attended in a body. The honorary bearers were E. J. Ormabee, Charles M. Winslow, F. H. Farrington, Wilson D. Nutting, Walter O. Ray and Howard D. Bacon. The following were the active bearers: W. B. French, D. L. Wells and Albert Bush of Orwell, A. J. Blackmer of Middlebury, E. D. Thayer and F. E. Chandler of this town. The burial was at Pine Hill cemetery. Captain Miller had charge of the arrangements.

PROCTOR.

Senator Redfield Proctor left Monday to spend the winter in Washington. Miss Carrie Redfield left the first part of the week to spend a few days' vacation with Mrs. George K. Cummings in New York.—Treasurer L. H. Baldwin of the Proctor Trust company returned Monday afternoon from a short visit to Williamstown, Mass.—Miss Mary Corona Crosby, matron of the Proctor hospital, returned Monday afternoon from a short visit to Dorchester and Bridgewater, Mass.—G. H. Boyce, purchaser for the Vermont Marble company, went Monday to Windham to look after the company's lumber job.—A. W. Edison was confined to the house Monday and Tuesday with a severe cold.—Miss Barbara Johnson of Port Edward, N. Y., is visiting friends in town.—Joseph A. Wright, travelling salesman for the Vermont Marble company is in town for a few days.—Miss Mary Markham, who is visiting friends at Middlebury, rendered a piano solo at a Catholic fair there Saturday evening.

WEST HAVEN.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jakeway have been spending a week with their son, George Jakeway, in Waterbury, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Alice Sleight kept house for them during their absence.—Mrs. S. R. Hiltz took spent last week in Montpelier.—The Ladies Aid held a chicken pie dinner and sale Saturday, November 3. There was a good attendance and the society cleared $20.—Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hiltz, who are visiting friends in Wheaton, Ill., Mrs. Margie Adams keeps house for them while they are gone.

FORESTDALE.

Mrs. Thomas Carver of Pittsford, Mass., and Mrs. J. S. Carver of Rutland, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Carver's mother, Mrs. John C. Carver, in Forest Dale.—Alexander Shaw, 18, Charles LaFrance of Shoreham is visiting his uncle, Abram LaFrance.—Ivan Tyler has moved to Pittsford.—Mrs. Volney S. Baker has returned from a visit in Bennington.

WASHINGTON COUNTY

SOUTH WOODBURY.

Frank G. Angell died at an early hour Thursday morning at his home here after a long illness with tuberculosis. He was a worthy member of the Congregational church, being one of the deacons for many years, always zealous for his welfare, and attending long after his strength would reasonably allow. He was kind and considerate, and cheerful even when suffering was endured. He leaves a wife and two daughters, the older one being a great sufferer, also an aged mother, one sister and three brothers.

MONTPELIER.

Assistant Judge J. W. Huntley and L. R. Wells, grand jurors on Saturday, to Carrie B. Dugan of Worcester from Carl A. Dugan, for intolerable severity, and to D. S. Hall of Cabot from Ida M. Hall for desertion.—Francis A. Gale of this city and Miss Clara Waterman, of Hanover, N. H., were married Saturday at the home of the bride on their return from their wedding trip they will reside at 74 Barre street.

Mrs. John Glinney, 81, died Monday aged 45 years. She was a native of Ireland and had been married to Mr. Glinney 42 years. She is survived by one son, John J. Glinney, and two daughters, Mrs. J. S. Haley and Miss Mary Glinney.—E. C. Heath was in Northfield Saturday on business.—Lynn Jones is to move his family into the house recently vacated by James Smith.—Mrs. A. W. Eley has come to New London, Conn., to visit her son—J. W. Egan of Middlebury was in town Sunday.—Dan Rich is soon to move his family to Whitefield.—F. C. Lamb and O. B. Goodwin were in Barre recently.—Charles Kingsbury and wife of Montpelier visited at his father's, Ezra Kingsbury the past week.—Clifton Murray of Amherst, Mass., visited friends in town last week.—J. McKelvin has been working in Granville for the past two weeks.

WATERBURY.

