HAPPENINGS IN VERMONT.

Carter Dean, Mrs. B. F. Eddy, estimating pastor's salary. B. F. Eddy, O. A. Baldwin, O. T. Barnum. All the business of the conference passed off harmoniously and an urgent request was made for the services of the pastor for another year. Donahue, treasurer, presented a report of $1,000 for the month of December. Highest price, $1,500; lowest price, $1,000.

SOUTH STARKSBORO.

Mrs. Alice Follansbee is visiting Mr. Follansbee's family, Mrs. Cynthia Norton in Chittenden Falls, Mass.—This annual oyster supper of the Farmer's Union, is postponed until next month as the treasurer, E. S. Steadman, is sick and not able to attend to it.—Sarah Orin, who teaches in Bristol Notch, was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Orin over Sunday. Miss E. Birdall's school will close this week. That of Emma Hallack closed last week.

WEST SALISBURY.

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Dyer was the scene of a very pretty wedding Tuesday afternoon when their niece, Maude Estelle Rivers, was united in marriage to Elmer Arthur Angove, of Poultney. After a solo by Arthur C. Taylor of Middlebury, the wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Alice Hixley of Poultney, immediately followed by the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. William B. Slocum, pastor of the Methodist Church. Miss Margaret Dyer was flower girl, and Doris Kinsland and Carroll Dyer were bridesmaids. A delicious luncheon was served under the direction of Miss Smith, the Burlington, caterer. The high esteem in which the young people are held was evidenced by the large number of beautiful wedding gifts. The happy couple departed in a shower of rice and confetti for a brief trip to Montreal, after which they will remain in Poultney where Mr. Angove is engaged in business.

LARRABEE'S POINT.

A great ice harvest at this point.—Miss Winifred Farr of the Lake House is in Shoreham caring for her friend, Mrs. Mary Plant, who was seriously injured by being tipped from a sleigh two weeks ago.—Miss Marie Bruce of New York is at the Lake House for a few weeks.—Harriet C. Sanders, who returned to Perthshire.—Lillian Tanager and daughter, Mabel, spent Saturday in Chittenden.—Walter Burleigh is sick.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foster of Chittenden, N. Y., passed Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hedges.—Edw. C. Hedges has returned from Whitehall, N. Y.

CALEDONIA COUNTY.

LYNDONVILLE.

H. B. Davis, aged 39, died Wednesday Jan. 24 after a few days' illness of double pneumonia. He was a native of Washington county, and was probably the oldest job printer in continuous service in the State beginning when he was 13 years old in a Montpelier office. He was formerly in the St. Johnsbury Caledonia office over 20 years and was in 1890 the Lyndonville Journal. After a few years he sold the paper and was for a time in the job office of the Bellows Falls Times. He returned to Lyndonville about three years ago and has since conducted a job office here. He was active in all the movements and a prominent old fellow. He leaves a wife and one daughter.

CHITTENDEN COUNTY.

JERICHO CENTER.