H. J. Parcher has sold the Fred Powers place to Howard Downey of Stowe.

MIDDLESEX.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. George, who live at Shady Hill, gave them a surprise party Thursday evening and helped the happy pair to celebrate the 50th anniversary of their marriage.

ROXBURY.

The Marble quarry is closed, for the season, and Mr. Miller, Mr. Kelley and Mr. Abbott have moved to their homes in Swanton.—Miss Mina Brown, sister of Swanton, last week in Montpelier and Barre.—Mr. and Mrs. Algernon Spaulding of Worcester spent last week at George Williams.—N. D. Rice and Master Gerald were in Northfield Thursday.—Cade E. C. White and Miss Little Grouse of Northfield were in town Saturday.—R. J. Flint of Bethel was in town, surveying, one day last week.—O. Briggs was in Montpelier recently.—John Jaxon of N. Y., assisted by Northfield Local Talent, will give an entertainment at the town hall next Wednesday evening.—The C. E. Tople next Sunday evening will be "How Christ Bore His" sorrows, and "How We Should Bear Ours." The leader Mrs. W. J. Carpenter.

WAITSFIELD.

Mrs. Rufus Bucklin went last week to Derby, Conn., where she is to spend the winter with the family of her son, Walter Andrews.—Miss Farrand of the Randolph Normal school was in town over Sunday visiting her brother, Professor Farrand, of the Waitsfield high school.—The nine-months old daughter of Louis J. Dedraft died Thursday, November 1, of diphtheria.—O. Briggs was in Montpelier recently.—John Jaxon of N. Y., assisted by Northfield Local Talent, will give an entertainment at the town hall next Wednesday evening.—The C. E. Tople next Sunday evening will be "How Christ Bore His" sorrows, and "How We Should Bear Ours." The leader Mrs. W. J. Carpenter.

FAYSTON.

There was a Halloween party given by the Good Templars and their friends on the evening of October 31 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Bruce. About 75 people were present. Traditional games were played, fortunes told, songs, music, etc.,

made a merry time. Apples and home made candies were served and all enjoyed a very pleasant evening.—Mrs. Henry Wood of Northfield spent a part of last week at J. B. Thompson's.—Mrs. Jennie Berry has been caring for Mrs. Mary Berry, who fell and was badly hurt.—Mrs. Aurilla Waterman, who has been at work for the late William Dana over a year, has gone to visit friends.—Daisy McCullough, who has been in Jeffersonville for a few months, has returned to her home.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mann returned from a trip to Boston last Saturday.

SOUTH WOODBURY.

The funeral of Frank G. Angell, who died October 31, after a long illness of tuberculosis, was held at the church on Friday, the Rev. James Ramage of North Troy officiating. A quartette, composed of J. L. Robbins, George Bunting, Mrs. Grace Burnham and Mrs. Nina Lawson sang three selections. Mr. Angell was a worthy member of the Congregational church and had filled for many years the office of deacon and superintendent of the Sunday school. He was modest and conscientious, cheerful, even when suffering was endured, and he leaves behind him a clean record and an unblemished name. He leaves behind him two daughters, the older a suffering invalid, an aged mother, one sister, and three brothers, to whom in their deep sorrow the community extend their heartfelt sympathy.—Lucy Sabie was at home from Burlington over Sunday.—Harvey Goodell is visiting in the place.—Warren Goodell lately lost a good horse by reason of sickness.—Charles Burnham, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned to his home in Bristol.

MARSHFIELD.

Schools in town close Friday, November 9.—Several of the schools in town attended the Legislature last week Thursday.

MIDDLESEX.

The Ladies Aid held a social with Mrs. Bert McKelvey Wednesday afternoon.—William Newhall, wife and sister, Mrs. Wellington, of Pittsford, Mass., visited in Orange from Friday till Sunday.—A. J. Smith, who has been in town a week, will leave for New York on Monday.—William Vaughn and Wallace Goodwin put a fine buck the last of the open season in the north, weighing 218 pounds.—Albert Taplin has purchased of the Sydney Hastings estate the home farm and is to take possession the first of December.—The Consolidated Electric Light Plant have a posse of men setting poles on the south side of the river and are soon to move the line on the north side over the river.—Mrs. H. Corns is boarding the electric light men while employed in this vicinity.—Mr. Fernin of Charlotte has purchased the William Lewis farm and is to take possession at once.—William Lewis moved from his farm down to the village into the Methodist parsonage Tuesday for the winter.

Mrs. Ada Putnam is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Minott, at Montpelier for a few days.—Miss Georgia Wilson and Mrs. E. W. Taylor went to East Chals on Sunday to visit their sister, Mrs. Guy Hancock, for a short time.—Miss Mary Kelley visited friends in Montpelier Saturday and Sunday.—Miss Mary E. Abbott was at home part of last week.—The Rev. George Smith is in Milton this week.—Bert Richardson, who has been at work in East Montpelier for some months, returned to his home here on Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Willey and daughter were guests of Mrs. Selton Willey on Sunday.

WORCESTER.

Mrs. Ada Putnam is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Minott, at Montpelier for a few days.—Miss Georgia Wilson and Mrs. E. W. Taylor went to East Chals on Sunday to visit their sister, Mrs. Guy Hancock, for a short time.—Miss Mary Kelley visited friends in Montpelier Saturday and Sunday.—Miss Mary E. Abbott was at home part of last week.—The Rev. George Smith is in Milton this week.—Bert Richardson, who has been at work in East Montpelier for some months, returned to his home here on Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Willey and daughter were guests of Mrs. Selton Willey on Sunday.

WINDSOR COUNTY

SOUTH ROYALTON.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Richardson have returned from Rochester.—The Rev. Mr. Goodwin of Bethel preached at a union service in the Methodist church on Sunday evening, November 4.—Eugene returned Sunday afternoon from Burlington where she has been receiving treatment in the Mary Fletcher hospital the past two weeks.—G. T. Wells gave a pleasant reception to his many Vermont friends on Tuesday of last week. He leaves this week for his home in Salt Lake city.—Mrs. Nellie R. Skinner is visiting her sister, Mrs. Alice French.—Mr. and Mrs. William Clouson, of Boston were in town a few days recently, called here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Charles Sargent.—Miss Alma Foster has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Rogers in Swampscott, Mass., before going to Norway, Me., where she expects to spend the winter with another sister, Mrs. Sargent.—The funeral of Mrs. Charles Sargent, whose death occurred on Wednesday of last week, was held from her late home last Saturday morning. The Rev. S. C. Goodwin and the Rev. E. E. Wells officiating. The interment was in Stratford, Mass.—R. D. Crain came from Whitecloud, Mass., on day last week.—Tuesday, remaining until Thursday, when the Rev. Mr. Sargent will be by her mother, Mrs. Betsey Pike, who will spend the winter with her.

GAYSVILLE.

Miss Alice Chedel went to Burlington Monday.—Mrs. Ruth of New Britain, Conn., has been the guest for a few days of her friend, Mrs. Walter Swanger.—Mrs. Jonas Wheeler of Barre has been spending several days in town.—The Ladies' society of the Congregational church served a baked bean dinner at Mrs. F. C. Fletcher's Tuesday.—John Swinger and Miss Mirtie Swinger of Huntington are visiting at George Swinger's.—The Ladies' Aid society held a social at Walter Swinger's Wednesday evening.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed and sister, Mrs. Smith of Brandon visited in town the first of the week.—Charles Richardson has moved to South Stockbridge where he and his son are working for Goodale Brothers.—Mrs. D. F. Gould is confined to the bed with neuralgia. She is attended by Dr. Fred Edwards.—Miss Fannie Boutwell is working for Mrs. John Johnson.—The Rev. J. Wesley Miller of Bethel preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, November 4.—The Epworth League topic for Sunday evening is "Forgiving One Another"; leader, Mrs. Carrie Savage.—Leon Reed of the Rutland business college and a friend, Burr Phillips, of Greenfield, N. Y., were with Will Reed last week, returning Saturday.—Mrs. Aldra Reed